PART I

FOREWORD

For a number of reasons I have prepared this record of the family of Thomas James, Clerk of Kingston Parish in Gloucester County, Virginia, 1783-1792, 1796, and wife Betsy. In the first place, in an earlier genealogy of my husband's family, IRONMONGER AND CONNECTIONS, I devoted special attention to this James family for the reason that his paternal grandmother was Elizabeth Frances James Ironmonger, granddaughter of Thomas and Betsy James. Secondly, in my METHODISM IN YORK COUNTY, published in 1960, a leading place was given to Reverend Cyrus Basye James, son of Thomas and Betsy James, for the part which he played in the founding of Methodism in York County, Virginia — my native county. A third and more impelling reason, perhaps, has been that I have always lived in this Chesapeake Bay area where the population is to a very considerable extent made up of the descendants and the relatives of this couple, families with whom my family has been closely associated and related for more than a century. My interests have, therefore, been both social and professional.

The factual documentation of a direct family line in Virginia from a seventeenth century immigrant without break and without assumptions is difficult at best and often impossible. The loss of public county records by fire, theft, carelessness and deterioration has been appalling. In the counties through which the line of Thomas James' ancestry has been pursued, Gloucester, Lancaster, Northumberland and Mathews, records at one time or another were completely lost in two, Gloucester and Mathews, and partly in Northumberland. However, none was at any time complete for all the population as to births, marriages and deaths. Likewise incomplete were the parish, Episcopal Church, records — only a few of which have survived from the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. As a result, like other genealogists, amateur and professional, I have had to resort to much collateral materials, such as family Bibles, diaries, letters, obituaries, tombstones, military records, wills, deeds and court orders, and oral information. Fortunately, many county records did escape and are now secure under a state-local system of restoration, copying and preservation. Some of these sources are hereinafter listed. All of these which are pertinent to this study have been examined. Personal interviews and correspondence have been numerous and widespread. Yet, with respect to Thomas and Betsy James' ancestry, several intriguing points are unproved although substantial evidence supports certain conclusions.

Whether Thomas James was a descendant of the Gloucester-Lancaster family of immigrant Walter James (1653) or of the Northumberland family of William James, born 1654, in both of which were generations of sons named Thomas, has been of interest to many descendants and relatives. Two previous professional studies have differed on this subject. Whether or not Thomas James' wife Betsy was Elizabeth Basye has until now been an unproved item of family history. It now seems inescapable that she was the grandmother rather than the mother of Cyrus Basye James, first born son of Thomas and Betsy James. Now this problem seems definitely solved.

A similar problem has been studied as to the maiden name of Betsy James. Recently a careful re-examination of the Kingston Parish Register suggested that she was probably Betty Davis, daughter of Thomas and Hillegan (Degge) Davis. From the association of names, repeated in her descendants (see page 98) and the agreement of dates, this conclusion is drawn. These are points which challenge the researcher more than the compiling of a directory of post-Revolutionary descendants.

In many Virginia genealogies, including those of a number of James families, authors have resorted to English directories to establish or indicate relationships with the nobility and aristocracy, even royalty, but this author knows of no James family in Virginia which possesses proof of unbroken descent from the Old World and throughout its history in Virginia from the seventeenth century. Bearers of the name over there were found in all levels of society and the Virginia immigrants seemed to have been a good cross-section of that society. Practically all who came to Virginia, as a matter of record, quickly acquired land, and some were soon recorded officially as planters, gentlemen, public officials, professional men — as well as artisans, laborers and servants. Quite a number became early teachers and preachers.

I have had no interest in establishing a British Isles connection or social level for this family. Actually, the study of Thomas James' background and ancestry was more interesting as history, geography and population movement than as factual genealogy. I have been motivated by the sincere belief that such a study as this is valuable in the lives and communities of this large family, present and future, as well as in closing the gaps in our early American history.

The material used in this manuscript has been collected from the following sources:

All Lancaster County, Virginia, records from Book 1, 1652 to 1800; Northumberland County records; Virginia census lists; tax lists of tithables; some loose papers of York and Lancaster Counties; the Kingston Parish Register, in Virginia State Library, (already mentioned); perhaps half a hundred very old family Bible records in Mathews, York, Middlesex, Elizabeth City, Hampton, Norfolk, Poquoson, and others; scores of old obituaries which have been clipped from local and church papers and carefully preserved by members of the family; church records of York County's earliest Methodism, which include two deeds of Methodist Church property in York County (1817 and 1822) and a careful study of the Quarterly Conference minutes of York and Warwick circuit 1852 - 1879; tombstones in local church cemeteries and in old family burying grounds. Mrs. W. W. Crockett, infra, shared with me a family paper prepared about 20 years ago by Robert Blades, Mrs. May Gayle Chowning, Mrs. J. W. Hornsby and herself. I was able to verify certain dates by comparison with a manuscript prepared by Arthur W. James, infra, in 1955, a copy of which he gave to me. Personal interviews with interested descendants and letters from others at a distance have all been helpful in bringing to light facts about the family.

This family history will not be perfect, for obvious reasons; nor will it be complete as many dates are not obtainable. However, everything used in this compilation is absolutely authentic, and all relationships have been established through the above sources.

It is with some pleasure that I thus share with you, the public, this James family history and point with pride to some of the ancestry of my husband.

The Book Plan

PART I is a record of many unconnected items relative to early James families in several of the old, tidewater counties of Virginia.

PART II traces five generations of the ancestry of Thomas James⁶, the post-Revolutionary clerk of Kingston Parish in Gloucester County, that section of the county which in 1790 became the present Mathews County. No explanation of generation markings seems necessary since the succeeding generations are explained in quoted wills or other data of the text or in footnotes, the generation numbers from 1 to 5 being placed by the surname James.

PART III is devoted to the descendants of Thomas James⁶. His eleven children are designated by Roman numerals I to XI. Each of these forms a complete chapter. The family groups are identified as follows: A⁸, 1⁹, (a)¹⁰, (1)¹¹, (aa)¹².

It will be noted that there is some repetition of genealogical data in several of the chapters devoted to the children of Thomas James⁶. The author's reason for these repetitions is her well-supported opinion that the data on each of the descendant family lines should be complete within the chapter as a matter of equity and to avoid cross-references as well as to insure uniformity of style.

Thus, certain data presented in the Frances James chapter are repeated in the Paulina James chapter because of the inter-marriage of first cousins. The same is true of the repetition in the Thomas Degge Davis James chapter of data previously presented in the Cyrus Basye James chapter. There is, likewise, such repetition in the Cary James and Cyrus Basye James chapters. Again, data of the Enos family are found, in part, in both the Thomas Degge Davis James and the Paulina James chapters. Other short repetitions are found in the Martha Washington James and Hillegan Degge James chapters, and elsewhere. (Indeed, first-cousin marriages were quite frequent in colonial years in Virginia, especially in the sparsely settled and often isolated areas of Tidewater Virginia.)

Acknowledgements

The author wishes to express her appreciation to all who have so graciously assisted in making possible the preparation of this family history. Several members of the family have rendered valuable assistance in collecting data for this manuscript. Their keen interest in the project and their sympathetic understanding have given encouragement and help. Among them are:

Mrs. W. W. Crockett (Mrs. Fannie White Crockett) who has arranged contacts in Mathews County, Virginia, and has accompanied the author on visits to relatives and friends in that area, in Middlesex, Norfolk, Portsmouth and Richmond. She has written letters to out-of-state relatives asking for data and has freely shared every helpful reply.

T. Vincent Watkins, another interested member of the family, has searched records in County Clerk's offices, in the Library of the College of William and Mary, in Williamsburg, the Charles Taylor Memorial Library of Hampton, Virginia, and in the Virginia State Library, Richmond. He has assisted in copying numbers of early birth dates, marriage dates and death dates from the Kingston Parish Register in the Virginia State Library; he has visited a number of old family burying grounds and has copied inscriptions from tombstones. He is largely responsible for collecting data for the Martha Washington James⁷ White chapter, except the John French⁸ White line, especially of those descendants in the Poquoson area of York County. To do this he has made many calls in that section, in Hampton, Warwick, Newport News and elsewhere, asking questions and recording information incorporated in this manuscript.

Mrs. L. H. Hall, Sr., of Dare, Virginia, has been helpful in relating some of her recollections of members of the family and in verifying some of the information from other sources.

Miss Clara Forrest of Mathews County has been most cooperative, sharing much data in possession of her family and in suggesting other fruitful contacts.

Finally, to Arthur W. James should go the thanks of all members of the family for his sustained interest in the project and his assistance in editing the manuscript and arranging for its review by others and for publication. Without his guidance and assistance this family history would not have been made available to you, even though the manuscript had been written.

The list of others who have been helpful is too long to include here. The author takes this opportunity of saying, "Thank you, one and all."

INTRODUCTION

TIDEWATER VIRGINIA

The Family's Fabulous Homeland in the New World

Virginia is divided into approximately even halves — eastern and western — by the Blue Ridge Mountains. The eastern half is composed of the Tidewater and Piedmont provinces. The western half includes the Blue Ridge Mountain, Great Valley and Appalachian provinces. Each of these is divided into distinctive regions topographically, historically, and economically. Tidewater is a low, flat section of the Atlantic Coastal Plain, 100 miles in width from the Atlantic Ocean to the Piedmont and 200 miles from north to south, with elevations from sea level to 250 feet. It is divided into long, narrow peninsulas by the Potomac, Rappahannock, York, and James Rivers and the Chesapeake Bay. Tidewater Virginia is the land of Jamestown, Williamsburg, Richmond; of Washington, Madison, Monroe, Harrison and Tyler; of Yorktown and the Peninsula Campaigns; of Hampton Roads. The peninsulas have historical names, and Virginians are proud of their regional nativity and residence — The Eastern Shore, southern tip of the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula, the Northern Neck, between the Potomac and Rappahannock, the Middle Peninsula, between the Rappahannock and York, The Peninsula, between the York and James, and the Southside, below Hampton Roads.

To appreciate the geography of this lower Chesapeake Bay country, one should have in view a map of the entire basin. He will then see a unique geographical formation. There are many rivers with great deltas. There are oceanside bays into which a number of rivers empty. There are seas with indented coasts and off-shore islands. There are many-harbored coasts. But none of these embraces such a composite of estuaries and tributaries, of fertile lands, of a nation's history, population, commerce, industry, culture and wealth as this basin.

It was at Cape Henry, at the southeastern tip of this land, that the colonists who established Jamestown staged the first scene of the first act of the British-American drama in the New World. Here, "about foure o'clock in the morning" on April 26, 1607, the sea-weary colonists, who three weeks later founded Jamestown, "descried the Land of Virginia." They had left England late in 1606, and had spent the greater part of the next five months in the strict confines of their three small ships, the largest of which, the Susan Constant, was but 110 feet in length overall. It is small wonder, as George Percy related, that they were "almost ravished at the first sight" of their new surroundings. It is understandable too, why, after claiming the land for God and King, they tarried four days in the Cape Henry area.

Early on April 30 they moved to a new anchorage at the mouth of Hampton Roads at a point they named Cape Comfort, now Old Point Comfort. Shortly thereafter they entered the nearby James River. After two weeks of searching along both sides of the river, they elected to establish their settlement thirty miles up the river at Jamestown, which was to continue as the Colony's capital for ninety-two years.

This precariously maintained first permanent settlement in America by the English was proof of their determination to establish themselves in the New World. The defeat of Spanish seapower during the reign of Queen Elizabeth had paved the way for English colonization of America. Enterprising Britons had already established their influence in India, the Near East, and Russia. Sir Walter Raleigh had made several unsuccessful attempts to establish an enduring settlement on the Carolina coast at Roanoke Island (now commemorated by Fort Raleigh National Historic Site, a unit of the National Park System). It remained for the Virginia Company of London, under its charter of April 10, 1606, to found the first permanent English settlement in America.

The first settlers landed in May, 1607, built houses and a fort, planted crops, and began the struggle for the conquest of the new land. They brought with them their church. They established homes, maintained trial by jury and their rights as free men, and soon they established representative government, intent upon the realization of Raleigh's dream of a great English nation beyond the seas. Following the re-establishment of the settlement as a Royal Colony in 1624 and the granting of its lands to individuals, immigration began in earnest. By mid-century it had crossed the tidal lands and by the end of the century had crossed the Piedmont and reached the slopes of the Blue Ridge Mountains. The early migrations within the Colony followed the waterways, the Chesapeake and its great tributaries and their numberless creeks and little bays, to the lush lands of the fingers-like peninsulas formed by them. Up the shores of the Chesapeake Bay and up its estuaries and tributaries to the mountains and beyond they went in numbers and in force.

Between the Potomac and Rappahannock, extending from the Chesapeake to Fredericksburg, originally to the Allegheny Mountains, lies the northernmost of these peninsulas, the "Northern Neck," 100 miles in length and from ten to twenty in width, comprising the counties of Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond, Westmoreland and King George. From this strip of land came Washington and his mother, Presidents Madison and Monroe, the Lees — Richard Henry, Lighthorse Harry, Robert Edward — and other great Virginians. Stratford, Epping Forest, Sabine Hall, Mount Airy and other distinguished homes are intact. Often designated as the “American Athens,” its citizens insist that it is also “The Garden of Eden,” having in mind the fertility of its soils, its river and bay frontages, its beautiful creeks and its marine life resources. Its county seats are colonial in style and atmosphere and its people of pioneer descent.

To the south, between the Rappahannock and York, is the Middle Peninsula — more frequently designated as the Rappahannock-York Peninsula — extending, likewise, from the Chesapeake to the Piedmont and comparable to the Northern Neck in size and main characteristics. The lower section of this peninsula was organized as a county in 1634, Charles River County, name changed to York County in 1642/3, out of which came Gloucester County in 1651. From the earliest days of the Colony it has been productive in agriculture and seafoods. Many early American structures are intact. It has been continuously the home of scores of distinguished Virginia families. Walter Reed was born in Gloucester County. For three centuries it has sent sturdy seamen to the seven seas. Along its shores are boat yards, seafoods packing houses, yacht clubs and fleets of commercial fishermen — oyster, clam, crab and fish. Its indentured shores are everywhere dotted with beautiful homes of natives, new residents and summer cottagers.

Southward, between the York and the James, is “The Peninsula.” It has been designated as The Peninsula since early days of the Colony — two and a half centuries before it was immortalized by McClellan and Lee. From its tip at Old Point Comfort to the fall line at Richmond this peninsula is also 100 miles in length and from ten to twenty miles in width. The York River, on the north side, has a depth of forty to ninety feet from the Bay to Yorktown, an important naval anchorage and depot area. The James River, on the south side, is navigable by smaller ocean ships to Richmond. This is the finger of Tidewater Virginia on which are located Jamestown, Yorktown, Williamsburg, Hampton, Newport News, Old Point Comfort; on which the battles of Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, Gaines Mill, White Oak Swamp, Malvern Hill were fought; on which Shirley, Westover, Berkeley, Sherwood Forest, Carters Grove and other distinguished plantation homes are preserved.

From Hampton Roads to the North Carolina boundary is the southernmost region of Tidewater Virginia. It lacks a commonly accepted provincial name. This is the region of Norfolk, Portsmouth, Virginia Beach, Suffolk, Smithfield and the counties of Norfolk, Princess Anne, Isle of Wight, Nansemond and Surry. Hampton Roads is a bay, actually an estuary of the Chesapeake. On the south side of this renowned body of water are the ports of Norfolk, South Norfolk, and Portsmouth and on the north side, Newport News and Hampton.

Between the Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean is Tidewater Virginia's famed Eastern Shore, southern end of the Del-Mar-Va Peninsula. This elongated, scalloped shell of land is seventy-five miles long and ten to fifteen miles in width. It was settled contemporaneously with Jamestown, many of the early ships first making landings there. Its lands are all subdivisions of King's Grants, and practically all of its people are descendants of pioneers. Many of the families of the "Western Shore" first lived on the "Eastern Shore." On its oceanside are long off-shore islands and a dozen inlets and inside bays. Its bayside is indented with creeks which form numerous "necks" of land. Chincoteague Island, Wachapreague, Cape Charles, Quimby, Oyster, Cherrystone, and other points are famous waterfront communities.

In this small, flat, watery region of the United States the romance and history of three and a half centuries developed in full measure. Here the first cry for freedom was long and loud. Here ended the Revolution at Yorktown. Along these peninsulas and rivers much of the Civil War was fought, and on its coasts the nation has concentrated its military installations. This is Historyland, first home of the ancestors of millions of Americans from the Atlantic to the Pacific, but it is more than that: it is a land favored by nature and blessed with a people who throughout its history have endowed it with a tradition, a mode of life and a spirit which to this day permeate the life of the nation. To this beloved land, in the seventeenth century, came thousands of immigrants, men and women, from the British Isles, among them scores with the family name of James, one of whom, Walter James who acquired a grant of land in Gloucester County on July 24, 1653, is acceptably revealed by this study as the ancestor of Thomas James, Clerk of Kingston Parish, and a multitude of his descendants in Virginia and throughout the United States.

ARTHUR W. JAMES

SOME EARLY NOTES FROM OTHER VIRGINIA COUNTIES

Northampton and Accomack

(The Eastern Shore of Virginia)

The court records of these counties, oldest in the nation, contain many items pertaining to citizens surnamed James, beginning as early as 1654. The records of deeds, wills, court orders, surveyors' reports and vital statistics reveal many transactions of James families.

Whitelaw's Virginia's Eastern Shore, a two-volume history of the ownership and descent of the entire acreage of the historic peninsula, traces many tracts belonging to Jameses. Torrance's Virginia Wills and Administration, 1632-1800, an index, contains numerous items of James transactions. These two monumental works are recommended for those interested in this and other early Virginia families.

York County, Virginia

The Charles Parish Register, Episcopal Church of York County, edited by Landon C. Bell, has the record of a number of dates of births and deaths of members of the James families including the following items:

Children of George James and Anne, his wife: George, born January 4, 1676; John, born March 20, 1678; Mary, born September 4, 1681. George James was buried January 23, 1681.

John James and Temperance, his wife, had one daughter, Mary James, born August 17, 1701. John James, Sr., died January 8, 1736.

Children of George and Elizabeth James were: William, born May 12, 1704; George, born October 19, 1706; Ann, born February 27, 1708; John, born November 20, 1711; Robert, born May 29, 1714; Mary, born January 16, 1716; and Thomas James, born October 11, 1718.

George James died April 24, 1718; Elizabeth James, a widow, died March 3, 1741, and George James, a single man, died June 8, 1740.

John James and Elizabeth James had the following children: Elizabeth, born April 28, 1705; John, born February 18, 1706; Samuel, born September 22, 1709; Sarah, born October 11, 1712; Samuel, born February 25, 1714; Martha, born March 5, 1716; Mary, born August 25, 1719; Enos, born July 23, 1721; Nathaniel, born January 5, 1723; and Abner, born October 7, 1726.

John James, Junior, died May 12, 1736; Elizabeth James, wife of John James, died August 10, 1739; John, son of John James, died August 26, 1740 and Enos James, a single man, died March 23, 1743.

William and Anne James had one son, William, who was born October 15, 1736. Presumably Anne died and William James married Martha, as their children's births are recorded as follows: Cary James, son of William and Martha, born February 18, 1739/40, and William, born October 20, 1741.

Immanuel James and Sarah, his wife, had two sons: John James, born in August, 1740, and presumably soon died because the second son, born in September, 1741, was also named John James.

Samuel James and Ruth, his wife, had four children: Elizabeth, born October 23, 1732, died November 30, 1732; Mary, born May 15, 1734; John, born December 15, 1738, died September 16, 1739; and Elizabeth, born July 30, 1740. The two deaths are recorded as "daughter of Samuel," and "son of Samuel."

Thomas James and Mary, his wife, had seven children: Elizabeth, born May 2, 1742; Anne, born in 1743; William Marlow, born March 13, 1747; George, born November 25, 1750; Ufan, born March 26, 1752; Robert, born November 14, 1755 and Mary, born June 10, 1759.

The following deaths were listed: Mary James, buried January 10, 1687; Mary James, a single woman, died June 3, 1691; Nathaniel James died November 19, 1696; Temperance James died January 8, 1701; Emanuel James, son of John, died December 4, 1711; Mary James died April 12, 1718; and William James of England died March 25, 1736.

On November 7, 1687, Phillip Deadman and Nathaniel James, both of York County, received a certificate for taking up Anthony Wilkins, runaway servant of Charles Rone of Gloucester.⁽¹⁾

A number of soldiers of the Revolutionary War or their relatives are listed in some of the Orders Books of York County, for example, Mary James, aged mother of Elisha and Peter James, soldiers, 1777.⁽²⁾

The settlement of the estate of Elisha James is given in York County records.⁽³⁾

Among claims for losses of York County citizens in the Revolution is that of Mary James for damages by the British troops, August 3, 1781. "Taken by Phil Dedman. 96 Pounds; 15 s. 0."⁽⁴⁾

The marriage of William James and Frances Cletherlow, May 15, 1815, Parish of York-Hampton, County of York, Robert Gibbons, security is likewise recorded.⁽⁵⁾

At a Court of Quarterly, held for York County at the courthouse in the town of York, November 19, 1821, the last will and testament of Eleanor James was proved by the oath of Thomas Hansford, witness, and ordered to be recorded.⁽⁶⁾

James City - New Kent - York

In addition to the records of York County, just cited, early records pertaining to some inter-related James City County, New Kent County and York County items reveal that families surnamed James were living in these counties during the colonial period.

Edward James was listed in New Kent County in the census in 1782 with two in his family, and again in 1785 with four in his family.⁽⁷⁾

William James was witness to the will of Rebecca Camp of James City County, Virginia. Her will was probated June 13, 1797 in the Williamsburg Chancery Court.⁽⁸⁾

John James, also of James City County, made his will February 3, 1818, in which he named his sons, Thruston, John and George W. James, and his daughters, Elizabeth and Susan. Executors were Archibald Hawkins and Thruston James. Witnesses were Edw. Richardson, Allen Richardson and William R. Richardson. The will was probated in the Williamsburg Chancery Court, March 9, 1818.⁽⁹⁾

Thruston James is mentioned as one of three to lay off and assign dower for Elizabeth Winston, 1778-9, in York County.⁽¹⁰⁾

In Two Families of Virginia mention is made of Thruston James and John James of James City County. It seems a Mr. Shermer who owned land in James City had an overseer, John James, who lived with him and worked as his overseer for fifteen years. Shermer was a relative of the Booths and owned land in several sections. The case of Shermer-Booth in Chancery Court in Williamsburg lists 121 people indebted to the estate of John Shermer, these two Jameses being among them.⁽¹¹⁾

The name of Thruston James appears again in York County records when he acted as executor of John James and petitioned against William P. Harris and John E. Allen, defendants:

This day came the Plaintiff by his atty. and the defendants being again solemnly called, came not. Therefore it is considered by the court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendant and John Craddock their security for appearance the sum of Eighty Dollars, the debt in the declaration mentioned with interest thereon to be computed upon the sale, of six per centum per annum from the nineteenth day of December, 1818.⁽¹²⁾

Richmond County

The court records of Richmond County show that there were James families in this area in the 1700's. The following transactions are recorded:

James Ingo, John Kelly and Thomas James gave bond January 3, 1710 for James Ingo who was assigned as tutor of William Crask, orphan of John Crask.⁽¹³⁾

A deed was recorded on December 6, 1718, between Joshua Lawson of North Farnham Parish, Richmond County, and William James of Essex County, Saint Ann Parish, for 6,000 pounds of tobacco, transferring 100 acres of land where "sd William lately dwelled, now in the occupation of sd Joshua Lawson in the Parish of Farnham, County of Richmond, part of 300 acres purchased by said Joshua Lawson, December 6, 1710."⁽¹⁴⁾

There is a record of an agreement between Daniel Prosser of Richmond County and Francis James of Washington Parish, Richmond County, involving fifty acres of land, "being $\frac{1}{4}$ of 222 acres formerly belonging to Phillip Sherwood, and part of Coleman's patent, which said Phillip Sherwood, dying and making no division, descended to said Phillip Sherwood's four daughters, and Sarah, one of the daughters dying and disposing of said 50 acres, being the easternmost part, descended to said David as heir-at-law to said Sarah, his own mother, April 6, 1715."⁽¹⁵⁾

The will of John Willis, dated June 7, 1715, mentions his son-in-law Thomas James and Mary his wife. He specified that should they die before a settlement of his estate the land should descend to David James, son of Thomas and Mary James.⁽¹⁶⁾

William James and Elizabeth his wife, of Richmond County, on July 27, 1719, gave John R. Garland power of attorney to dispose of the estate, real and personal, of William Garland, late of Richmond County, "devised to said Elizabeth who was formerly Elizabeth Garland, daughter of Valentine Garland."⁽¹⁷⁾

In October 1719, a deed was recorded between John James of Essex County and Nicholas Hawkins in the matter of "100 acres formerly granted to John Weire by patent October 8, 1670 and said Weire sold to James Trent and David Houseman which said 100 acres, part of said patent by said Trent, deceased, given to his daughter Amoro, wife of said John James, being in the County of Richmond."⁽¹⁸⁾ This was signed by John James and was recorded November 4, 1719. Later, John James gave power of attorney to Chris. Bell to sell this land, Ann, his wife, relinquishing her dower.

The will of Thomas James of North Farnham Parish, Richmond County, contains among others the following items: "To my son Thomas James, all my land on the north side of a small run known by the name of Miner Mill Run. To my daughter Janie James remainder of my land. All my estate to be divided equally between my wife and three children, Thomas, Janie and Honour James. Wife, Grace James."⁽¹⁹⁾ This will was signed on April 27, 1727 and probated July 5, 1727.

October 2, 1752, between Thomas James of Lunenburg Parish, Richmond County, and William Black, Cople Parish in Westmoreland County, for 105 pounds, a deed was given for "150 acres, part of 300 acres left to said Thomas James by his father formerly of said Richmond County, by will; said land joins William Hartridge on one side and Rappahannock River where said Thomas James now lives."⁽²⁰⁾ Sarah, wife of Thomas James, relinquished her dower.

Another deed was recorded on November 4, 1754, between Thomas James of Richmond County, Lunenburg Parish, and William Black of Westmoreland County "for 71 pounds, 98 acres formerly belonging to said Thomas James and left him by his father Thomas James, formerly of Richmond County".⁽²¹⁾

Essex County

An Essex County item of 1719 involved James residents as follows: "John Gray, being sick at the house of Francis James, of which sickness he died, about a week before that, said before these witnesses, that if he had a minister then he would marry Elizabeth Gibson on purpose that she might enjoy his land during her lifetime, and he was then in perfect senses. Signed: Mary X James,* James Dunbar."⁽²²⁾

On February 21, 1721, Richard Long of Essex County deeded to Ann James "now wife of Sherwood James of same county, for love and affection which I bear to my daughter Ann, wife of Sherwood James, 50 acres of land, part of a patent granted Richard Long in County of Essex, 21 February, 1720."⁽²³⁾

Northumberland County

The following items of Northumberland County records are set forth here for a two-fold purpose: first, for general information and secondly, to help clarify by the process of elimination the records of several Thomas Jameses of this county, one of whom might appear to have been an ancestor of the subject of this manuscript, Thomas James, Clerk of Kingston Parish, Mathews County, Virginia.

There were at least six James men in Northumberland County in the late 1600's and early 1700's, namely, William James, John James, Meredith James, Daniel James, James James and Thomas James. The following items give some information concerning them:

William James was adjudged to be fifteen years old on December 20, 1669; he was therefore born in 1654.⁽²⁴⁾ William James was left a cow, "when he is free," January 20, 1676.⁽²⁵⁾ The births of three daughters of William James are recorded: Mary James, born November 5, 1681, Rebecca James, born August 20, 1685, and Margaret James, born August 31, 1691.

John James, born in 1655, was the father of two sons, John James, born September 12, 1685, and David James, born December

* The "X" so frequently found in early Virginia wills, deeds and other legal papers was a survival of the Roman, Saxon or Old English practice of adding to a signature a sign, mark or seal of assent or approbation. It was the signum, a species of proof of evidence, often found in the signature of persons known to be well educated.

26, 1688. John James, Jr. married Jane _____, and they had two children, William James, born April 20, 1735 and Cloe James, born January 9, 1754.⁽²⁶⁾

Meredith James had a deed from John Crawford, July 15, 1706.⁽²⁷⁾ He was also recorded as "Meredy" James, having formerly bought land adjoining that of William Davis from John Crawford, December 20, 1706.⁽²⁸⁾

Meredith James married Anne _____, and on April 18, 1716, she re-recorded the deed of July 15, 1706, Crawford to James.⁽²⁹⁾ Meredith James and Anne had two children, Anne James, born August 4, 1706, and John, born March 23, 1711.⁽³⁰⁾

There is a record that Daniel James of Northumberland County served a period of time as servant, probably under indenture, to Captain John Graham prior to December 17, 1712.⁽³¹⁾ Daniel James' children were John James, born April 5, 1717, Thomas James, born August 30, 1720, and Grace James, born August 30, 1724.⁽³²⁾

Thomas James, the son of Daniel James, married Sarah _____, and they had four children: Daniel James, born March 31, 1747; John James, born September 17, 1749; Thomas James, born May 9, 1752, and Nancy James, born July 31, 1754.⁽³²⁾

A record states that 1500 acres were certified to Thomas Hobson for transporting 30 persons to Virginia.⁽³³⁾ They are listed by name and among them are James James and Thomas James. This record was entered at a court held June 18, 1702. Nothing further is traced of this James James.

Thomas James was aged fifty years or thereabouts when he deposed that in 1703 he appraised the estate of William Fletcher, late of Northumberland County, July 11, 1711.⁽³⁴⁾ The birth date of this Thomas James thus would be 1661. He married Margaret Downing, as shown by his will. He owned land adjoining that sold by Josias White to Richard Smith, December 17, 1718.⁽³⁵⁾ His will was recorded May 16, 1716. He named his wife Margaret as executrix. In his will and his wife Margaret's will their children are named as Joshua, Thomas T., William, Margaret, Moses, Charles and George James.⁽³⁶⁾

Margaret James and her son William James were named executors of Thomas Downing's will, as is shown by a bond of February 1, 1721/22: "Margaret James, William James, Thomas Berry and Thomas James of Northumberland Co., do owe - - - 300 pounds sterling - - - Margaret and William James, Executors— of the last will and testament of Tho. Downing, deceased— do make a true and perfect inventory, etc."⁽³⁷⁾

Thomas Berry, Thomas T. James.

Margaret and William James of Northumberland County sold one acre of land to Charles Ingram of the same county for twenty pounds sterling, October 5, 1722.⁽³⁸⁾ Her will follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I, Margaret James, being sick and weak but of perfect sense and memory calling to mind the shortness of this life, doth make this my last will and testament. First, I bequeathe my body to the earth from which it was taken, to be buried in decent Christian order, and my soul to God that gave it, in a sure and certain hope of the resurrection at the last day and all my worldly goods as follows:

Item — I give unto my daughter Margaret James my riding horse called by the name of Squirrel and side saddle and after all my lawful debts are paid, then the remainder of my estate I give and bequeathe unto my four youngest children, Margaret James, Moses James, Charles James and George James, and my desire is that my daughter Margaret shall keep my two sons, Charles and George, under her care until they come to the age of eighteen years and also I do ordain and appoint my loving son Thomas James my lawful Executor of this my last will and testament, as witness my hand and seal this fourth day of January 1723/24.

1. Joshua James², son of Thomas James¹ and Margaret Downing James, married Margaret _____, and their children were Joshua James³, Ann James³ and Charles James.³ Charles married Susannah _____, proof of which is that they sold land:

This indenture made 8th day of October, 1763 between Charles James and Susannah, his wife, of the County of Northumberland and Parish of Wiccocomoco, and Joseph Nutt of the aforesaid County and Parish - - 70 pounds current money in Virginia paid by the said Joseph Nutt; 72 acres of land.

Signed Charles James; Susannah James.⁽⁴¹⁾

This indenture made 8th day of October, 1764 between Charles James of the County of Northumberland and Parish of Great Wico., and Nehemiah George of the same County and Parish, 100 pounds current money in Virginia, all the plantation, tract and parcel of land whereon the sd Charles James now lives: 65 acres.

(signed) Charles James and Sus'a James.⁽⁴²⁾

The will of Joshua James of Northumberland devises in part: "To son Joshua the plantation. To youngest son Charles James, land I bought of John Davis and William Gibson; son of Joshua to pay to his brother Charles and sister Anne 10 pounds. To my brother Moses James 500 pounds of Tobacco."⁽⁴³⁾ Recorded October 9, 1745.

The estate of Joshua James was appraised December 9, 1745, Margaret James and Moses James being executors. The appraisal was returned by Robert Boyd, John Taylor, and Charles Pritchard on January 13, 1745/6.⁽⁴⁴⁾

2. Thomas T. James², son of Thomas James¹, and Margaret Downing James, his wife, and brother of Joshua James, made his will February, 1752. It was probated February 12, 1753. He left to his wife Rebecca James "the use of all my possessions. To my son Thomas James all my land. Personal estate to be divided among all my children after the death of my wife. Wife and son Thomas, Executors. Witnesses, Eduring Fielding, Winifred Fielding."⁽⁴⁵⁾ land County to William Davenport and moved to the province of Maryland:

This indenture made first day of January, 1762 between Thomas James of the province of Maryland, Gent. of the one part, and William Davenport of the County of Northumberland of the other part—183 pounds current money of Virginia to him and his heirs paid by the said Davenport for 183 acres of land lying and being in Wiccommoco Parish in Northumberland County.

(signed) Thomas James ⁽⁴⁶⁾

The change of residence of this Thomas James from Northumberland County to Maryland is further evidenced by an item in the genealogy of the Cloyd, Basye and Tapp families which states that Thomas James “whose father was Thomas James who went from Northumberland County, Virginia, to the Province of Maryland” was born near the Maryland-Virginia line on July 17, 1770. He was the father of William James who married Martha Cloyd in Nashville, Tennessee, August 19, 1816, according to David Cloyd James of Madison, Kentucky, son of William James.⁽⁴⁷⁾

3. William James², son of Thomas James¹ and his wife, Margaret Downing James and brother of Joshua James² and Thomas T. James², made his will October 19, 1758. It was proved November 13, 1758. He bequeathed “To son Thomas James, plantation where I now live. To son Ezekiel; daughter Chloe Hayes; daughters Winifred P _____, Elizabeth Palmer, Judith Haynie, and Mary James”.⁽⁴⁸⁾

Thomas James³ (William², Thomas¹ and Margaret) is in a list of 253 voters recorded in Northumberland County in an election of Captain Spencer M. Ball on September 14, 1769, signed by George Payne. The only other James in this list is William James.⁽⁴⁹⁾

John Swanson was ordered to pay Thomas James fifty pounds of tobacco for two days attendance at this court as witness for him against William Pittman, August 14, 1770.⁽⁵⁰⁾

In 1778 Thomas James was guardian for the orphans of John Gaskins as shown by the following transactions:⁽⁵¹⁾

We have met and have possessed the same Thomas James and Charles Marsh 70£, 18s. and a half-penny, being the full sum of their father's estate, and we do make our report to the Court. Witness our hand. (signed) Thos. Hudnall and John Rodgers.

At a Court held for Northumberland County, the 12th day of October, 1778, this report of possessing Thomas James and Charles Marsh with the estates of John and Isaac Gaskins, orphans of John Gaskins, dec'd, was this day returned and ordered to be recorded. (signed) Catesby Jones Cl. Cur.⁽⁵²⁾

Pursuant to an order of Northumberland County Court, dated the 11th day of March, 1776, appointing us the subscribers to divide the estate of John Gaskins, dec'd, we accordingly met and possessed Thomas James with the whole estate of John Gaskins, orphan, Isaac Gaskins, orphan, being dec'd, amounting to 86£, 14s., 3 pence, current money, as witness our hands this June 1st, 1779. John Rodgers; Thomas Hudnall.⁽⁵³⁾

The Northumberland County tax list for 1782 showed Thomas James with one tithable, four horses and twenty cattle.

Thomas James and Isaac James were listed in 1783. Both were listed in 1784, 1785, 1786. The record for 1787 listed both men, and Thomas had two slaves, two horses, seventeen cattle, one tithable, and "one over 16 and under 21 years of age". Isaac James removed to Hampshire County (now in West Virginia) in 1788; his taxes were due!

In 1789 Thomas was again listed, and he had "two over 16" but in 1790 Martha was listed instead of Thomas. Presumably Thomas had died. The next year, 1791, Martha and William James were listed together as a joint report. In 1792 only William James was listed. The land tax report of this general period agrees with the above tithable report.

In 1782 Thomas James paid on fifty acres, and William James, listed as an orphan, paid on sixty-five acres. From 1783 through 1790 Thomas James paid on fifty acres; from 1791-1793 Martha James paid on fifty acres. The First Census of the United States, in State Enumerations, 1782-1785, lists Thomas James of Northumberland County as head of a family of ten.

4. Margaret James², daughter of Thomas James¹ and his wife, Margaret Downing James, and sister of Joshua James², Thomas T. James², and William James², was born April 14, 1706.⁽⁵⁴⁾ Her line has not been traced.

5. Moses James², son of Thomas James¹ and his wife, Margaret Downing James, and brother of Joshua², Thomas T.², William², and Margaret², died in 1772. Appraisal of his estate was listed at 114£, 6 shillings, and the account of sales was recorded January 11, 1773.⁽⁵⁵⁾

6. and 7. Charles James² and George James², sons of Thomas James¹ and his wife, Margaret Downing James, and brothers to Joshua², Thomas T.², William², and Margaret², above, have not been traced.

Of these six James men in Northumberland County between 1654 and the early 1700's, the first one having a descendant by the name of Thomas was Daniel James. He had a son Thomas who was born August 30, 1720. He was married to Sarah _____, and was not the husband of Elizabeth Basye. (Elizabeth Basye's father, John Basye, in his will named a Thomas James as his son-in-law in 1768).^(55a) This Thomas James had a son named Thomas James, born, according to the record, May 9, 1752. It is concluded, therefore, that he would have been too young in 1768 to be the husband of Elizabeth Basye. The identification of her husband, Thomas James, named in her father's will, as the father of Thomas James⁶, the Kingston Parish official, is the point here.

A sixth immigrant was a Thomas¹James. According to his deposition he was born in 1661. This was a hundred years before the Elizabeth Basye - Thomas James marriage (1768). He had a son named Thomas² who married Rebecca _____, and died in 1753. His will was proved February 12, 1753. This eliminates him.

Thomas and Rebecca had a son named Thomas to whom the father willed all his land. This Thomas James sold his land in Northumberland in 1762 and moved to Maryland, supra. He is thus eliminated. His descendants are mentioned in the note in the Cloyd book.

There was one Thomas³ James remaining in Northumberland County at this time. He was the oldest son of William², Thomas¹. His father's will, in 1758, left "to son Thomas plantation where I now live", indicating that he was the heir-at-law. It seems he was not the husband of Elizabeth Basye. Proof of this is in the list of tithables and the land tax list which recorded Thomas James from 1782 to 1790; then Martha James was listed instead of Thomas, indicating that he had died.

Thomas James paid the land tax on fifty acres from 1782 through 1790. Martha paid on fifty acres from 1790 through 1793. They were husband and wife. He was not, therefore, the husband of Elizabeth Basye. In the first census he is listed in 1782 as head of a family of ten. These records seem clearly to eliminate this Thomas James of Northumberland County as the son-in-law mentioned by John Basye in his will, and to return this study to Lancaster County.

The preceding data regarding Northumberland County James families are tabulated below:

1. WILLIAM JAMES — born 1654, having been adjudged to be fifteen years of age on December 20, 1669; (Northumberland Record Book 3, p. 42); wife's name unknown; children: Mary, born November 5, 1681; Rebecca, born August 20, 1685; Margaret, born August 31, 1691.
2. JOHN JAMES — born ca. 1655; wife's name unknown; children: John James, born September 12, 1685; David James, born December 26, 1688. (Fleet, Northumberland County Births, 1661-1810, p. 117) and other birth records.
3. JOHN JAMES, JR. — married Jane _____; children: William James, born April 20, 1735; Chloe James, born January 9, 1754.
4. MEREDITH JAMES — married Anne Crawford, who recorded his deed; children: Anne James, born August 4, 1706; John James, born March 23, 1711.
5. DANIEL JAMES — servant to Captain John Graham prior to December 17, 1712; children: John James, born April 5, 1717; Thomas James, born August 30, 1720; Grace James, born August 30, 1724.
6. THOMAS JAMES — son of Daniel James, married Sarah _____, to whom he was wedded until 1754; children: Daniel James, born March 31, 1747; John James, born September 17, 1749; Thomas James, born May 9, 1752; Nancy James, born July 31, 1754. (Neither Thomas James, son of Daniel James nor Thomas James, his son, could have been the husband of Elizabeth Basye, the former because of his marriage to Sarah and their children; the latter because of his youth and Elizabeth Basye's age.)

7. JAMES JAMES — immigrant in 1702. (Northumberland Court Orders, June 18, 1702.)
8. THOMAS JAMES — born 1661, having deposed on December 18, 1711 to be fifty years of age; immigrant in 1702 with James James; married Margaret Downing; children: Joshua James, Thomas T. James, William James, Margaret James, Moses James, Charles James, George James.
9. JOSHUA JAMES — son of Thomas James, the 1702 immigrant, married Margaret ———; children: Joshua, Anne, Charles, "youngest son", named Moses James as brother in will of 1745. (Northumberland Records 1749-1751, p. 115.) Charles James, son of Joshua, married Susanna ——— and they sold land to McNutt and to George.
10. THOMAS T. JAMES — son of Thomas James, 1702 immigrant; married Rebecca ———; son: Thomas James.
11. THOMAS JAMES — son of Thomas T. James, sold land to Davenport on January 5, 1762 and moved to Maryland, thus being eliminated as Elizabeth Basye's husband. His son, Thomas James, was born "on the Virginia-Maryland line" on July 17, 1770, and his son, William James, married Martha Cloyd in Nashville, Tenn. on August 19, 1816.
12. WILLIAM JAMES — son of Thomas James, the 1702 immigrant, and brother of Thomas T. James, wife's name unknown, was the father of seven children: Ezekiel, Mary, Judith, Chloe, Winifred, Thomas and Elizabeth. William James' will was proved November 13, 1758.
13. THOMAS JAMES — son of William James, married Martha ———, and was reported as head of a family of ten in 1782. As guardian of John Gaskins he furnished beef to the army in 1776-1778. Reported as family of ten, two over sixteen, in 1789. This Thomas James was obviously not the husband of Elizabeth Basye.

On “18th day 7ber, 1665”, William Berkeley signed a grant of 400 acres of land to William Wroughton, with boundaries described, and, in the next item of the record, William Wroughton conveys this tract of land to James James, under date of “11 day April, 1666.”⁽⁶⁰⁾

The Parish Register of Christ Church, Middlesex County, reveals the following data:

Edward James, ye sone of Robert and Dorothy James, baptized 16 August, 1685.⁽⁶¹⁾

Elizabeth James, daughter of Robert and Dorothy James, christened 1688.⁽⁶²⁾

Jane James, daughter of Robert and Dorothy James, baptized 22 April, 1694.⁽⁶⁴⁾

John James, son of Robert and Priscilla James, born May 18, 1726.⁽⁶⁵⁾

Also, in the Vestry Book of Christ Church, in Middlesex County, between November 2, 1708 and October 10, 1716, the name of Robert James occurs nine times in connection with vestry meetings, submitting accounts of items to be paid him. The amounts ranged from 1000 pounds to 400 pounds of tobacco.

The will of Elizabeth James of Lancaster County reflects something of the status of the early James families in the historic "Northern Neck" of Virginia.

In ye name of God, Amen, ye 8th day of June, 1697, I, Elizabeth James of ye County of Lancaster being sick and weak of body but of sound and perfect memory, praise be given to God for ye same and knowing ye uncertainty of this life on Earth, and being desirous to settell things in order, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, yt is to say first and principally, I commend my soul to Almighty God my Creator assuredly believing yt I shall receive full pardon and free remission of all my sins and be saved by ye precious death and merrits of my blessed saviour and redeemer Jesus Christ, and my body I committ to ye earth from whence it was taken, to be buried in such decent manner as to my Extrs. hereinafter named shall deem mete and convenient and as touching such worldly estate as ye Lord in mercy hath loaned mee, my will and meaning is, the same shall be imployed and bestowed as hereafter by this my will is expressed. And first I do revoake, renounce, frusstrate and make voide all wills by me formerly made and declare and apoint this my last will and Testament.

These early James in Lancaster and Middlesex may or may not

The records of Lancaster County reveal numerous marriages of members of James families. Although none has been identified with the genealogy of the Thomas James family of this study, all were contemporaries—some closely related—and the data should be of interest to James families seeking such information.

There is a record of a Rhoda James of Lancaster County. On September 18, 1783, she took action against George Bean to satisfy a judgment which she had been awarded on a petition in the sum of "£1 - 17s - 4, specie, with interest thereon from the 10th day of November, 1782 until payment together with her costs, fees, etc. 20 March, 1783."⁽⁶⁹⁾ ⁽⁷⁰⁾

Two records pertaining to Michael James of Lancaster are very interesting but contradictory. There are two court orders, the first stating that Michael James left no children; the second naming his five children, as follows:

It is proven to the satisfaction of the Court that Michael James who was an officer in the Revolutionary War died intestate about the year _____ leaving no children, but a brother John James, who died intestate, left sons and daughters, to wit: Thomas, Margaret, Mary K., Eliza and William M. James.⁽⁷¹⁾

⁽⁷¹⁾ Lancaster County Orders Book, 1841-1848, p. 321.

It is ordered to be certified that it has been proven to the satisfaction of the court that Michael James, who is reported to have been a Lieutenant in the Navy during the war of the Revolution has died, leaving the following children:

Polly, John, Margaret, Thomas and William M. James. Polly married Zamoth George and died leaving John, William P., Zamoth Jr., and Felicia who married Joseph Barnett.

John married and left one child, John. Margaret married Thomas Mason and left Thomas and Nancy. Nancy married Curtis Wessels.

Thomas is dead leaving Hiram P., and _____. William M. is also dead, leaving two children, William M. Jr., and Mary. Mary has married _____ Longworth and yet survives her husband. 17 June, 1850.⁽⁷²⁾

1219473

From the two foregoing items, at first it appears that Michael James and John James were brothers, and there seemed some confusion as to which left descendants. However, the data suggest that the first item was incorrect and was set aside by the later case, and that John was Michael's oldest son instead of a brother. It is possible that at Michael's death John, the eldest son, assumed guardianship of the other children of Michael. Probably the first case aimed to prove these children the heirs of John. Since the first case was in 1846 and the second in 1850, the conclusion is that the first case was incorrect, causing a re-opening of the matter, at which time the true facts came to light. Thus, it was established that Michael James left as his heirs his sons, John James, Thomas James, William M. James; his daughters, Polly James (whose real name was Mary K. James), Margaret James and Elizabeth James.

The marriages of several of the persons named in the Michael James court order have been found among Lancaster County marriage records, namely:

October 1, 1790, Thomas Mason married Margaret James, Thomas James, security .

September 7, 1795, Thomas James married Elizabeth Brent, widow. (According to the above court order they were the parents of Hiram P. James, who married _____ Dinns, daughter of Ruth Dinns, August 5, 1824; John Hunt, security. Dates agree here to establish this Thomas James as the son of Michael James.)

That the law had its delays in Virginia a century and a half after Shakespeare coined the phrase is evidenced in the affair of Jeduthan James and James Ewell of Lancaster County:

Jeduthan James was plaintiff against James Ewell on August 17, 1780. Case was postponed. On August 16, 1782, the plaintiff asked for a jury trial. On September 20, 1782, the case was continued.⁽⁷³⁾

"Jeduthan James, Pltf. versus James Ewell, Deft., May 15, 1783," asked damages against defendant amounting to 4 pounds, and his attorney moved for a new trial. On June 20, 1783, the case went against the said defendant. He was adjudged guilty and was ordered to pay 432 pounds of tobacco and costs. On June 19, 1783, Jeduthan was in court as a witness for James Hill.⁽⁷⁴⁾

The First Census of the United States, 1790, under State Enumerations, for Lancaster County, Virginia, 1785, p. 91, lists Jeduthan James as head of the home of four white souls and one dwelling.

A deed from John Connelly and Mary his wife, of the County of Richmond, to Jeduthan James of the County of Lancaster, for twenty-five acres in Lancaster County for £22 was recorded September 17, 1787.⁽⁷⁵⁾ Jeduthan James was appointed with two others to appraise an estate, April 22, 1788.⁽⁷⁶⁾ A Negro belonging to him was exempted from taxes at the same court. Jeduthan was again a court witness on August 20, 1788, and he and one Pollard were in attendance the following day. A Northumberland County marriage bond is evidence that Jeduthan James, widower, married Frances Jefferies (sic), widow, March 7, 1816, with Daniel Pitman as security.⁽⁷⁷⁾

Captain Richard James married Susan Williams, believed to be a descendant of William Williams, the Connecticut signer of the Declaration of Independence. They had four children who left descendants: Richard James, Jr., William James, born March 18, 1818, Susan James and Thomas James.⁽⁷⁸⁾

1. Richard James, Jr., son of Richard James and Susan Williams James, married and had five children: Anna, Susan, Arthur, William and Catherine James.

2. William James, son of Richard James and Susan Williams James, married Ann Eliza Smith, April 4, 1841. She was born September 29, 1824. They had fourteen children: Mary Catherine who married _____ Fitchett, Elizabeth, Thomas, William, Jr., Walter, Richard, Susan Virginia, Sarah Louise, and five whose names are not at present available. William James, father of this large family, died January 4, 1893, and Ann Eliza Smith James, their mother, died in February, 1866.⁽⁷⁹⁾ Susan Virginia James, daughter of William and Ann Eliza Smith James, married Edward Muse Healy, December 25, 1887. He was born January 8, 1858, died October 29, 1903. They had a daughter, Alice Healy, born September 7, 1893; married Maurice Davis, June 15, 1922. (Susan Virginia James Healy is the only one of the fourteen children of her parents here traced.)

3. Susan James, daughter of Richard James and Susan Williams James, married John Richard Winder. They had eight children: Richard James Winder, Esther Lee Winder, Lata Winder, Josie Winder, Catherine Winder, Lessie Winder, Arthur Winder, and Mary Elizabeth Winder.

4. Thomas James, son of Richard James and Susan Williams James, married Frances Lewis. They had seven children: Rebecca, Emory, Lemuel, Alexander, Frances, Leonidas, and Elizabeth. Rebecca James married Baldwin Foster and had a son, Edgar Foster. Emory James married Shepherd Miller and they had a daughter, Bessie Miller, who married first Dr. R. R. Hoskins and, secondly, William B. Smith of Mathews. Frances James married Robert Sibley. Elizabeth James married _____ Minter. Information

Alexander James, son of Thomas and Frances Lewis James, born November 8, 1817, married Harriett Miller, daughter of Gabriel and Elizabeth Miller, who was born July 30, 1822. They were married November 18, 1841 and had nine children: Thomas Benton James, born December 29, 1842; Alexander James, Jr., born February 26, 1845; Dallas James, born May 22, 1847; Laura Eugenia James, born February 18, 1849; Franklin James, born May 12, 1852; Harriett Miller James, born November 30, 1855; Andrew James, born November 15, 1858; Jefferson James, born March 24, 1861; and Walter Lee James, born June 13, 1863.⁽⁸¹⁾ Alexander James, father of these children, (Captain of General Muster, CSA, sailor and boat builder), was drowned with his oldest son, Thomas Benton James, in the Chesapeake Bay on December 7, 1867. Thomas Benton James served in the Confederate States Army, was a prisoner at Point Lookout, Maryland, and Elmira, New York. He and his father are buried in the Miller family cemetery in Mathews County.

Alexander James, Jr., a Confederate cavalryman, married Georgia Armistead, December 8, 1875. She was the daughter of Francis and Sarah Armistead. They had nine children: Kate Armistead, born March 18, 1877; Etta Page, born September 15, 1878; Estelle Herbert, died January 25, 1946; "Mitten"; Henry; Grace; Alexander James, III; Maxwell; and Georgia. Alexander James, Jr., died June 21, 1917. Georgia Armistead James, died May 21, 1909. Maxwell James married a Miss Thacker. Georgia James married Reverend George C. Shaw, rector of Kingston Parish Church in Mathews County.⁽⁸²⁾

Dallas James, son of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born May 22, 1845, married Esther Lee Winder, May 31, 1877. They had three children: Richard Lee James; Grace James, married _____ Rowland; Susan (Susie) James, married _____ Kelley. Richard Lee James married Annie Tennis and they had two children: Richard Lee James, Jr., a Baptist minister of Jacksonville, Florida, and Esther Louise James. Dallas James married, secondly, Mrs. Betty Clements. He was a Baptist minister.

Laura Eugenia James, daughter of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born February 18, 1849, died September 29, 1931, was unmarried.

Franklin James, son of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born May 12, 1852, married Belle Brownley, January 15, 1890. They had a daughter, Florence Brownley James. He died in 1941, his wife in 1944 and their daughter in 1949. They are buried in the Kingston Parish Cemetery.

Harriett Miller James, daughter of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born November 30, 1855, died June 26, 1899; buried in the Kingston Parish Cemetery.

Andrew James, son of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born November 15, 1858, married Lucy E. Hudgins, daughter of Robert E. and Mattie L. Hudgins, July 25, 1893. They had a daughter, Eleanor James who resides in Hampton, Virginia; unmarried.

Jefferson James, son of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born March 24, 1861, married Margaret Susan Culpepper, daughter of William A. and Susan Culpepper, August 15, 1895. They had eleven children: Jefferson James, Jr., William A. James, Robert L. James, Woodrow W. James, Andrew James, Franklin James, Laura James, Ruth James, Mary James, Margaret James, and Naomi James who died in infancy. These daughters are now Mrs. Bishop Corkran, Mrs. W. Garrie Moore, Mrs. J. Albert Clements and Mrs. Louis A. Clements. Jefferson James, the father of these eleven children, died August 20, 1958, in his ninety-seventh year, at his home in Mobjack, Virginia, survived by ten children, twenty grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Walter Lee James, son and youngest child of Alexander James and Harriett Miller James, born June 13, 1863, married Mary P. Guion, daughter of Abraham G. and Sarah Guion, May 6, 1890. They had three children: Rodney, Agnes and Harriett. Rodney James married Betty Woodward; they had a daughter, Betsy James. Agnes James married William Elwang; they had two children, Mary Elwang and Braxton Elwang. Harriett James, of Richmond, Virginia, is unmarried.

In the data on this family there are notes on Maggie Lee James, Eunice James, Edward James, Charles James, Cora James, John James, and Ella James but they are insufficient to place them in line of descent.

PART II

Preface

THOMAS JAMES—KINGSTON PARISH CLERK

His Ancestry

PREFACE

The primary purpose of this study has been to trace the family of Thomas James, the Kingston Parish Clerk — his ancestry and his descendants.

In Part I my effort has been to establish something of the background of the James family, in general, in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

As previously stated, I have long been interested in the conversion of Thomas James' children from the Episcopal Church, in which he was a parish clerk and lay reader, to militant Methodism in which they became founders and leaders. Thomas James is primarily significant in the study as the bridge, first, between the seventeenth century ancestors and later descendants, and, second, between two church eras of the family. The many seemingly unrelated items of James families in Tidewater Virginia are, nevertheless, important as history and sociology in developing the background of the family and the communities in which it lived.

In the Introduction the main geographical features of the tidewater region were described, but at this point it seems essential to explain a bit of the history of the counties involved in this study. In 1634 the Colony of Virginia was divided into eight original shires, or counties. These were exclusive of Northumberland, the "original county," formerly the Indian district of Chickacoan extending from the Chesapeake Bay westward across Virginia.

Charles River Shire became York County in 1642/3. Gloucester County was formed out of York in 1651, and Mathews out of Gloucester in 1790. Out of Northumberland came Lancaster in 1651, and out of Lancaster came Middlesex in 1669. Court records of these inter-related counties often overlap in their formative years, with the result that the legal records of a single family are sometimes found in two or more counties. Grants of land originally made in one county may now lie far away in another. This is the reason, in part, that the Thomas James family is identified with several early counties.

WALTER JAMES¹

Cary ⁷ Miriam Marshal ⁷ Martha Washington ⁷ Hillegan Degge ⁷
Harriot Smith ⁷ William Leven ⁷

Each of these eleven children of Thomas and “Betsy” James, who was undoubtedly Betty Davis, daughter of Thomas and Hillegan Davis, the mother of one of whom, presumably hers, was a Degge, is the subject of a chapter in this genealogy numbered from one to eleven beginning with the oldest child, Frances. These chapters make PART III of the book.

PRE-REVOLUTIONARY GENERATIONS

Walter James¹ Walter James²

*Walter James*¹, headright for Oliver Green, received a land grant for 120 acres on the east side of Paropotank Creek, July 24, 1653.⁽¹⁾ This is in Gloucester County, Virginia, and it is believed that this Walter James is the immigrant ancestor of the branch of the James family that is the subject of this manuscript. The next item seems to refer to his son, who was about to move from Gloucester County to Lancaster County.

*Walter James*² of the Parish of Ware and County of Gloucester, carpenter, bought 150 acres in Christ Church Parish in Lancaster County, May 7, 1700, of Edward Gibson.⁽²⁾ He also bought from Leonard Knight a large parcel of land joining Edward Gibson, Abraham Crowell and others, March 7, 1706/7, for 2000 pounds of sweet scented tobacco. This was recorded 12th day of November, 1707. It is referred to in a later sale.⁽³⁾

*Walter James*² married Mary Angoll, a widow, date unknown, nor is her maiden name known. His will, in which he left the land he bought of Leonard Knight to his son *Thomas James*³, and other bequests and legal actions pertaining thereto, are as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, this _____ day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand, seven hundred and twenty-two (1722) I, Walter James at the County of Lancaster and Parish of Christ Church, being sick in body, but of good and perfect memory, thanks be to Almighty God, and calling to remembrance the uncertain state of this transitory life and that all flesh must yield unto death when it shall please God to call, do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, first being penitent and sorry for all my sins, most humbly desiring forgiveness for the same, I commend my soul unto Almighty God, my Saviour and Redeemer in whom and by whose merit I trust and believe assuredly to be saved and to have full remission and forgiveness of all my sins and to inherit the Kingdom of Heaven, and for settling my temporal estate and such goods, chattels and credits as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me, I do order, give and dispose of the same in manner and form following; that is to say^(a)

Item: I give and bequeathe unto my son Thomas James, to him and his heirs after my decease the piece of land which I bot (bought) of Leonard Knight called the folly.

Item: I bequeathe to Matthias James, my second son, to him and his heirs a piece of land on the Reedy branch, beginning at the old house cove and running to Colonel Carter's line and from thence to the Reedy branch.

Item: I give and bequeathe to my son Walter James, my third son, to him and his heirs, my home plantation and it is my desire that my wife, Mary James, if she has occasion during her widowhood make use of any part of the whole land that I'm now in possession with and for my three sons' lands, it is my desire that they neither sell it nor mortgage it, only from one brother to another.

Item: I give and bequeathe to my son Matthias James, to him and his heirs, a young horse.

Item: I give and bequeathe unto my son Walter James, to him and his heirs, a young mare.

Item: I give and bequeathe unto my daughter, Robona James, to her and her heirs, a young mare.

Item: It is my desire that the negro girle Sarah that I've given to my son John Angoll and Susanna, his wife, that what increase the sd Sarah shall have it is my desire that they shall equally be shared, beginning from the oldest to the youngest and that whenever it pleases God to take the sd John Angoll out of this world so long as the sd Susanna Angoll continue as a widow the sd girle Sarah shall be hers, but whenever she marries, she to fall to the sd Angoll's children and so likewise in case of the sd Susanna Angoll's death and the sd John Angoll should marry, that then the sd girl shall belong to the sd children.

Item: I give and bequeathe unto my daughter Robona James, to her and her heirs, a feather bed and all other necessarys as my daughter Mary had.

I give and bequeathe unto my daughter Ann James, to her and her heirs a feather bed and all other necessarys equivalent as the others had.

(a) This type of preamble was in common usage at the time.

Item: I give and bequeathe unto Eliza James, to her and her heirs, a feather bed and all other necessarys as the others are appointed to have.

Item: I give and bequeathe unto my son Thomas, to him and his heirs, a carbine and likewise to my son Matthias James to him and his heirs my pistole and holster and sword, and likewise to my son Walter James to him and his heirs, my long gun and likewise it is my desire that if any of my relations or my friends has any occasion to make use of my spoon-molds, that they are welcom but not to carry them off the plantation; and further it is my desire that my estate may not be brought to appraisement but that it shall be equally divided among my three sons and if any one of them has a mind to take their estate to themselves and their mother agrees so to do, it is my desire they may.

Hereby revoking, disannulling and making void all former wills and bequests by me made and declaring this to be my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

This is a true inventory of the dec'd Walter James' estate that has come to my hands.

June ye 8, 1723

Mary M. James

At a court held for Lancaster County on the 12 day June, 1723. This inventory was this day returned by Mary James, Admix. of the estate of Walter James dec'd, with the will annexed, who made oath thereto as before written and the same was by the court ordered to be recorded, and is recorded.

Test - T. Edwards - Clerk.”⁽⁵⁾

Walter James², in his will written January, 1722, and proved May 8, 1723 named his children: Thomas James³, eldest son, Matthias James³, second son, and Walter James³, third son, and daughters Mary³, Robona³, Ann³ and Eliza James³. From the reading of the will it is presumed that Mary³ had died before her father.

In the Register of Marriages of Lancaster County, 1715-1852, there is recorded the marriage of John Brown and Elizabeth James of Christ Church Parish, security, Thomas Purcell, Hugh Brent, James Carter, Richard Harrison, July 2, 1722. This Elizabeth James may have been the daughter of Walter James² and Mary, his wife.

Nothing further is known of Robona James³. The fourth daughter, Ann James³, died unmarried in 1748. The inventory of her estate follows:

An inventory of the Estate of Ann James, appraised by Ezekiel Gilbert and Nicholas Lawson, by order of Court, being first sworn according to law,

At a court held for Lancaster County ye 12th day of August, 1748. This appraisement of the estate of Ann James, dec'd was returned and, Joseph M. Adam, gent, Adm. thereof making oath as above written, ordered to be recorded, and is recorded. Teste Thos. Edwards Junr. Cle.⁽⁶⁾

No further tracings of descendants of these four daughters of Walter James² will be attempted.

Of the three sons, *Thomas James*³, the oldest son, and his descendants will be traced as completely as documentary evidence establishes. This is being put aside at the moment while one or two generations of descendants of the other two sons, Matthias James³ and Walter James³, are given with documentary proof of relationship. Then the manuscript will take up the Thomas James³ line and trace it to the present.

Matthias James³ (Walter², Walter¹)

This is a record of Matthias James³, second son of Walter James² and Mary, his wife.

His will and other legal records pertaining thereto are as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I, Matthias James of the Parish of Christ Church, in the County of Lancaster, being very sick and weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for it, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, vizt:

Item, I lend unto my dear and well beloved wife, Catherine James, all my estate both real and personal of what nature or kind soever, that is to say, my land, negroes, stock and all movable / excepting my several pistols and holsters and gun / unto my sd wife during her widowhood, and after her decease or marriage, it is my will and pleasure that my son William James have my land which I then give to my sd son William and his heirs and so to descend from heir to heir.

All the rest of my estate (Except before excepted) it is my desire may be equally divided between my five children, William, Walter, Matthias, Joanna and Ann.

Item, It is my will and pleasure that my estate be inventoried and appraised.

Item, I give and bequeathe unto my son Matthias my several pistols and holsters.

Item, I give and bequeathe unto my son Walter, my gun.

Item, I do nominate and appoint my brother, Walter James and my wife Catherine James, Extrs. of this, my last will and testament. For witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 6th day of Decem., 1739.

From the foregoing court records, William James⁴, oldest son of Matthias James³ and Catherine, his wife, died in 1767, leaving six children: Isaac James⁵ who was of age, and five children under age, Letty James⁵, Elizabeth James⁵, William James⁵, Matthias James⁵ and Sarah James⁵. John Campbell was their guardian.

Isaac James⁵ married Judith _____. He died in 1784 leaving one son, Robert James⁶.

Certificate was granted to Lawson Hathaway as administrator of the estate of Isaac James March 19, 1784.⁽¹⁴⁾ He was also on the same day appointed guardian of Robert James, orphaned son of Isaac James, and qualified.⁽¹⁵⁾

The estate of Isaac James, pursuant to a court order of March, 1784, was appraised by Thomas Hunton, Thomas Carter, and William Martin, whose report was recorded on April 15, 1784. The estate consisted of "one negro woman, Jane, 65 £; 1 negro child, John, 12 £ = 77 £, and household items valued at 29 - 16 - 4 - Total value 108 - 16 - 4." The inventory and appraisement of the estate of Isaac James were also noted in the Lancaster Orders.⁽¹⁷⁾

Judith James was appointed guardian of Robert James, son of Isaac James, in the place of Lawson Hathaway on October 15, 1787.⁽¹⁸⁾ A committee of three was named to settle the administration account of Isaac James and the guardian account of his son Robert James with Lawson Hathaway, his guardian, and to report to the court at that time.⁽¹⁹⁾

The settlements were returned and ordered to be recorded, April 21, 1788.⁽²⁰⁾

The second son of Matthias James³ (Walter², Walter¹), and Catherine, his wife, was Matthias James⁴, Junior. His marriage is recorded in the Kingston Parish Register. He married Elizabeth _____, November 29, 1764. The marriage being recorded in Gloucester indicates that the bride was a native of Kingston Parish. Also, in the same register was found the record of the births of eleven slaves belonging to Matthias James, the first one in 1755, and the last one in 1776. Matthias James⁴ had, therefore, probably moved from Christ Church Parish, Lancaster, to Kingston Parish, Gloucester, by 1755.

Children of Matthias James⁴ and Elizabeth, his wife, were: Edward James⁵, born May 4, 1766; Catherine James⁵, born February 26, 1768; Elizabeth James⁵, born September 17, 1772; Matthias James, III⁵, born November 7, 1774; and Thomas James⁵, born February 24, 1777.⁽²¹⁾

A case came before the Court showing that Matthias James was Plaintiff against Thomas Hunton, Jr. and William Gibson. The issue "heretofore joined is by the parties waved and matter referred to the course of Plaintiff recover 73 pounds, 18 shillings and 10 pence, with lawful interest from 28th March, 1783 until paid."⁽²²⁾

Matthias James⁵ was in court proceedings again, in 1784, in a case in debt against Thomas Hunton, Jr. The case was continued.⁽²³⁾

The third son of Matthias James³ (Walter², Walter¹) and Catherine, his wife, was Walter James⁴. The Kingston Parish Register records that: "Walter James married Sarah Gayle May 17, 1767." Their children's births were recorded as follows:

William James⁵, born January 15, 1768; John James⁵, born February 21, 1770; Matthias James⁵, born April 4, 1772; Walter James⁵, born October 2, 1774; Richard James⁵, born May 18, 1777.⁽²⁴⁾ This record also indicates that Walter James⁴ of Christ Church Parish, Lancaster County, moved to Kingston Parish, Gloucester County.

Joanna James⁴, and Ann James⁴, daughters of Matthias James³ (Walter², Walter¹) and Catherine, his wife, have not been traced.

No further effort is being made to trace descendants of Matthias James³ and Catherine, his wife, namely, William⁴, Matthias⁴, Walter⁴, Joanna⁴ and Ann James⁴.

The next section will give one or two generations of descendants of Walter James³ (Walter², Walter¹), brother of Thomas James³, to be traced later, and Matthias James³, above.

Walter James³ (Walter², Walter¹)

This is a record of Walter James³, third son of Walter James², and Mary, his wife, and of their descendants through two or three generations. In his father's will he is named as the third son, and the will proves his parentage⁽²⁵⁾.

He married Elizabeth _____; this is proved by his will. They had five children, Benjamin James⁴, Bartlett James⁴, Barbara James⁴, Elizabeth James⁴ and Mary James⁴.

The eldest son, Benjamin James⁴, married Sarah _____. They had four children, Charles James⁵, Elizabeth James⁵, Benjamin James⁵, and Mary James⁵.

By order of court May 19, 1774 four appraisers were appointed, and they met June 9 and appraised the estate of Benjamin James; amount 66 £ - 19 - 1. Included was one Negro girl, Clary, valued at 37 £ - 10. Thomas Hunton, James Currell, William Lawson and Lawson Hathaway reported to the court June 16, 1774 ⁽²⁶⁾.

The next month Walter James³, father of Benjamin, deceased, made his will, July 29, 1774, as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I Walter James of the County of Lancaster, being in good health, thanks be given unto God. Therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men, once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament; that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the Almighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate where with it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give and dispose of in the following manner.

Item — I lend to my loving wife, Elizabeth James, my whole estate during her natural life or widowhood and if my said wife should marry, then my desire is that my whole estate except my lands and such other legacies as shall be hereafter mentioned be divided as hereafter directed.

Item — I give and bequeathe to my son Bartlett James my land and plantation, whereon I now live, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my said son Bartlett, my negro man, Anthony, my hand mill, and case of bottles to him and his heirs.

Item — It is my will and desire that if my son Bartlett should depart this life before his mother, that his now wife, Elizabeth, shall have a right to live on my plantation that I have given my said son Bartlett during her widowhood, or until my grandson John James, son of my said son Bartlett shall arrive at the age of 21 years.

Item — I lend my daughter-in-law Sarah James my land and plantation, commonly known by the name of "Coxes" during her widowhood, or until my grandson Charles James shall arrive to the age of 21 years. I also lend to my said daughter-in-law my negro man, Natt, during the above mentioned time to enable her to bring up her children, that is, my grandchildren.

Item — I give to my grandson Charles James after the intermarriage of his mother Sarah James, or when he shall arrive to age, my land and plantation above mentioned to be lent to his mother, to him and his heirs forever.

After the intermarriage of my said daughter-in-law, Sarah, or when my said grandson Charles James shall arrive at age, I give my negro man, Natt, to be equally divided among my grandchildren, Elizabeth, Charles, Mary and Benjamin and their heirs.

Item — I give to my daughter Barbary Hinton my negro man, Stephen, to her and her heirs forever.

I give to my daughter, Elizabeth George, my negro boy, Solomon, to her and her heirs forever, and 11 pounds current money to be paid her out of my estate before the same is divided.

Item — I give my daughter Mary Pitman, my negro girl, Rachel and her increase, to her and her heirs forever and 10 pounds current money to be paid her out of my estate before the same is divided.

Item — Whereas I lent to my son Benjamin James in his lifetime 27 £ - 12 shillings and 9 pence, it is my will that whatever part shall remain due to me at my death, be taken out of the part I intend for my said son Benjamin's children and be divided among my children Bartlett James, Barbary Hinton, Elizabeth George and Mary Pitman and their heirs.

Item — I give all the rest and residue of my estate to be equally divided among my children, Bartlett James, Barbary Hinton, Elizabeth George, and Mary Pitman and my grandchildren, Elizabeth, Charles, Mary and Benjamin James and their heirs, that is to say, my said grandchildren are to have my son Benjamin's part equally divided among them.

Item — I lend my said grandchildren's part of my estate under the care and management of my son Bartlett James till they shall respectively arrive at lawful age or marry.

It is my will that my estate be not appraised.

Lastly, I nominate and appoint my loving wife, Elizabeth James, and my son Bartlett, Executors of this my last will and testament; in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 29th day of July, 1774.⁽²⁷⁾

At a court held for Lancaster County the 15th day of April, 1779 this inventory of the estate of Walter James³ was returned and ordered to be recorded. Teste Thad McCarty C.L.C.

At the November Court, 1780, Thomas Lawson, John Berryman, Thomas Carter and Harry Currell met and divided the estate of Walter James, according to his will, having first appraised the same, as followeth: "Bristol £ 70; Sam £ 70; Priscilla £ 40; Sarah 18 £, and all the personal property amounted to £ 415 - 13 - 10½. Captain Jesse George was bondsman; his bond was 404 £." Final entry was May 16, 1781.⁽³¹⁾

Sarah James was appointed guardian of the orphans of Benjamin James and it was ordered that she appear at the next court and give bond according to law.⁽³²⁾

On April 18, 1782, on motion of Sarah James, it was ordered that her negro woman Cloe be exempted from taxes during the inability of the said Negro.⁽³³⁾ Charles James, son of Benjamin and Sarah James, married Sallie Hubbard January 7, 1804.

Elizabeth James, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah James, married George Carter, November 16, 1780, William James, security. Mary James, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah James, married Fleet Currell, December 6, 1796; Charles James, security.⁽³⁴⁾

Charles James⁵ borrowed £ 329 of his brother Benjamin James⁵, November 6, 1801, and as security he gave two Negro slaves, old Solomon and young Solomon, the slaves to be returned when the £ 329 with interest was paid.⁽³⁵⁾

On June 17, 1802, Benjamin James bought a tract of 25 acres for the consideration of 25 £, from Fleet Currell and his wife, Mary James Currell.^(35a)

Bartlett James⁴ was the second son of Walter James³. He married, first, Elizabeth Hathaway (Marriage Register) December 20, 1763. They had two children, Ann, or Nancy, James⁵ and John James⁵.

Bartlett James⁴ married, secondly, Elizabeth Waugh, widow, Edna Tapscott, guardian, January 17, 1771. They had three children, Bartley James⁵ who married Amy Yopp, February 16, 1795; Elizabeth James⁵ who married William Kent, July 13, 1795; and Mary James⁵ who married George Gresham, April 25, 1798.⁽³⁶⁾

Bartlett James was appointed guardian to his children John and Ann James, to receive the legacies given them by William Hathaway. He acknowledged bond for 100 £.⁽³⁷⁾

The will of William Hathaway, made November 16, 1771, proved January 16, 1772, bequeathes to "my grandson John James the sum of 25 pounds current money; to my granddaughter Nancy James the sum of 25 pounds."⁽³⁸⁾

An order of Court March 12, 1771, divided the estate of William Waugh, deceased, and possessed Bartlett James with his wife's part thereof as follows:

"To movables Edna Tapscott keeps £ 10 - 8 - 4-3/4.

To cash in Charles Hammond's hands £ 30 with lawful interest."

(signed) James Kirk, Benjamin George and John Nickols.

Reported and recorded May 16, 1771.⁽³⁹⁾

Bartlett James of Christ Church Parish, Lancaster, bought of William Wale the plantation where Bartlett James was then living July 23, 1777. He had seven years in which to pay for it. The amount of payments was specified.⁽⁴⁰⁾

Bartlett James died in 1778. An order of the Court dated March 19, 1778 appointed Henry Currell, John Fleet, Thomas Hunton, and Nicholas Currell to appraise his estate.⁽⁴¹⁾ On October 15, 1778 the following appraisal was presented, and recorded:

We the subscribers being duly sworn have appraised the estate of Bartlett James, dec'd in money, and also possessed the widow with her part of the dec'd's estate according to order:

The total value of the Negroes was £ 395. Of the personal property, Elizabeth James was given one bed, first choice; Bartley James was given a horse; and Mary James was given a bed, second choice, each valued at £ 6.

In the meantime the two older children, John James and Ann James, by the first marriage, had come into possession of their inheritance. It was in 1781, December 30th, that John James went into court and chose Lawson Hathaway for his guardian.⁽⁴⁴⁾ Several orders are in the records relative to these two orphans' accounts. They were dated September 20, 1782; January 5, 1783; February 20, 1783; August 19, 1784; August 19, 1785; and October 15, 1787.⁽⁴⁵⁾

John James⁵, son of Bartlett James⁴ and grandson of Walter James³ (Walter², Walter¹), died young, unmarried. His will was proved January 19, 1789. It follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I, John James Jr. of the County of Lancaster, being infirm of body, but of sound and perfect memory, thanks be to Almighty God for it, yet knowing the uncertainty of this life, and how suddenly men are called out of this world, do constitute and appoint this my last will in manner and form as followeth. First, I bequeathe my soul to God that gave it me, and my body to be decently buried accordingly to the directions of my loving friends.

Item — I give unto my loving sister, Ann James and to her heirs forever, all my estate of all kind whatever, both real and personal, likewise all my mother-in-law (step-mother) Elizabeth James' thirds at her death, which I was intitled unto by an act of Assembly so provided, at the division of Lawson Hathaway and Achilles Barnett and Ann, his wife; suit for recovery of land, slaves, etc. Sheriff's return, dated 14 March, 1796, executed on Lawson Hathaway. Achilles Barnett is non-inhabitant of my Baliwick. In consideration of which the said suit did abate against the said Achilles Barnett, and the same continued till the next rules to be held for the said court and the complainants to file their bill against the said defendant, Hathaway, which bill is in these words, towit:

Showeth unto your Worships, your orators and oratrixes, Bartlett James, William Kent and Elizabeth, his wife, who was Elizabeth James, and Mary James: That your orator is the brother by the father's side and your oratrix is the sister by the same side of a certain John James, who departed this life sometime in the year 1788, without having made any legal disposition of his estate by will or other writing, good and valid in law; that the said John James left neither wife nor child, but that Nancy James, a sister of the whole blood who has since intermarried with a certain Barnett, and your orators, were his next of kin, and the only persons under the law capable of taking his estate; that under the Act, regulating the course of descents the said Nancy, his sister of the whole blood is entitled to $\frac{2}{5}$ part of the land and personal estate of which the said John James died seized and possessed, and no more; and that your orators as being of the half blood are, each of them entitled to $\frac{1}{5}$ of the same; that your orators upon being well advised that this was the law, have made frequent application to the said Barnett, who intermarried with the said Nancy, for their distributive parts of the lands, slaves and movable estate, of which the said John James died seized and possessed, but now, so it may please your worships that the said Barnett and Nancy, his wife, combining and confederating together and with a certain William James and Lawson Hathaway, whom your orators pray may be made defendants herein, and divers other persons how to injure and oppress your orators and deprive them of their so just right, and possessed themselves of the whole estate, both real and personal of the said John James without ever accounting with your orators for their parts; that the said Barnett and Nancy, his wife, have since, by their deed of conveyance of record among the records of Lancaster County Court conveyed the same to the said Lawson Hathaway, insisting that your orators had no claim or interest in any part of the said estate, and setting up a will, made by collusion and framed for him, the said John James when he was on his death-bed, and if executed by him at all, not until a few hours before his death when in the last stages of a confluent smallpox, and in the height of delirium, and at a time when he was entirely bereft of his senses and memory, being obliged to be raised up in his bed by a certain William James (whom your orators charge as prime agent in this fraudulent business, and who, together with the said Lawson Hathaway, as your orators believe, contrived the said will) and when raised up, your orators charge he was so ill that the said William James was obliged to take his hand and make a mark for him by way of signature.

12 March, 1796.⁽⁵⁰⁾

Bartlett James⁵ (Junior) bought some slaves of Lawson Hathaway, and also bought land from his sisters. The transactions follow:

May 21, 1799, Lawson Hathaway of Lancaster sold to Bartlett James, William Kent and George Gresham for the better securing the payment of the sum of £ 112, with legal interest and also the costs of a suit for the sum of six shillings, "the said Hathaway sells the following negroes, one man named Daniel; a woman, Hannah; Davy and Jesse, two negro boys to Bartlett James, Wm. Kent and George Gresham. However if they fail to pay in full, with interest, the said Hathaway shall possess the negroes."

September 16, 1799, William Kent and wife Elizabeth (James) of Northumberland sold to Bartlett James, of Lancaster County, 10 acres adjacent to Kent and Hathaway on Nantipoison Creek; consideration £ 8.

September 16, 1799, George Gresham and Mary (James) sold to Bartlett James a tract of nineteen acres, adjacent to Captain Hathaway and Captain Towell; consideration £ 8.

June 2, 1801, Mark Towell and wife Anne of Christ Church Parish, Lancaster County, deeded to Bartley James a tract of six and three-quarters acres for consideration of £ 25.

In his will, Walter James³ named five children: Benjamin James⁴, whose descendants have been traced for a generation; Bartlett James⁴, whose descendants, also are given for a generation; Barbara James⁴, who married _____Hinton; Elizabeth James⁴, who married _____George; and Mary James⁴, who married _____Pittman. No effort has been made further to trace this branch of the family.⁽⁵¹⁾

Thomas James³ (Walter², Walter¹)

This is a record of Thomas James³, oldest son of Walter James², and Mary, his wife, and of their descendants. The tracing of this line forms the background of the family of Thomas James, Clerk of Kingston Parish, Gloucester County, the subject of this manuscript. After a thorough study of his ancestry, his descendants are traced in succeeding chapters.

Thomas James³ heired land from his father; the will states "to Thomas, my son, the piece of land which I bought of Leonard Knight, called 'The Folly'."

Thomas James³ bought 235 acres from James Brent and Katherine, his wife, July 12, 1744 for 100 £ current money.⁽⁵²⁾

Thomas James³ and Joan, his wife, sold eighty acres left him by his father Walter James² to Simon Degge, May 9, 1745.⁽⁵³⁾ Abstract of the deed follows:

This indenture made the 9th day of May anno. 1745 between Thomas James, planter, of the County of Lancaster and Parish of Christ Church of the one part and Simon Degge, ship carpenter of the county aforesaid, of the other part, witnesseth that the said Thomas James for, and in consideration of the sum of 5 shillings, sterling money to him in hand paid by the said Simon Degge—a certain piece or parcel of land, situate and being in the Parish and county aforesaid, between Tabbs Creek and Nantypoysen Creek, bounded as followeth, vizt: Edward Gibson's line, Abraham Crowel's line, to Walter James line, to line of Mathias James, to Edward Gibson's: 80 A. and is part of a piece or parcel of land purchased of William Short by Leonard Knight, who sold the same to Walter James, father of the above said, Thomas James, by deed bearing date March 7, 1706/7.

The said Walter James, by his last will and testament dated 8th day of Jan., 1722/3, did give and bequeathe the aforesaid parcel of land to his son Thomas James aforementioned—stipulation being had to the severall conveyances —.

Creator and Redeemer, my body to the earth from whence it came, to be decently interred and after my debts being first paid, the rest of my estate it hath pleased God to bless me with, all, I dispose in manner and form following: (vizt.)

I do lend all my estate Royal and Personal, to my now loving wife Joan James during her widowhood and in case she should marry, I then leave her a third part of my estate, after her marriage or death, I do give the following: (vizt.)

Item—I give to my eldest son Thomas James thirteen pounds current money (besides what he has had), to be paid in stock and personal estate.

Item—I give my second son Hugh James fifteen pounds current money, to be paid in stock and personal estate.

Item—I give my youngest son John James my land, to him and his heirs forever.

Item—I give my youngest daughter Margaret James my best feather bed and furniture.

Item—I give to my daughter Elizabeth James my second best bed and furniture.

Item—I give to my daughter Sarah James my next best bed and furniture.

Item—I give to my daughter Mary James my next bed and furniture.

Item—I give the rest of my estate to be equally divided between my youngest son John James and my four daughters, (vizt.) Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth and Margaret James; if either should not live until they marry, or come to the age of eighteen, I desire their part may go between the rest of my children that are living of the five last mentioned. If my wife make any improvement in the estate after my death I give her liberty to bestow it on which or as many of my children as she shall think proper.

I desire my corn and meat may not be appraised, but for the family's use.

I nominate and appoint my loving wife Joan James, Executrix during her widowhood; after her marriage or death, I do appoint James Kirk and Anthony Sydnor executors of this, my last will and testament as witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

Signed, sealed, and published.

At a court held for Lancaster County on the 18th of March, 1765 the appraisement of the estate of Thomas James, deceased, was returned and ordered to be recorded.⁽⁶¹⁾

At a court held for Lancaster County on the 15th day of April, 1765 the last will and testament of Thomas James, deceased, was further proved in open court by the oath of Ben Angoll and ordered to be certified.⁽⁶²⁾

Sarah James⁴, daughter of Thomas³ and Joan James, married James Nuttall May 13, 1760. It is stated in the record that "her father is Thomas James."⁽⁶³⁾ Note that she married before her father's death.

Joan James, widow of Thomas James³ made oath on the 16th day of February, 1767 that she attended two days in court as witness for George Currell at the suit of Sarah Wilder; it was ordered that the said Currell pay her fifty pounds of tobacco for her attendance as the law directed.⁽⁶⁴⁾

Joan James died in 1775. Following is the appraisement of her small estate:

“In obedience to an Order of Lancaster Court, dated March 16, 1775, we, the subscribers, being sworn, met and appraised the estate of Joan James, deceased, vizt:

At a court held for Lancaster County on the 16th day of November, 1775, this inventory and appraisement of the estate of Joan James, deceased was returned to court and ordered to be recorded.⁽⁶⁵⁾

Teste—Thomas B. Griffin—Cl. Court.

In his will, Thomas James³ names his children as: Thomas James⁴, the eldest son; Hugh James⁴, the second son; and John James⁴, the youngest son, and four daughters, Margaret James⁴, Elizabeth James⁴, Sarah James⁴ and Mary James⁴.

The last five children were under 18 years of age in 1753 when he made his will.

It will be noted that all of his property was loaned to his wife Joan through her widowhood and to be divided afterwards among his children. His estate was appraised in 1765 and, after his widow Joan's death, just prior to March 16, 1775, her small estate of 16 £, 4s. was appraised. Then his estate was again inventoried and appraised in money, September 21, 1775. Later, on 19th October, 1775 three men were appointed by the court to divide Thomas James³ estate among his heirs according to his will. The court action follows, and it will be noted that one daughter, Margaret, died after the will was written.

The last will and testament of Thomas James, deceased, being formally proved in this court, and recorded by Joan James, the widow of the said Thomas, qualified Executrix to said will, who is since deceased, and on its being proved to the court that Anthony Sydnor and James Kirk, Executors in the said will named, relinquished all their right, on the motion of Thomas James and Jonathan Wilder, and their performing what is usual in such cases, certificate is granted them for obtaining letters of administration in due form with the said will annexed, on all the estate of the said deceased which were not administered by the said widow and Executrix, and it is ordered that Henry Lawson, Thomas Lawson, Thomas Shearman and John Berryman, or any three of them being first sworn before a Justice of the Peace for this county, meet and appraise the said estate in money and make report of their proceedings thereunto the next court, 17, August, 1775.⁽⁶⁶⁾

The second inventory of Thomas James³ estate was reported:

In obedience to an Order of Lancaster Court we, the subscribers, being sworn before a Justice of the Peace for the said county did meet and appraise the estate of Thomas James, dec'd in money as followeth:

(signed) Henry Lawson, Thomas Carter, Thomas Shearman; November 22, 1775.⁽⁶⁹⁾

⁽⁶⁹⁾ Lancaster County Will Book 20, 1770-1783, p. 96.

On the 16th day of May, 1776, this division of the estate of Thomas James was reported to the court and ordered to be recorded.

*Margaret James*⁴, daughter of Thomas James³, died unmarried before the settlement of her father's estate.

*Sarah James*⁴, daughter of Thomas James³ married James Nuttall in 1760, as has already been noted, before her father died and her share of the estate is listed as "James Nuttall's Part."

*Elizabeth James*⁴, daughter of Thomas James³, purchased land from James Nuttall and William Snodgrass, giving one hundred and thirty pounds for 106 acres in Lancaster County, "Beginning at a stake dividing this land from the land of Thomas James, dec'd.," as evidenced by this entry: Received the 19th day of April, 1770 of the within named Elizabeth James, the sum of 130 pounds current money, being the consideration within mentioned to be received by us. (signed) James Nuttall; Wm. Snodgrass."⁽⁷⁰⁾

Later, Elizabeth James⁴ married Bushrod Rivers and died in 1775 as is indicated by a motion in court, 19 October, 1775, when Bushrod Rivers applied for administration of "the estate of Elizabeth Rivers."⁽⁷¹⁾

Bushrod Rivers and John James⁴ were in court in several cases from 1778 to 1781 when Bushrod Rivers died.⁽⁷²⁾ On May 18, 1780 Rivers asked for a jury trial and on July 20, 1780, it was decided that Bushrod Rivers owed John James 584 pounds current money: "therefore it is considered that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the said sum of £ 549 and also the negro man James or the sum of 25£ current money together with his costs in this suit expended, and the said defendant in mercy etc."⁽⁷³⁾

Before this claim was settled, Bushrod Rivers died and John James sued Peter Rivers, administrator of Bushrod Rivers in Chancery Court for the balance. The court decreed that the following Negroes be turned over to John James to satisfy his claim: "towit: Charles and Jenny and Jenny's increase, together with costs in the suit and all attorney's fees."⁽⁷⁴⁾

There were two orphan children of Bushrod Rivers and Elizabeth James⁴ Rivers, namely, John⁵ Wilkes Rivers and Wiat⁵ Rivers.

(73) Ibid., p. 59.

(74) Ibid., pp. 100, 109.

The Guardian's Account of Peter Rivers for these two orphans began in 1781 and was settled in February, 1794.⁽⁷⁵⁾

*Mary James*⁴, the fourth daughter of Thomas James³, seems to have been named Mary Frances James. She married Jonathan Wilder, a widower with two sons, Spencer Wilder and James Wilder.

James Wilder died before his father made his will, the 16th day of January 1788. James Wilder was unmarried and he stated in his will, written December 26, 1786, that he was to be buried "at the discretion" of his father. He left a bequest for Molly James Wilder, the daughter of Jonathan Wilder and Frances, his wife. Likewise, the father, in his will mentions his daughter Mary James Wilder. Both wills make mention of the oldest son and brother, Spencer Wilder. James Wilder said, "I give my brother Spencer Wilder, should he ever return to Lancaster, all my negroes." Both wills were presented in court Jan. 21, 1788.⁽⁷⁶⁾

Children of Joanthan Wilder and Mary Frances James⁴ Wilder were William⁵, John⁵, Vincent⁵, Frances⁵, and Mary James Wilder⁵.

*Hugh James*⁴, son of Thomas James³ and Joan, his wife, does not appear in the records of Lancaster County after the settlement of his father's estate which was ordered October 19, 1775. However, in Charlotte County there is listed an inventory in 1775 for a Hugh James' estate.

*John James*⁴, the youngest son of Thomas James³ and Joan James, married Mary Carter. The will of Mary Carter, Sr., mentions "her daughter Mary James."⁽⁷⁷⁾

John James' name appears in the county records many times from 1765 to 1796, or later. Most of these items do not seem to be important. They are Court Orders which show that he attended court as witness in a number of cases and as defendant or plaintiff in several suits. These items have been carefully examined and, because of lack of any important information, have been omitted from this manuscript.⁽⁷⁸⁾

One very important civil function of the Vestry of a Parish in the Episcopal Church in this era was the yearly "processioning" or going over all the land in the Parish to ascertain who owned the lands, and to determine the boundaries of every tract. There were two or three processioners appointed for each district. They were accompanied as they worked by the persons interested in the boundary to be established.

In 1779 John James was appointed as a processioner: "Vestry of Christ Church Parish in County of Lancaster, 5 July, 1779. Ordered that John James, William Major and Lawson Hathaway procession all the land from Nantepoison Creek to the little mill on the east side of the main road, from the first of November to the 15th of same."⁽⁷⁹⁾ Also from the same record, dated 1st Nov., 1779: "We, the subscribers began our processioning in Nantepoison as followeth—between Henry Lawson and Elizabeth James; between Charles Carter and John James; between the Plantation Diggs and Elizabeth James;—between Martin George and John James;—between John James and Rawl Shearman; between the Plantation James and Elizabeth James, and between the Plantation Elizabeth James and Rawl Shearman.

Witness our hands: John James, Wm. Major, Lawson Hathaway."

This processioning lists the land owned by members of the James family in this section of the Parish. Other Jameses would show in the processioning reports of adjoining sections.

The First Census of the United States, 1790, under State Enumerations, lists John James in Lancaster County as head of a home of nine white souls, with one dwelling and one other building. Tax records in 1782 and in 1787 list John James as paying taxes on 150 acres in Lancaster County.

John James⁴ and Mary, his wife, for 200 pounds current money, sold land to James Pollard in Lancaster County, "106 A. beginning at a stake dividing this land from the land of the said John James, by the land of Jesse George and thence by the land of Wm. Mason, deceased, and thence by the land of Martin George, to the beginning. 9 January, 1786.

Signed: John James, Mary James

Witnesses: Jesse George, John Thrall, Thomas James.⁽⁸⁰⁾

John James⁴ continued to be active in Lancaster County through the 1700's. There was a John James, Jr. who was probably the son of John James⁴, although the terms senior and junior did not always indicate father and son at that time.

⁽⁷⁹⁾ Orders of the Vestry of Christ Church Parish, Lancaster Co., Virginia 1711-1783, pp. 105, 114.

⁽⁸⁰⁾ Lancaster County Deed Book 21; 1782-93, p. 66.

On June 20, 1796, John James sold to John James, Jr. the part of the land on which John James then lived for a consideration of £ 75, this being the tract of 100 acres adjoining Isaac Degge.⁽⁸¹⁾

No effort will be made to trace the descendents of John James⁴ (Thomas³, Walter², Walter¹) as there is nothing in the Lancaster County records giving names of descendants, except John James, Jr. The Census said nine white souls were in his family but did not name them.

Having accounted for all of the children of Thomas James³ and Joan, his wife, (John⁴, Hugh⁴, Sarah⁴, Mary⁴, Margaret⁴, and Elizabeth⁴) except Thomas⁴, their oldest son as designated in his father's will, his line is traced here, lastly, to give it proper emphasis since it is the line of the Thomas James family of this history.

*Thomas James*⁴, oldest son of Thomas James³ (Walter², Walter¹) and Joan, his wife was born ca 1720. He married probably about 1739. The surname of his wife is not known.

It will be remembered that in his father's will he was left only a small legacy of 13 pounds, "besides what he has had." In the division of his father's property, this son, Thomas, actually received only 10 £, 11s, 8d. No slaves were involved.

While no will has been found naming his children, a comparison of existing records points to three children and possibly four, viz: Thomas James⁵, George James⁵, and Sarah James⁵. This daughter married James Nuttall Jr., December 6, 1798 and the marriage register states that "she was the daughter of Thomas James." There may have been a fourth child named John James⁵.⁽⁸²⁾

The son, *Thomas James*⁵, died the first part of 1773. The record states that George James got letters of administration to settle the Thomas James estate, 17th of June, 1773. This service indicates the relationship of George⁵ to Thomas⁵ and to their father Thomas⁴.⁽⁸³⁾

Also, Thomas James⁵ left orphan children Thomas⁶, George⁶, and Frances⁶. As guardians for them had to be chosen, or appointed by the court, we find John James as the guardian of one in 1773 and of all three in 1774, suggesting the relationship of John, the guardian, and Thomas⁵ (died 1773) as that of brothers. If the John James who was guardian to these orphans was not their father's brother, he must have been the uncle of their father. It is not clear whether there were one or two John James in this branch of the family at this period of time. Thus it seems logical to state that the known children of Thomas James⁴ were Thomas⁵, George⁵, Sarah⁵ and, probably, John⁵.

Note that Thomas James⁴, son of Thomas³ and Joan, was living in 1775 and asked for letters of administration on the estate of his father who had died ten years previously. Accordingly, he is not to be confused with the Thomas James who died in 1773.

In placing the relationship of the Thomas who died in 1773 as the son of Thomas⁴ (Thomas³ and Joan, Walter², Walter¹), all dates of existing records agree; also the wills, already quoted in this manuscript, account for all descendants found in the records and thus leave no other place for this Thomas James than that of son of Thomas James⁴ and brother of George⁵ and Sarah⁵ and probably John⁵. Items relative to this Thomas James⁵, who died in 1773 are as follows: He was married twice. His first wife was, presumably, Elizabeth Basye* of Northumberland County. John Basye's will, made June 8, 1768, proved November 13, 1769, leaves one shilling to each of his four sons-in-law, one of whom was named Thomas James.⁽⁸⁴⁾ By his first wife, Thomas James⁵ had issue, Thomas James⁶, George James⁶ and Frances James⁶, all of whom were under age when he died in 1773. Thomas James⁵ married secondly, a widow, Sarah (Griggs) Wale, as shown by the following court order:—"15 April, 1773; on the motion of William Brent, it is ordered that Sarah James be summoned to next court to make up her administration account of her deceased husband George Wale's estate." Thus, Thomas James⁵ and this second wife had a very short married life. Further:

At Lancaster Court 17 June, 1773, on the motion of George James, who made oath according to law, "certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of administration of the estate of Thomas James, deceased, in due form, he the said George James, together with John James, Richard Hutchings, William Griggs and James Pollard his securities, having entered into and acknowledged bond for the performance of the said estate, in the sum of £ 3000. Ordered that Hugh Brent, Thomas Lawson, Gent., Thomas Rouand and James Brent, or any three of them, being first sworn before a Justice of the Peace for this county, meet and appraise the estate of Thomas James, deceased, (in money) and also lay off and allott to Sarah James, widow and relict of the said deceased, her dower both real and personal of the said estate and make report of their proceedings thereunto at the next court."⁽⁸⁵⁾

Nothing further is known of the George James⁵ who settled his brother Thomas' estate except that on July 15, 1773, he reported that he had attended court for Bailif George seven days and was due 175 pounds of tobacco as payment.

On July 15, 1773, *Thomas James*⁶, orphan of Thomas James⁵, deceased, made choice of William Gibson for his guardian, he the said William Gibson, together with John James, his security, having entered into and acknowledged bond for the estate of the said orphan in the penalty of one thousand pounds.⁽⁸⁶⁾

Since Thomas Jame⁶, the orphan, chose his guardian, he was at least 14 years old in 1773. This indicates that his birthdate was in 1759. The same date, July 15, 1773, John James was appointed guardian to Frances James, orphan of Thomas James, deceased, together with William Gibson, his security.⁽⁸⁷⁾ Following this action, William Griggs and Richard Hutchings came into court to endorse John James as security for William Gibson and John Nichols and Richard Hutchings endorsed William Gibson as security for John James as guardians for these orphans.⁽⁸⁸⁾

At the May session of court, 1773, in Lancaster County, it was ordered that Hugh Brent, Thomas Lawson, Thomas Rouand and James Brent, or any three of them, meet and divide the estate of Thomas James, deceased, and possess William Gibson and John James, guardians to Thomas and Frances James, orphans of the said deceased, with their part thereof and make report of their proceedings therein to the court.⁽⁸⁹⁾ Their report follows:

John James was guardian for three orphans of Thomas James⁵ from 1774 until settlement, as each became of age. It appears that Frances was the youngest child. When she became of age in 1783, the following court order, dated October 16, 1783, was entered: "John Fleet, John Berryman, gent., Thomas Carter and Wm. Lawson, or any three of them, are appointed to settle the guardianship account of John James in the estate of Fanny James."⁽⁹⁸⁾ The settlement was as follows:

Persuant to an order of Lancaster Court to us directed, October Court 1783, to settle John James' guardianship account of the estate of Frances James and make report of our proceedings to next court. We met Nov. 6, 1783 and settled the account as above and find a balance of four pounds, five shillings and five pence due to the guardian, John James.

At a court held in Lancaster County 17th day February, 1784, this settlement was returned and ordered to be recorded.⁽⁹⁹⁾

The marriage of Frances James⁶ to James Currell, Junr. May 20, 1779, is listed in the Marriage Register.⁽¹⁰⁰⁾ It gives John James as security. Take note of the guardian's statement that clothing and board for Frances ended in 1778 and a sum of money was paid James Currell in 1780 by John James.

Mention was made earlier that George James⁶, the orphan of Thomas James⁵, had George Doggett for his guardian in 1773 and later the guardianship was transferred to John James.

Descendants of George James⁶ and Frances James⁶ Currell, two of the orphans of Thomas James⁵ and his first wife, who, it is believed was Elizabeth Basye of Northumberland County, have not been traced.

The third orphan, Thomas James⁶, who was probably the oldest of the three, was born about 1759. Date is indicated in view of the fact that he chose his guardian in 1773 at which time he must have been at least fourteen years of age. All existing records corroborate the thesis that he was the person who moved from Lancaster County to Gloucester County, and in 1783 became the Clerk and Lay Reader of Kingston Parish.

The First Census of the United States, 1790, lists Thomas James as head of the home of three white persons in Gloucester County in 1784. In 1785 the Census listed only John James and Jeduthan James in Lancaster County; no Thomas James was listed there, thus indicating that Thomas James⁶ had moved from Lancaster to Gloucester. The land tax records of Lancaster County for 1782, 1787, 1791, and 1795 list several land owners in the James family, all of whom are included in this manuscript, but there is no Thomas James in these records.

However, in 1796 the elder Thomas James⁴, presumably the grandfather of the Kingston Parish Clerk, had 235 acres in Lancaster; and the following year Thomas James of Lancaster was given 120 acres by John James. This gift points to the earlier theory that Thomas James⁴ had a son as well as a brother named John James. The abstracted deed follows:

This indenture made fifth day of July in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six between John James of Lancaster County and State of Virginia, of the one part, and Thomas James of said County and State, of the other part, witnesseth that the said John James for and in consideration of the natural love and affection and for the better maintenance and livelihood of him, the said Thomas James, hath given, granted a parcel of land on which he, the said John James, now resides in the aforesaid County of Lancaster containing by estimate 120 acres.⁽¹⁰¹⁾ It was recorded on 18 July, 1796.

In the meantime, Thomas James⁶, about 1783 married Betsy (Betty) Davis and their first child, Frances James⁷, was born Nov. 8, 1784. Her birth was recorded in the Kingston Parish Register, Gloucester County. Note that her given name is that of Thomas James⁶ sister, Frances, the orphan who married James Currell. The Vestry book of Kingston Parish gives a list of the clerks of the Vestry, beginning with 1679, and Thomas James is listed for the first time in 1783 and continued until 1792. He was reappointed in 1796.⁽¹⁰²⁾

The second child of Thomas James⁶ and Betsy, his wife, was born August 7, 1786, and was named *Cyrus Basye James*⁷. The use of the surname Basye points to the relationship with the Basye family of Northumberland County. This strengthens the theory mentioned earlier that the Thomas James⁵ who died in 1773, leaving three orphan children, had as his first wife Elizabeth Basye, daughter of John Basye, who named in his will in 1768 (proved 1769) his "son-in-law Thomas James"; and that the orphan Thomas James⁶ was the son of this Basye-James marriage; and that he and his wife Betsy named their first son for Thomas' mother Elizabeth Basye.

⁽¹⁰²⁾ Kingston Parish Vestry Book, p. 136.

Thomas James⁶, Kingston Parish Clerk, personally recorded the births of his older children in the Parish Register. Their descendants will be traced in Part III of this manuscript.

The names Thomas, Matthias and Walter in this family had been successively in family use in Lancaster County since the early 1700s. It has already been noted in this manuscript that Matthias James⁴, Jr. and Walter James⁴, sons of Matthias James³, had moved to Kingston Parish, Gloucester, where their marriages and the births of their children were recorded. When their second cousin, Thomas James⁶, moved to Kingston Parish, we find again the family names of Thomas, Matthais and Walter in Gloucester County.

KINGSTON PARISH

GLOUCESTER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The Kingston Parish register records the marriages of Matthias James and Elizabeth _____, November 29, 1764; James Harris and Betty James, January 10, 1766; and Walter James and Sarah Gayle, May 12, 1767.^(103a) These records would indicate that the three women were residents of Kingston Parish. Nothing further is known of James Harris and Betty James.

As the two James households became established in Kingston Parish, the births of their children were recorded in the Kingston Register as follows:

Children of Matthias and Elizabeth James;

- (1) Edward James, born May 4, 1766;
- (2) Catherine James, born February 26, 1768;
- (3) Elizabeth James, born September 17, 1772;
- (4) Matthias James, born November 7, 1774;
- (5) Thomas James, born February 24, 1777.

The following births of children born to Walter James and Sarah Gayle James, his wife, were recorded:

- (1) William James, born January 15, 1768;
- (2) John James, born February 21, 1770;
- (3) Matthias James, born April 4, 1772;
- (4) Walter James, born October 2, 1774;
- (5) Richard James, born May 18, 1777.

The Vestry Book of Kingston Parish, edited by C. G. Chamberlayne, shows that a Vestry meeting was held for Kingston Parish on August 14, 1775 and that there were eight vestrymen present. The minutes further state that it was: "Agreed that the Church Wardens desire Mr. Edward Tabb, Mr. Ben Shackelford, Mr. Isaac Smith, Mr. William Smith, Mr. Matthias James and Mr. John Hunley, or any three of them, to meet at the Glebe at some convenient time to view what proportion of land there appears to have timbertrees cut off."⁽¹⁰³⁾ John Davis, clerk of the Church and Vestry signed the preceding minutes. It is presumed he was the clerk at this meeting.

Falling as it does within the boat building tradition of the James family, the following agreement is of interest:

July 31, 1777. It is this day agreed on between Matthias James of the one part and John Fowler of the other part. That the said Matthias James for and in consideration of the sum of thirty-five pounds to him in hand paid, the receipt whereof he hereby acknowledgeth, doth oblige himself to begin, finish and compleat (sic) all the joiner's work properly belonging to the sloop he is now building in a neat, convenient, and workmanlike manner. The Stearage must be sealed, that the whole shall be finished as soon as possible. In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year above written.

N.B. There is to be no State Room in the above-mentioned cabin.⁽¹⁰⁴⁾

The following names are taken from the 1782 Gloucester-Mathews tax list, Kingston Parish: Edward James, Elizabeth James, Thomas James, Walter James, William James.⁽¹⁰⁵⁾

The first census, under Virginia Enumerations, 1784, for Gloucester County lists Thomas James as head of three white souls and one dwelling in Kingston Parish. Also, Walter James for eight white souls, one dwelling, one other building.

For the most interesting items in Gloucester County relative to Thomas James⁶ we turn to the Kingston Parish Vestry Book entries beginning 1783, as follows:⁽¹⁰⁶⁾

THOMAS JAMES⁶, KINGSTON PARISH CLERK,

His Descendants

From the foregoing data the ancestry of Thomas James, clerk of Kingston Parish, seems to have been well established. He was Thomas James⁶ (Thomas⁵ and Elizabeth Basye [Basey], Thomas⁴, Thomas³ and Joan, Walter², Walter¹) born about 1759. His wife "Betsy", so recorded eleven times in the parish register, was undoubtedly Betty Davis, daughter of Thomas and Hillegan (Degge) Davis, born September 15, 1763. A recent re-examination of the Virginia State Library's photostatic copy of the original parish register supports this conclusion. Among the birth entries between 1755 and 1765, 'Betty Davis' is the only Elizabeth, Betsy or Betty whose mother's name was Hillegan (Hilligan). The names Hilligan, Degge and Davis are repeated in the given names of children and grandchildren of Thomas and Betsy James. These facts, taken together, furnish strong evidence that she alone could have been "Betsy", wife of Thomas James and mother of the eleven children of "Thomas James and wife Betsy" so often recorded and referred to.

Their first child, Frances⁷, was born on November 8, 1784, indicating that they were married in 1783 or 1784. Due to the fact that all Mathews County public records were burned later, and that only fragmentary records, principally those of the partly destroyed and deteriorated parish register, remain, marriage data are incomplete. They may have been married soon after he moved from Lancaster to Gloucester County. There is no record of their marriage in Lancaster. Reverend Cyrus Rosser James, who knew and lived with Cyrus Basye James, his grandfather and son of Thomas and Betsy James, had no doubt but that Thomas James came from "The Northern Neck", which embraces Lancaster County, to Gloucester County.

Thomas James⁶ established his home in lower Mathews County on Mobjack Bay, about three miles above New Point Comfort, between Pepper Creek and East River, an area known locally as Bar Neck. It is now estimated that the farm contained 600 acres or more. The original dwelling was almost entirely destroyed by fire in the 19th century. However it was rebuilt, except for a 20' x 60' one-story wing to the east of the present building, by John Franklin James, grandson of Thomas and Betsy James. It has been continuously in the family—approximately 180 years. From the house there is an unobstructed view of Mobjack Bay and lower Chesapeake Bay. Upon a division of the property among the daughters of John Franklin James, the home tract passed to Ruth Elizabeth James Miles, and after her death to her husband, Randolph Miles, who now lives there (1961) with his wife's niece, Mary Rebecca Diggs (Moore) Buchanan, and her family.

The eleven children of Thomas James⁶ and wife Betsy were:

- I. Frances James⁷, born November 8, 1784;
- II. Cyrus Basye (Basey) James⁷, born August 7, 1786;
- III. Elizabeth Hunley James⁷, born January 2, 1788;
- IV. Paulina James⁷, born October 27, 1790;
- V. Thomas Degge Davis James⁷, born August 7, 1792;
- VI. Cary James⁷, born September 27, 1795;
- VII. Miriam Marshal James⁷, born February 8, 1798;
- VIII. Martha Washington James⁷, born March 8, 1800;
- IX. Hilligan Degge James⁷, born March 26, 1802;
- X. Harriot (Harriett) Smith James⁷, born January 25, 1805;
- XI. William Leven James⁷, born January 20, 1808.

(All dates are from the Kingston Parish Register.)

Five of these, Frances, Cyrus Basye, Paulina, Miriam Marshal, and Martha Washington, married into Mathews County families, related and unrelated, surnamed White. Seven of them moved from Mathews County to York County, a distance of a few miles across Mobjack Bay and the York River, where they settled on adjoining, adjacent or nearby farms in the Chesapeake Bay area of the county, where the economy was then dependent on seafoods, boats, and farming to a large extent. Hereafter a chapter is devoted to each of these eleven children.

CHAPTER I

FRANCES JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Frances James⁷, first child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife, Betsy James, was born November 8, 1784.⁽²⁾ She married Absalom White, son of William White and Dorothy Davis White, October 22, 1807. Absalom White was born October 29, 1777. His father, William White, son of William and Elizabeth White, was born December 22, 1750. His mother was Dorothy Davis, daughter of Thomas and Hillegan Davis, born April 7, 1754. His parents were married December 3, 1775.⁽³⁾

Absalom White and Frances James⁷ White were the parents of nine children:

- A. Thomas Degge James⁸ White, born October 26, 1809;
- B. Absalom⁸ White (Junior), born September 3, 1811;
- C. Edward⁸ White, born December 26, 1812;
- D. Elizabeth James⁸ White, born November 8, 1815;
- E. Harriett Frances⁸ White, born October 5, 1817;
- F. Cyrus Cary⁸ White, born June 30, 1819;
- G. Hilligan Diggs⁸ White, born March 3, 1821;
- H. George Washington⁸ White, born February 22, 1823;
- I. Wesley Franklin⁸ White, born September 7, 1826.⁽²⁾

Absalom White, father of the above children, died December 17, 1855. Frances James⁷ White, mother of the above children, died July 15, 1860.⁽⁴⁾

The line of descendants through their nine children follows:

A. Thomas Degge James⁸ White, first child of Absalom and Frances James⁷ White, born October 26, 1809, married Martha Davison.⁽⁴⁾ They had one son Thomas J.⁹ White, born May 5, 1843; died February 8, 1865 at "Point Look Out" Maryland in the Civil War, age twenty-two years.⁽⁵⁾ Thomas Degge James⁸ White died September 8, 1855.

B. Absalom⁸ White, Junior, second child of Absalom and Frances James⁷ White, born September 3, 1811, married, first, Mary Hunley White Thomas, widow, daughter of John White and Elizabeth Davenport White. They had one child, who died at birth. Mary Hunley White died when thirty-five years of age and Absalom⁸ White, Junior, married, secondly, Margaret Jarvis. They had two children, Virginia⁹ White who married Dr. Calhoun of Elizabeth City, N. C.; and Annie White, who married Professor Barnett.⁽⁶⁾

The second wife died and Absalom⁸ White married, thirdly, Susan Beasley. They had no children.

C. Edward⁸ White, third child of Absalom and Frances James⁷ White, born December 26, 1812, married Elizabeth Merrill. They had one son, Frank⁹ White, who moved to California and died there.

D. Elizabeth James⁸ White, fourth child and first daughter of Absalom and Frances James⁷ White, born November 8, 1815, married, first, Robert Henry Minor, February 22, 1835.⁽⁷⁾ They had two children, Thomas F.⁹ Minor, born November 28, 1835, and Henrietta Frances⁹ Minor, born December 20, 1838. Robert Henry Minor died and Elizabeth James⁸ Minor married, secondly, Thomas Dawson. This was his second marriage. His first wife was a cousin of Elizabeth James⁸ White, and that record will appear in the Elizabeth Hunley James⁷ Davis chapter. One child was born to Thomas Dawson and Elizabeth James⁸ Minor Dawson, Martha A. H.⁹ Dawson, born June 3, 1845. Her mother died when Mattie was quite young and she was reared in Portsmouth, Virginia by her uncle, Wesley Franklin⁸ White. Martha A. H.⁹ Dawson married Allen Bushnell; they had two children, Aileen¹⁰ Bushnell and Jennie¹⁰ Bushnell. Jennie¹⁰ died unmarried.

Aileen¹⁰ Bushnell married Avery Williams. They had three children, Clarendon¹¹ Williams, who died young; Russell¹¹ Williams, unmarried; and Cornell¹¹ Williams, who married a Miss Booker. They have two children.

E. Harriett Frances⁸ White, fifth child and second daughter of Absalom and Frances James⁷ White, born October 5, 1817, married William Henry⁸ White, son of Bartlett White and Paulina James⁷ White (Part III, Chapter 4). They moved to Baltimore, Maryland. He was choir leader of Wilk Street Methodist Church, Baltimore, which became Broadway Methodist Church. Most of their children were born in Baltimore. They moved to York County, Virginia before the Civil War. He taught vocal classes in York. They purchased land in the Fish Neck area of York County. They had the following children:

(6) John White Bible (Mrs. Bernard White).

(7) C. C. White Bible, Mathews County.

1. Ellen⁹ White, born September 26, 1840;
2. Robert⁹ White, born 1844;
3. Laura⁹ Frances White, born 1848;
4. Charles Henry⁹ White, born June 22, 1852;
5. Annie⁹ White, born 1858; died in infancy;
6. Adelina Doggett⁹ White "Ida", born 1860;
7. Alice Emma⁹ White, born 1862.

Harriett Frances⁸ White, mother of the above children, died March 10, 1884. The following obituary was published in the Richmond Christian Advocate, soon after her death:

Harriett Frances White, our beloved mother, fell asleep in Jesus March 10, 1884, in the sixty-seventh year of her age after an illness of nine days caused by paralysis. She gave her heart to God in early girlhood and lived a devoted, earnest Christian to the time of her death, bearing her sufferings and cares with perfect resignation, always ready to say 'My Master's will be done.' She was married in the 22nd year of her age to William Henry White, in Mathews County, by Reverend Cyrus B. James, and moved to the city of Baltimore, where they resided sixteen years; from thence to York County, Virginia at which place she calmly and peacefully breathed her last sleep. Dear mother, thou has left us with bleeding hearts; we sorrow not as those who have no hope. Her funeral was preached by our beloved pastor, Reverend S. J. Morris, from Psalm XC; 12, and the following appropriate hymn was read:

'Servant of God, well done; Rest from thy loved employ,
The battle fought, the victory won; Enter thy Master's joy.'

She leaves a devoted husband, one son and four daughters to mourn their loss.

(signed) Her daughter, Ida

1. Ellen⁹ White, first child of William Henry⁸ White and Harriett Frances⁸ White, was born September 26, 1840. Her name is recorded as Eleanor V. S. White and both parentage and date are given in the complete record.⁽⁸⁾ She married first, Charles B. Franklin Ironmonger, June 26, 1858. They had three children:

- (a) Willie¹⁰ Ironmonger, born and died May 10, 1859;
- (b) Lurania Frances¹⁰ Ironmonger, born prematurely January 24, 1860;

Following is a letter written by Robert L.⁹ White to his parents:⁽¹¹⁾

(11) Original, in possession of Mrs. T. C. Forrest, Seaford, Va.

Camp Wynne's Mill, Mar. 29, 1862

Dear Parents —

As the great excitement has occurred, I will write you a few lines to inform you that I am yet safe from the dangers of war, but God only knows how long. The enemy is advancing and we expect an attack tomorrow. We are well fortified and think we will be able to drive back the invader from our soil. If anything should happen to your son, remember that it was done in a good cause. Let me entreat you not to see any uneasiness about me whatever. It will all turn out right in the end if we put our trust in God. Mother, if there is anything at home by which the enemy could tell that you had a son in the army, destroy it, if they come down that way, but don't be excited too quick. Father, be careful and if you do right, they will not trouble you. Don't leave home at any rate. Stay with your family and take care of them. If you get a good chance, send me my money as I expect to (have) a use for it before a great while. I have a good deal to wright (sic), but have not time now as I am on duty. May God bless and save us all is the prayer of

Your devoted son, Robert L. White

White-Cyrus Cary White, son of Absalom and Fannie White was born June 30, 1819 and died June 1, 1909. He married on February 1, 1846 Miss Paulina F. Perkins, who preceded him to their heavenly home by some ten or twelve years.

He leaves four sons and three daughters, Y. J. White, C. F. White, O A. White, T. F. White, Mrs. R. K. Davis, Mrs. C. V. White, and Miss Etta White, to mourn the loss of a Christian father, but they sorrow not as those who have no hope.

Early in life he gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He remained a faithful member of the church of his choice until the day of his death. When he was a very old man, bordering on eighty years and altho' his eyesight was greatly failing him and he was feeble in health, as his pastor I found him regular in attending the services of his church.

For several years before the end came he was confined closely at home and part of the time to the house and his

2. Cora Belle⁹ White, second child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born September 30, 1857. She married Robert T. Trafton, December 15, 1881. They had three children:

(a) Agnes¹⁰ Trafton, born March 5, 1883;

(b) Margaret¹⁰ (Maggie) W. Trafton, born May 16, 1886;

(c) Robert¹⁰ Trafton, Jr., born January 5, 1889.

(a) Agnes¹⁰ Trafton married William D. Robertson, November 14, 1906. They have two children.

(1) C. Trafton¹¹ Robertson, born July 22, 1908; married Siguid Bergman. They have one adopted daughter, Carolyn¹² Robertson, and one son, Richard¹² Robertson, born August, 1945; and

(2) Elizabeth¹¹ Robertson, second child of William D. and Agnes¹⁰ Trafton Robertson, who is called "Libby". She is unmarried. (1960).

(b) Margaret, "Maggie", W.¹⁰ Trafton, married Samuel B. Hutchins, October 21, 1908. They had five children:

(1) Margaret¹¹ Trafton Hutchins; (2) Marion¹¹ Trafton Hutchins; (3) Robert¹¹ Trafton Hutchins; (4) Walter¹¹ Trafton Hutchins; and (5) Samuel B.¹¹ Hutchins, Jr.

Mrs. Margaret (Maggie) W.¹⁰ Trafton Hutchins, mother of the above children, died in 1954.

(1) Margaret¹¹ T. Hutchins married Clyde Shimmer. They have no children.

(2) Marion¹¹ T. Hutchins married Edward Lyle Nussey. They have three children, Edward L.¹² Nussey, Jr., who married Charlotte _____ of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. They have Margaret¹³ Nussey, Robert Lyle¹² Nussey and Richard H.¹² Nussey.

(3) Robert¹¹ T. Hutchins married Mildred Lee of Washington, D. C. They have two children, Robert¹² Trafton Hutchins, Jr., and Paula¹² Lee Hutchins.

(4) Walter¹¹ T. Hutchins married Elizabeth Cromwell. They have two children, Ethel Ann¹² Hutchins and Elizabeth¹² Hutchins.

(5) Samuel B.¹¹ Hutchins, Jr. married Carolyn Moore. They have one daughter, Carol Lynn¹² Hutchins.

(c) Robert¹⁰ Trafton, Jr., third and youngest child of Robert T. Trafton and Cora Belle⁹ White Trafton, married Mary Cairnes Eaver of Norfolk, March 3, 1912. They have two sons:

(1) Robert Thomas¹¹ Trafton, who married Mryna Mehoan and they have one son, Truman¹² Trafton; and

(2) William Bassett¹¹ Trafton, who married Mary K_____ of Florida. They have two children, Mary Donna¹² Trafton, and Linda¹² Trafton.

3. Wesley Franklin⁹ White, Jr., third child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born February 17, 1860. He died in childhood.

4. Susan Collins⁹ White, fourth child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born July 1, 1862. She died unmarried.

5. Sarah Frances⁹ White, fifth child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born April 15, 1864. She died unmarried.

6. Irene⁹ White, sixth child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born May 1, 1867. She married Robert Etheridge and had one son, Robert Thurlow¹⁰ Etheridge. He married Betty Wonycutt, and they had one daughter, Margaret¹¹ Etheridge, who married and has one son.

7. James Wesley⁹ White, seventh child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born August 17, 1871. He married Rosa Skeeter. They lived in Texas. They had two children: Ruth¹⁰ White, who died in infancy, and Margaret¹⁰ White, who married F. Ward Reilley. They have two sons, Ward¹¹ Reilley, Jr. and James¹¹ White Reilley. Both are married and have families.

8. William Elmer⁹ White, eighth and youngest child of Wesley Franklin⁸ White and Margaret Collins White, was born February 29, 1876. He died in infancy.

This completes the present line of descendants of I. Wesley Franklin⁸ White through each of his children. As he was the youngest child of Absalom White and Frances James⁷ White, this brings to a close the tracing of Frances James⁷ White's descendants.

CHAPTER II

CYRUS BASYE JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Cyrus Basye James⁷, second child and first son of Thomas James⁶ and Betsy, his wife, was born August 7, 1786, in what is now Mathews County, Virginia; at that time it was the area of Kingston Parish of Gloucester County.⁽¹⁾

It would be difficult to write even a short biographical sketch of this man without giving something of the founding of the Methodist Church in York County, Virginia. He made an outstanding contribution to this religious movement and certain facts should be recorded here. It will be recalled that Cyrus Basye James⁷ father, Thomas James⁶, was a clerk and lay leader of Kingston Parish, in the Episcopal Church.

At the close of the Revolutionary War adherence by the Colonies to the Established Church of England waned. Separation of church and state followed shortly and freedom of religion was soon thereafter written into the Constitution of the United States. It can be seen that from the standpoint of church affiliations there was a state or condition of disorganization.⁽²⁾ It was in this atmosphere that the societies of Methodism under Francis Asbury, sent from England by John Wesley, were introduced.

In Asbury's Journal may be found the record of his visits to Gloucester County, Virginia, beginning in 1781. He says: "January 3, 1788, crossed the Rappahannock; went to Blakes; came to Brother Billups' in Kingston Parish, Gloucester County. Here we were happy in our religious exercises."⁽³⁾

Dr. D. G. C. Butts, quoting from Asbury's Journal and Bennett's Memorials, said, "Gloucester Circuit shared in the great revival work in 1797 under the preaching of William McKendree, Leroy Cole, and Stith Mead. The year closed with a great Christmas meeting at Mathews Chapel. It was a time of great grace among the Christians." He computed the year's results at 500 converted and 540 added to the Church, besides those who united with other denominations.⁽⁴⁾

(3) Asbury's Journal, 1821 edition.

(4) D. C. Butts, From Saddle to City.

This was during the childhood of Cyrus Basye James⁷. In his diary he recorded his birth-date and added, "and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, August the 20th, 1811. I was married to Mary White the 28th day of February, 1811. Mary White, daughter of Edward and Pembroke White, was born September 13, 1786, and joined the Methodist Church in the year of our Lord 1810."

A paper now in possession of his descendants states: "A short time after his marriage in Mathews County, he and Mary removed to York County, Va., where he was licensed and made local deacon. He built the first Methodist Church that ever was in York and afterwards two others through his own instrumentality."

The deed, dated March 11, 1817, for the land on which the first "Tabernacle" Methodist Church in Poquoson, York County, was built lists the name of Cyrus B. James as one of five trustees.⁽⁵⁾

A deed, dated 29th day of December, 1822, for land in Crab Neck, York County, on which the first Zion Methodist Church was built, also lists Cyrus B. James as one of seven trustees of that church property.⁽⁶⁾

In Sketches and Portraits of the Virginia Conference, Cyrus Basye James is mentioned as "the founder of Methodism in York County."⁽⁷⁾

Cyrus B. James⁷ was a schoolmaster during the 1820s and perhaps later. The following notes are of interest: "The School Commissioners of York County for tuition of poor children entered by Allen Chapman, Esq. school commissioner for the half-year ending 30 October, 1830. In account with Cyrus B. James, Dr. Two children, Elisha and Catherine East, children of Charles East; number of days of actual attendance, 124; price of tuition per day 3¼ cents, each." It was sworn to, before F. B. Power, Justice of Peace, and Allen Chapman, School Commissioner.⁽⁸⁾ A second statement, same date, for poor children entered by Dr. F. B. Power, Commissioner, named Susan and Sarah Chismon, children of Thomas Chismon. The rate of pay was 3¼ cents per day, total bill $9.30. Another report of the school commissioners for poor children's schooling showed: "To cash paid Cyrus B. James, schoolmaster, on the order of A. Chapman, School Commissioner of District No. 4, for tuition of three poor children; per acct. $14.07½. 20 November, 1830." At that point an explanation of the term "Indigent", according to law, was made.

(8) A loose paper of York County Court, Virginia State Library.

There were four pages of the reports of the school commissioners, which also told how the commission was set up to administer the State Literary Fund for the benefit of schooling for indigent children and children of paupers, etc. Four commissioners were present at this meeting, 18 October, 1830, which was presided over by Robert Sheild, President of the Board of Commissioners, the whole number being seven. It was reported that "within the year ending 30 Sept., 1829, there hath been in operation in the County (York) 5 common schools, about 74 children entitled to the benefit of the State Literary Fund, of whom 20 have been educated for different periods during the year."⁽⁹⁾

Cyrus Basye James⁷ bought land in York County at different times. The deed for one tract of land states that "William Holloway of the County of York, etc., sold for $300.00, sixty acres, being in the Islands in the aforesaid County and State, and bounded on the north by a branch of Bennett's Creek; East by the lands of Butts Roberts; South by the land of Hind Holloway; West by the lands of Rooksby Roberts and Daniel Carmines, down to the beginning place, etc.; 20th day of October, 1835. Witnessed by John A. White, Daniel Carmines and Josiah Evans."⁽¹⁰⁾

Among the items of interest that belonged to members of the early family of James and now in possession of descendants is a small, leather-bound diary or memorandum book that belonged to Cyrus Basye James⁷. It is now owned by the daughters of the late Reverend and Mrs. C. Rosser James in Chattanooga, Tennessee. It was the author's good fortune to be able to copy this little book for incorporation into this manuscript.^(11a)

In his diary, Cyrus B. James⁷, in his own handwriting, states:

I was married to Mary White the 28th day of February, 1811, and by her, had the following children:

A. Cyrena⁸ Cooper, daughter of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born January the 20th, 1812 and departed this life Novr. the 10th.

⁽⁹⁾ York County Deed Book 11, pp. 180, 182.

⁽¹⁰⁾ York County Deed Book 12, p. 108.

^(11a) Although the contents of this diary do not add genealogical material, except for a few vital statistics, it is the author's opinion that it deserves to be included for the reasons that it is in the handwriting of Cyrus Basye James and nearly 100 years old; that so rare a family possession should be shared with all members of the "tribe"; that to the hundreds of the family who live in the areas of the lower Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries, where high tides and winds are forever serious, the experiences of the earlier residents as revealed by the diary are very interesting. Besides, its introduction may prove to be an episode of relief from the routine of "who begot whom" in the text.

- B. William⁸, son of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born October the 4th, 1813.
- C. Mary Ann⁸, daughter of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born January the 13th, 1816, and departed this life October the 24th, 1817.
- D. Edward Thomas⁸, son of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born October the 1st, 1817.
- E. Elizabeth Frances⁸, daughter of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born May the 6th, 1821.
- F. Cyrus Wesley⁸, son of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, was born October the 4th, 1823.
- G. Cary⁸, and
- H. Margaret⁸, son and daughter of Cyrus B. James and Mary, his wife, twins, were born October the 2nd, 1825; both of them died the same year.

Cyrus Basye James⁷, local preacher, performed the marriage ceremony for many couples. A list of 28 marriages which were solemnized by him in 1824-1826 and recorded in York County Court records, are signed, "given under my hand this 20th day of November, 1826. (signed) Cyrus B. James."⁽¹¹⁾ These are only a few of the many marriages that he performed.

Having quoted the vital statistics of the immediate family of Cyrus Basye James⁷ from his Diary the balance of the little book is presented, verbatim. It is an account almost entirely of the weather from 1830 to 1864.

Memorandum for 1830; there was the greatest drought in July and August that was ever known here.

There was also as much as five disturbing storms of wind, two of which did a great deal of damage; the last was December the 5th.

In 1831, there was a great storm of wind in April; the 27th, overflowed the land and destroyed a quantity of stock.

December the 4th, a wind at night, freezed, snowed and sleeted all that week so that the creeks were stopped.

1832; we had the coldest spring so that we needed fire until June.

1833; was a wet spell for the month of May and part of June. Kept us two weeks from work.

(11) York County Guardians' Accounts 1823-1846, pp. i, ii.

1834; We had not more than 6 or 8 days fair sun in the month of February and not more than one or two frosts. March was a month with only one hard wind for two days and frozed hard. April the third at night, commenced a storm of wind and lasted until the tide came over the land and the rain fell, until the water was over all the low land the third day at night. In June and July it rained so much that some people never worked their corn for 15 or 20 days and we had the most rain in the month of September that was known in York County.

1835; January we had two days hard freezing; the rest of the month very warm. February it commenced freezing and held on for 12 or 13 days and not more than four days sunshine. March commenced freezing and frozed 5 or 6 days. Sept. had hardly a warm day and frozed the last day, at night. December frozed almost every night.

1836; January the first warm, the last half very cold and the winter continued the hardest that was known since the year of 1780. There was not more than three warm days in March. April continued cold. May the 31st, it rained, the wind came to the Eastward, remained there for about 17 days. The tide came on the land and the sun did not shine for an hour, hardly, for 12 of these days. In August there was not more than two or three sunshine days and September came in warm and the heat was more severe than had ever been known. It commenced freezing early in October and with very little exception, frozed all of the balance of that year until the creeks and rivers were blocked up.

1837; January still tight frozed the 18th, it sleeted the whole earth and trees about a $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick; 14th, it snowed. February 14, there was hail that I measured $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The last week in April frozed hard.

There was little or no rain in May and part of June. A great gust the 19th and 20th of August ruined the young corn and fodder and blew a gale the last of every week for four or five. September commenced dry; for almost three months was scarcely had as much rain as would wet a man in common clothes.

1838, February the 1st day, it was snowing in the morning. Snowed and sleeted 3 or four days and frozed up the creeks. April the 20th was a very snowy day. Frozed hard at night. May the 10th and 11th hard frost. July the 20th was the great heat. The thermometer was up to over 100. The last day of July fell a prodigious fall of rain and it rained but little more until the twelfth day of September when there came on the greatest gust of wind that had almost ever been heard of. Sunday, the 16th, another gust, doing a great deal of damage. All the month not much better, so as to destroy most of the fodder.

1839 was very favorable until August commenced wet. The 15th at night, the greatest flood of rain almost ever saw, and a bad gust of wind, Thursday and Friday, 28th and 29th, the most dreadful gust. November the 29th it commenced; rained until December the 3rd and blowed to the Eastward, a constant gale, until the tide was the highest it had been for 30 years. Dec. the 15th, it commenced blowing to the Northeast and frozed hard; 28th and 29th and 30th, blowed hard to the west; 31st, commenced snowing at twelve o'clock. Snowed a lot.

1840. Snow freezed all the creeks. The snow that fell on New Year's Day was not gone off the ground until sometime in Febr., then it became warm. A great wet spell in July for 15 days.

1841, nothing remarkable until September; the tide was not low for a month; October and November, vastly dry.

1842, the year came in warm for about 50 days. The wind blew from the Southward and Westward and constant low tides the first week in March, said to be the warmest ever known. Commenced raining June the 13th; rained for thirty-odd days, sometimes dreadful. The 24th of August, the great Easterly gust and the wet still continued so that there was hardly two fair days in the whole summer. Little corn made.

1843. January was warm; the 21st and 22nd nearly as warm as August. February 1st, tolerable day. One pleasant day in March; the 21st was the coldest that had been since New Year's Day.

1844, nothing remarkable until the drought commenced on 3rd July and never rained in this neighborhood enough to make the water run until the 11th of September, and then we had a gust. Nothing remarkable but dry weather from July until September and then a gust.

1845 we had more warm weather in the winter than was ever known; a great drought from the first of March until the 17th of April. The 8th of April it freezed hard and the first day of June was a severe frost. December was a severe cold month; but one good day before Christmas.

1846, the winter still hard and the 2nd day of March was such a gust of wind and tide that the oldest person with us never saw before. The water was about six feet above a common tide, and a great quantity of stock lost. A very warm summer and several severe gusts. The last day of October, commenced raining, and the 5th of Novembr, at night, and the 6th a tremendous gust of wind and tide. We had not 24 hours clear sun in 16 days. The 16th of December, a gale from the East and a terrible tide. In the morning of the 17th making at least five bad gusts this year.

1847, the weather was remarkably stormy. In the first of May we had so bad a gale of wind from the Eastward for about 12 days, the result of which was at least five tides that came on the land in succession. We had not more than four hot days in the month, and needed fire all the time. The first half of June, cold and dry. The drought continued until July the 26th, when we had the best rain we'd had since the gust in May and a bad gale of wind that split and tore the corn, and blowed it down, very bad. The first day of August, fell the greatest fall of water it is common to see, and again the 3rd.

1848, very warm January. April the 12th snowed thick. So cold in June we needed a fire, and but one rain in all the month, in this neighborhood to call a season. The drought continued until the last of August. We had to water our stock the whole summer. A smart frost the 18th day of September. November cold and dry. December, the first ten days dry, then a good rain, but still no rain the 22nd. That night was the first frost and the flies were so bad on Christmas day, that they had to be kept off the table.

1849, January and February not more than seven sunshiny days and went out with a North storm. Very little sun in March. 15th of April it freezed hard and a gale of wind from the North and still freezing. The 19th, the cold continued, so as to want fire until June. In July, we had it so cold the first week in July, as to want fire all day. The summer continued cold, with the wind mostly from the North and East, and thousands of people died with the collera (sic) all over the world.

1850 came in, with snow on the ground and for three weeks, hardly a whole sunshiny day and but one frost. The last half of March was very little sunshine, and cold weather all the time and the 28th, a heavy fall of snow, continued cold. The 14th of April, freezed hard and the 17th snowed all day. The first warm day was the 27th. Continued cold. The first day of June had a good fire. 18th of July the great gust from the East, doing great damage to crops. August the 24th, the tornado that tore down Mrs. Hudgins, Holloway and Thomas's houses, killing Mrs. Hudgins' daughter and John Holloway's wife, destroying (my) timber to the amount probably of 500 cord of wood, and nearly all my crop of corn and fodder; then for more than two months we had not rain enough to wet a man in a thick suit of clothes.

1851, a mild winter. None but one freeze to make any ice. The weather warm until April 13; came on a blow from the North. Snowed some and continued cold to the last day of the month and went out with a dreadful storm. Continued a dry summer all over the Eastern and Middle States. December the 15th, commenced a freeze that lasted until the 22nd, and the ice was more than three inches thick.

1852, January and February still cold, so we had the coldest winter we'd had for seven years. The Spring was stormy. Not six warm days until late in the Spring. The greatest wet spell in August. Rained almost every day in many parts of the United States. Destroyed an immensity of property and a quantity of crops. In December we had a very few fair days, but rained almost every other day.

1853, the 3rd day of January we had as great a storm at night as almost was ever seen. The tide was about five feet above a common high water. On the 22nd of February, at night, it rained so much that it overflowed the roads and bridges. The great drought from the 17th of May until the 11th of July, we had very little rain in this place. It commenced raining in sight the first day of July and rained for 39 days and the hottest weather we have had for ever so long.

1854, the winter came in disagreeable. We had a heavy fall of rain every Thursday in January, and every Wednesday in February but the last. The first two weeks in March was so warm that the trees all bloomed out, and the 18th, it commenced freezing, and continued cold the month out. But little better in April, and the 16th we had a bad gust of wind and tide; cold continued. The first day of May, a bad frost. The greatest drought through the summer, from Virginia to the Lakes of Canada, and in many parts of the U. S., there was great suffering for water, and in this County we had but little rain, from the first week in August until the 28th day of October, and many peoples' wells were dry. The drought continued the year out. December came in cold and froze nearly every day until Christmas.

1855, January warm and foggy for the most part and February the coldest month we have had since '51 and '52: The drought continued until March the 5th, commenced raining and continued until the 22nd, then a deep snow, and freezed until April 4th, sometimes hard; and the 5th a heavy fall of water, overflowing the land; 18th and 19th, so warm as to be quite disagreeable. The great drought from the 4th of July until the 17th of August, burning up vegetation. Continued dry until December, and then rainy the most of the month.

1856, came in cold, the wind to the North; snowed a deep snow on the 5th; freezed up the creeks and rivers; continued all the month. The snow to the North was said to be 15 feet deep. Many people frozed to death and great destruction on the Northern Coast, of vessels and lives. February, still freezing; the 4th said to be the coldest day; in all, two large snows and three small ones and the one that fell on the fifth of January is plentiful on the ground while I am writing now on the 9th of February. The cold still continues and March freezed every night but four. Continued the coldest Spring that is common to see. The wind most of the time to the Eastward and we never had a good rain until the ninth of June.

The drought in 1856 was very bad in parts of the County and State, and on the first day of September as severe a storm as almost ever seen here, destroying most of the fodder. The first part of December, cold freezing weather and the 23rd was thought by some to be the coldest day that was ever felt in this County. The creeks and rivers were all blocked up with ice.

1857 came in cold and freezing and the 17th at night, came on a snow storm and continued until the 19th in the night and covered the earth about two feet deep on the level and blew up in banks five and six feet deep; and was thought that Sunday was the coldest day that was ever felt in this climate. The creeks and rivers were blocked up with ice, that wood was hauled across Cheesman's Creek in a tumbler and people walked from Norfolk to Hampton on the ice; and a great many vessels in the Roads, with the hands perishing with cold and hunger and in many parts of the United States a number of people frozed to death and the ship-wrecks on the coast was awful to relate. The papers state that the snow-banks extended seven hundred miles from N.E. to S.W. and from two to three hundred miles in width from five to ten feet deep, and there is plenty here now while I am writing, February the 16th.

February was a warmer month. March, freezing nearly all the month and in April, not a warm day; and May still cold, and the 13th, a large frost. For four weeks in July and August we had not a fair, sunshiny day, and rain in nearly every day, and we had but four hot days in the whole summer. There was only three days of Southerly wind from the first of September to the 15th of October, blowing from the Eastward all the time, and a dreadful gust on the 11th and 12th of September.

The great money panic in all the states and hundreds of merchants and banks broke up.

1858, January hardly frozed the ground any, and February the 12th we had the first snow and continued to snow almost every week. About the 10th of March, it freezed up the creeks. Some snow on the ground March the 15th. A strange Fall. We had not rain enough from the middle of August to the last week in October to wet a man; and in the month of September not more than three days of Southerly wind.

1859, was the mildest winter we have ever seen; even very little frost and rain every week; sometimes a great deal and continues until now, the last of March and very seldom a fair, sunshiney day for five months. The wind continued mostly to the Eastward, and rained every week until the last week in May, and now, the middle of September, and very few warm days during the whole summer, and my paper speaks of a killing frost in Randolph County, Virginia on the 5th of this month, and frost and even ice made in some of the northern states during the great display of Aurora Borealis two months ago.

1860, a very strange year. Not a hard winter. The Spring, the most of the time the wind to the Eastward. Not more than five or six warm days in the three months and in June we had fire until the last week which was very warm. 1860, a strange year: The wind to the Eastward nearly all the time; very little rain in this County since May, until the 19th of October, when we had a severe gust of wind and a good rain, and the papers give awful accounts of the Drought in many parts of the Country. In Texas they are buying water to live on, and I read from Kansas yesterday, nearly a Famine. December the coldest month, probably, we have ever seen here, freezing every night.

1861, a mild winter. March came in warm but on the 15th we had a heavy fall of snow and again on the 19th a heavy snow storm, and freezed up the creeks at night. The cold still continues, with Eastwardly winds, and the wettest time said ever to be known in this County. Nothing remarkable during the summer but awful war, the consequences of which were dreadful. The year went out with the mildest December we most ever saw.

1862, the war still continues and the most awful consequences. More than two hundred thousand soldiers landed in this County in April and spread destruction and desolation through the country, burning almost all the fences and killing large quantities of stock, and the fowls, all over the country; and many hundred of thousands of men killed on both sides, besides vast numbers that died in Hospitals, and it is no better yet, November 22nd. On the 7th of this month we had a severe snow storm, said in the papers the greatest known so soon, by the oldest inhabitants.

Skirmishes	310
Battles	228
Not over	81, Total 619

1863, January we had hardly a frost. The 4th day of April we had as great a fall of snow as is common to see in this climate. The war continues to rage May the 13th.

1864, a strange year: In January and February very little freezing. March, the same until the 22nd; the first big rain since last summer, and a heavy snow storm and a severe gust wind and tide for 12 or 13 days and not a whole, sunshiney day in April until the 22nd."

The following birth records and a final note or "Household Hinte" complete the little Diary:

Cyrus Basye James⁷ died December 30, 1865. The following obituary appeared in the Methodist Christian Advocate:⁽¹²⁾

Died most triumphantly December 30, 1865 in York County, Va., Rev. Cyrus B. James, in the 79 th year of his age, at the residence of his son-in-law Samuel D. Ironmonger. Brother Cyrus James was born in Mathews County, Va. A short time after his marriage in said County, he removed to York County, Va., when he was licensed and made local deacon. Brother James joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, August 20, 1811 and was a faithful instrument in the church of God; he was one numbered amongst the most hospitable in the entertainment of traveling preachers. (The itinerancy at large). He built the first Methodist Church that ever was in York, and afterwards two others through his own instrumentality. Brother James was also made, by his friends, a member of the Bible Society, April 11th, 1846. All persons who knew Brother James loved him, and those who knew him best loved him most. He was truly the light of his domestic altar, and around his tender heart clustered the holiest affections and there they burned with an undying flame 'till the lamp of life expired.'

All of his friends sincerely tender their condolence and sympathy to the bereaved family, and especially to his wife Mary James. May God bind up the bleeding heart and sanctify the affliction to the spiritual benefit of her soul in this life and the life to come, are the prayers of all who remain in sympathy with her. He was buried in the Ironmonger Family Burying Ground in Crab Neck.

After the death of Cyrus B. James⁷, his widow, Mary White James, continued to make her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Samuel D. Ironmonger and Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger, in Crab Neck, now the town of Seaford, until her death in January, 1873, in her eighty-seventh year.⁽¹³⁾

A. Cyrena Cooper James⁸, first child of Cyrus B. James⁷ and Mary White James was born January 20, 1812 and died November 10, 1812.

B. William James⁸, second child of Cyrus Basye James⁷ and Mary White James, was born October 4, 1813. He married his cousin Martha James⁸, daughter of Thomas Degge Davis James⁷. Martha James⁸ was born in 1821. They had nine children, as follows:

1. George A. James⁹, born 1840;
2. Mary James⁹;
3. Martha James⁹;
4. William T. James⁹, born 1849;
5. Emma J. James⁹, born 1853;
6. Rebecca James⁹, (called "Pinkie");
7. Emma Jane James⁹, born 1856;
8. Georgie James⁹, born 1857;
9. Virginia James⁹, born 1860.

Mrs. Martha (James⁸) James, mother of the above children died December 9, 1881. William James⁸, father of the above children, died July 9, 1861, aged 49 years.⁽¹⁴⁾ He was a boat builder.

The following well preserved clipping from a church paper was pasted in his sister's Family Bible in 1861.⁽¹⁵⁾

Brother William James, son of Rev. Cyrus James of York County, Va., departed this life in the full triumphs of the faith of Jesus, July 9, 1861. He was born in York County, October 4, 1813. He was early indoctrinated into the peculiar spiritual teachings of Methodism by his pious parents. At a very early age, while but a boy, he embraced religion and joined the church. About twelve years ago he moved to this County (Mathews). For many years he was an efficient and devoted class-leader, a bright and shining light in the Church of God. He had professed to enjoy the great blessing of sanctification, how long I am not informed; he remarked to me in his affliction that he enjoyed it fully without a doubt or a cloud to obscure his spiritual sky. His sufferings were very great and protracted for about three months but in all he patiently suffered without a murmur. One of his neighbors remarked to me at his funeral, 'Sir, Mr. James was the best man and the best neighbor I ever knew.' This was the testimony of all his associates in the Church, and in the community in which he lived and died. He has left a 'name as precious as ointment poured forth.' He leaves a bereaved and disconsolate widow and seven children to mourn, but not as those without hope.—'Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.'

1. George A. James⁹, first child of William James⁸ and Martha (James⁸) James was born in 1840; died May 30, 1854; aged 13 years, 9 months. He is buried in the Thomas James⁶ family cemetery.⁽¹⁶⁾

2. Mary James⁹, second child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, lived to adulthood. She never married.

3. Martha James⁹, third child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, also lived to adulthood and never married.

4. William T. James⁹, fourth child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, was born in 1849. He died June 9, 1884, aged 35 years.⁽¹⁷⁾ He never married, but maintained the home for his six sisters after his father's death.

A eulogy, written just after his death and kept by his aunt and her descendants, gives an insight into the life of this man.⁽¹⁸⁾

Died at his residence, Mathews County, Va., in the thirty-sixth year of his age, after a painful illness of over five months, on the 9th ultimo, William T. James.

During his long confinement, no murmur of complaint escaped his lips. A large circle of friends and relatives mourn his departure. The church, Sunday School and community sustain a loss which will be felt for years.

Twenty-three years ago his saintly father went to his heavenly home, leaving in his care a mother and six sisters.

Three years ago the mother was gathered home. 'Brother', as the sisters all called him, true to his trust, remained at the old homestead, devoting his best energies to the comfort and welfare of his sisters. The Bethany family, so much loved by Jesus, was not more devoted to the Master, and to each other, than William James and sisters. No one could look in upon this happy, devoted family of orphans on North River without thinking of Bethany, Jesus, Martha, Mary and Lazurus.

With matchless vigilance, for more than five months of unceasing anxiety and importunate prayer, these devoted sisters hung around the chamber and bedside of their only brother, responding quietly to every indication of want. The time of his promotion to crown, robe, harp, sceptre and mansion in heaven had come, and prayer and importunity could not prevail.

Brother James leaves a remarkable record—a rich legacy to his kindred, neighbors, Sunday School and Church. On good authority we can say he was never known to utter a profane word, tell a falsehood, or keep bad company. He was always kind, both at home and abroad. Obeyed his parents always, and in all things. Noble example: 'His delight was in the law of the Lord.'

In 1868 or thereabout, under the ministry of Rev. F. M. Edwards, he was happily converted, and at once united himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, where he remained a faithful, consistent, and exemplary member until his transfer to the Church triumphant in heaven.

Some ten or twelve days before his death, when he had despaired of recovery, we asked him if his way was clear. With an expression of countenance which will be impressive as long as memory lasts, and a voice as firm and confident as St. Paul's when he said, 'I have fought the good fight, kept the faith, etc.,' he answered, 'I have not a single doubt—all is clear, my account is fixed—through Jesus I have the victory.' Later he said: 'My father asked me twenty-three years ago to meet him in heaven; I promised, by the grace of God to do so; I have never forgotten that promise; through riches of grace I will soon make it good.' Resting awhile, he resumed: 'I love my sisters; they love and will miss me, but my Master calls; one by one my father's house are joining him on the other shore; I leave my sisters in God's care; go on a little before them; they, thank God, are in the heavenly march; will join me after awhile.'

He lingered, in most intense pain, 'in patience possessing his soul,' until the 9th ultimo, and then the Master said: 'It is enough, come up higher.'

It was not our privilege to witness his departure but others who did say he retained the right use of his mind to the last moment, speaking with remarkable distinctness and firmness for one who had been sick so long. Just before his departure, surrounded by enrapturing visions, he exclaimed: 'Heaven is here; Father and Mother, with angels from Heaven have come; Heaven is all around me; open the doors and throw up the windows and let Heaven and its glory in.' How suggestive of those beautiful lines of Young, 'The chamber where the good man meets his fate is privileged beyond the common walk of virtuous life, quite on the verge of heaven.'

Happy exit, happy brother! Commissioned by Almighty God, his sainted father and mother, with an 'Angel Band' came from the eternal heavens to loose his fastenings here, doff his earthly attire, don his ascension robes, and waft him on their golden pinions to Abraham's bosom. 'How blessed the righteous when he dies.'

Our brother has left us. We miss him in the community, in the church, in his several official relations thereto, and in the Sunday School; but, oh, how much more is he missed by his sisters at home. In everything and everywhere they miss him. We tender our heartfelt sympathy and pray God to help them say: 'Thy will be done.' And 'We would not call our brother back to this dark world of pain, We would not have him taste earth's pangs, its bitterness again; We would not call him from that blest home which God has given; For pain and sorrow ne'er shall enter yon bright heaven.'

7. Emma Jane James⁹, seventh child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, was born August 11, 1856 and was named for the infant sister who died at nine months of age, in 1854. She married George W. White, March 8, 1877. He was born October 11, 1842 and died May 4, 1911. He was the son of William B. and Elizabeth White.⁽²¹⁾

Emma Jane James⁹ White and George W. White had one son, E. Royall¹⁰ White, born December 14, 1877.

Mrs. Emma Jane James⁹ White died July 6, 1902 and was buried in the Thomas James⁶ family cemetery, Mathews County, Virginia.⁽²²⁾

E. Royall White¹⁰, only son of George W. White and Emma Jane James⁹ White, married Florence Hodges of Mathews County, May 22, 1907. They had two children: George Madison¹¹ White and Margaret¹¹ White.

George Madison¹¹ White married Ellen Grinnelle, January 10, 1933 and they have one daughter, Mary Rose¹² White, born May 20, 1939.

Margaret¹¹ White married Clarence M. Dutton, December 5, 1933. They have no children.

8. Georgie James⁹, eighth child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, was born July 31, 1857. She married William Henry White, December 23, 1886. He was brother to George W. White who married Georgie's sister, Emma Jane.

They had three children:⁽²³⁾

- (a) William James¹⁰ White, born November 9, 1887;
- (b) Martha Elizabeth¹⁰ White, born June 1, 1889;
- (c) Robert Rosser¹⁰ White, born October 7, 1891.

Mrs. Georgie James⁹ White, mother of the above children, died March, 1902.

(a) William James¹⁰ White married Olive Walthal of South Boston, Virginia, and they had Dorothy¹¹, who died in infancy, and Barbara Anne¹¹ White, who is married and living, in 1960. William James¹⁰ White died August 30, 1949.

(b) Martha Elizabeth¹⁰ White married Clarence Raines, June 25, 1911. They had Georgia Virginia¹¹ Raines who died April 4, 1937, and William Lewis¹¹ Raines, unmarried.

(c) Robert Rosser¹⁰ White married Laura Strickland of North Carolina. They have one daughter, Rebecca¹¹ White who married a Mr. Smith.

9. Virginia James⁹, ninth and youngest child of William James⁸ and Martha James⁸, was born March 19, 1860 and died September 3, 1935. She never married.

Thus ends the account of Cyrus Basye James⁷' descendants through his second child, William James⁸.

C. Mary Ann James⁸, third child of Cyrus Basye James⁷ and Mary White James, was born January 13, 1816 and died October 24, 1817.

D. Edward Thomas James⁸, fourth child of Cyrus Basye James⁷ and Mary White James, was born October 1, 1817. He died unmarried.

E. Elizabeth Frances James⁸, fifth child of Cyrus Basye James⁷ and Mary White James, was born May 6, 1821 in Poquoson, York County, Va. She married Samuel D. Ironmonger of York County, November 15, 1838. They had eleven children:

1. Mary Emily⁹ Ironmonger, born October 1, 1839;
2. Lemuel Manning⁹ Ironmonger, born September 29, 1841;
3. William Wesley⁹ Ironmonger, born October 4, 1843;
4. Alice Frances⁹ Ironmonger, born October 31, 1845;
5. Elvira Elizabeth⁹ Ironmonger, born November 7, 1847;

10. Cornelius Esau⁹ Ironmonger, born November 3, 1859;
11. James Jacob⁹ Ironmonger, born November 3, 1859.

It was written of Mrs. Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger that she was an active Sunday-school teacher for many years. "When the Woman's Missionary Society was organized at Zion Methodist Church, Crab Neck, she was made President, which place she filled with untiring devotion." She died at her home in Crab Neck, January 19, 1896 and was buried in Zion Church Cemetery.⁽²⁴⁾

Samuel D. Ironmonger, husband of Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger, died April 14, 1900 at his residence in Crab Neck, York County, after a long and happy married life of fifty-eight years.

(24) Obituary, published in Richmond Christian Advocate.

It was written of them, "Perhaps no married couple ever lived more agreeably or happily together."⁽²⁵⁾

An account of their long line of descendants follows:

1. Mary Emily⁹ Ironmonger, first child of Samuel D. Ironmonger and Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger, born October 1, 1839, married Frederick P. Crockett, Christmas, 1855. To them six children were born:

- (a) Eliza¹⁰ Crockett, born September 17, 1859;
- (b) Eudevilla¹⁰ Crockett, died in infancy;
- (c) Beauregard¹⁰ Crockett, died in infancy;
- (d) Alice¹⁰ Crockett, born 1863;
- (e) Elizabeth¹⁰ Crockett, known as Betty, born September 12, 1865;
- (f) Nora¹⁰ Crockett, born July 26, 1867.

Mrs. Mary Emily⁹ Ironmonger Crockett died November 1, 1885. "She was converted to God under the ministry of Rev. George W. Trimyer, and had been a member of Zion Church, York Circuit, about thirty-five years. Her life for several years prior to death was one of great suffering, which caused her family and friends real solicitude and anxiety; who were untiring in their tender and affectionate administrations to her afflictions.

The loved ones left behind look forward to the time of blessed reunion in that sun-bright clime where tears are never shed and separation is unknown."⁽²⁶⁾

4. Alice Frances⁹ Ironmonger, fourth child of Samuel D. Ironmonger and Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger, was born October 31, 1845. She died May 31, 1862; unmarried.

The following letter was found among her mementos after her death; she had written it to a friend "at the front" but had not had the opportunity to send it:

"Dear Johny — It is with a trembling hand and an aching heart that I try to drop you a few lines to inform you that I am well in health, but not in mind, but I hope this may find you well. I heard that you were sick at home. I was sorry to hear that you were sick, but glad to hear you were sick at home. I hope that you have gotten better. Oh, you do not know how glad I would be to see you. I would rather see you than anyone else in the world. If I could see one Southern soldier, it would do me good. Johny, you must pray to the Lord for peace. He is the only one that can give us liberty. He is our only Guide. He has promised to be with us in the sixth trouble, and in the seventh, not far off. If you were to come down this way you would not know the place. Everything is destroyed but our houses. Fields laid waste, woods cleared down, gardens torn to pieces, and everything desolate. Would that I were a soldier; I would fight until I died I would die for my country. I have never known what war was before, but I know now. I have seen enough.

I have not time to write more. You must write the first chance. No more at present but remain, Your beloved friend (signed Alice F. Ironmonger.

Excuse mistakes and bad writing."

- (5) Thomas E.¹¹ Sparrer, born September 7, 1906.

Edna Estelle¹⁰ Teagle Sparrer died September 14, 1906.

The following tribute was written by a schoolmate:⁽³¹⁾

Estelle was a cultured Christian, a true type of 'Old Virginia.' Her impress is made on the generation; her memory is lovingly cherished. She realized, in a beautiful way, the ideal woman as set forth in the words of King Lemuel in the prophecy taught him by his mother: 'Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised.' She sleeps sweetly and peacefully in Jesus. Her body failed, and the spirit took its flight to the God who gave it. Her children say: 'Our mother is gone; her voice is hushed, yet, she speaketh to us; though in heaven, she is still Mother. We mourn her because we are deprived of her presence, her motherly advice, and because the home, once so happy and bright, is robbed of its center of attraction. Our consolation is that her new home is best and what is our loss is her gain. While the home is broken up, neither her influence nor her prayers will be forgotten.'

James Jacob⁹ Ironmonger died February 26, 1946. His wife, Sarah Sparrer Ironmonger, died December 6, 1946.

This completes the record of the present descendants of Elizabeth F. James⁸ Ironmonger, daughter of Cyrus Basye James⁷, through each of her eleven children.

F. Cyrus Wesley James⁸, fifth child of Cyrus Basye James⁷, was born October 4, 1823. He married his cousin, Harriet Ann James,⁸ daughter of Cary James⁷ and Ann Custis Ironmonger James, October 16, 1848. She was born January 15, 1834. They had three children:

1. Anne James,⁹ died in infancy;
2. Victoria James⁹, born May, 1853;
3. Cyrus Rosser James⁹, born November 18, 1855.

Cyrus Wesley James⁸ established a home about five miles below Yorktown on the edge of the Crab Neck community. He was a farmer, boat builder and timber dealer. He was a trustee of the Zion Methodist Church in Crab Neck and, on March 17, 1866, was named to the committee to rebuild Zion Church, the first building having been destroyed by the Union Army during the Civil War. He died between this date and June 7, 1867, as his death was recorded then at his church Quarterly Conference, and his brother-in-law was appointed a church trustee to fill the vacancy caused by his death.⁽³⁴⁾

Resolutions of love and respect from the "Sunday School Society of Zion Church in the York Circuit" told of his having been a "de-

2. Victoria James⁹ married Robert Dawson in May, 1869. She died November 10, 1892, leaving one daughter:

(a) Annie Crooks¹⁰ Dawson, born April 7, 1870. She married Joseph Williamson, June 22, 1893. They had four children:

(1) Paul¹¹ Williamson, born April 23, 1894; died April 26, 1894.

(2) Lula O.¹¹ Williamson, born April 17, 1896 married Roland Bush Anderton, March 31, 1923. They have one son, Roland Bush¹² Anderton, Jr.

(3) Harry W.¹¹ Williamson, born August 29, 1897, married Omelia Hobbs, June 1933. They have no children.

(4) Bruce B.¹¹ Williamson, born October 30, 1899, married Anna M. Mullen, July 22, 1933. They have two sons, Bruce B.¹² Williamson, Jr., born March 3, 1935, and James M.¹² Williamson, born September 23, 1947.

Mrs. Annie Crooks¹⁰ Dawson Williamson died March 2, 1920.

3. Cyrus Rosser James⁹, third child of Cyrus Wesley James⁸ and Ann James⁹ James, was born November 18, 1855. The following article gives some of the circumstances of his life.⁽³⁵⁾ It was titled: "Rev. Cyrus Rosser James, As A Son Knew Him."

Cyrus Rosser James was six years of age when General McClellan and his aides galloped up to the door of his home, five miles below Yorktown, to see if the house was in the line of fire in his advance toward Yorktown. Union soldiers had advanced over the farm and stripped it bare, reducing the family to poverty. He remembered his mother's conversation with General McClellan, and her request for a guard to protect the remaining property, which the General immediately provided. He remembered the thrilling, nearby scenes of the Peninsula campaign and many kindly personal acts of the invaders, with a number of whom he kept up a correspondence throughout their lives.

(35) From the Richmond Christian Advocate September 23, 1937, written by his son, Arthur W. James, at that time Commissioner of Public Welfare of Virginia.

Cut off from school, his education devolved in his early years on his mother, Ann James, whom he often likened to Susanna Wesley. Later he attended private and public schools. At an early age he knew the Bible, Shakespeare, Moore, and a History of Methodism, almost by heart. An omnivorous reader, with a memory that often functioned photographically, his knowledge, though full of gaps, particularly in the sciences, was amazing.

It was only two years after the war when his father, Cyrus Wesley James, came to a tragic end, leaving young Rosser the head of the family and sole support of his mother and young sister.

Hitching a young steer, the only head of livestock left, to the plow, he manfully began the struggle of restoring the once prosperous farm to production. A crop of corn, potatoes to Baltimore, cordwood to the river barges, vegetables and fruit for the winter, fences rebuilt, another steer, and soon a horse, the first after the war—and a good fox-hunter he selected—and the first victory was won, and by one so young!

But Ann James knew that all work and no play wasn't good for her active and precocious son. The crops harvested, he was often away with the fox hounds, an excellent horseman, riding with the best. Frequently he was on the river, and happy at the tiller in a piping breeze. An excellent marksman, he preferred the rifle, disdaining the shot-gun for everything but birds on the wing. He knew and loved the woods and studied the stars all his life. He was something of a Burbank in the garden.

At nineteen he passed the examination for a public school teacher's license with high honors and was given a school. An older generation of York County men and women often testify to his ability in parsing a sentence, or working a hard example, as well as in wielding a hickory switch. Romantic, too, he married one of his pupils, Annie Elwood Shield,⁽³⁶⁾ right out of the classroom.

The marriage of Cyrus Rosser James⁹ and Annie Elwood Shield took place February 11, 1883. Nine children were born to them:

(36) In this family, descendants of Delight Shield and Elizabeth Custis Shield, his wife, of Accomack County, Virginia, the spelling has always been Shield. In another, in York County, it has always been Sheild, as in the family of Judge Conway H. Sheild, Jr., who is related to the Thomas James⁶ family by marriage, infra, p. 180.

- (a) Clara Elverta James¹⁰, born December 31, 1883;
- (b) Alfred Procter James¹⁰, born February 7, 1886;
- (c) Annie Esther James¹⁰, born December 15, 1887;
- (d) Arthur Wilson James¹⁰, born October 8, 1889;
- (e) Lillie Pearl James¹⁰, born July 6, 1891;
- (f) Benjamin Rosser James¹⁰, born July 29, 1894;
- (g) Nellie May James¹⁰, born September 25, 1896;
- (h) Harriet Leah James¹⁰, born July 29, 1904;
- (i) Ruth Constance James¹⁰, born October 5, 1906.

But Cyrus Rosser James was predestined to the Methodist ministry. His grandfather, Reverend Cyrus Basye James, son of an Episcopalian, Thomas James, long-time Clerk of Kingston Parish in Gloucester and Mathews, was an early convert to the Wesleyan movement and, as a pioneer preacher, became a 'founder of Methodism in Eastern Virginia'. Preconditioned by his mother, and unmistakably 'called of God,' he stood his examinations with distinction and was admitted to the Virginia Conference in 1888. His examiners reported he had a profound knowledge of theology and Methodism.

Beginning his ministry in Buckingham, at the old Buckingham Female Institute, for thirty-nine years he filled large country churches, successively in Mecklenburg, Northumberland, Lancaster, Northampton, Albemarle, Bedford, Campbell, Mecklenburg again, Appomattox and Nottoway, with the exception of one year, 1907, when he was in Petersburg. In all of these communities he is remembered as an able and eloquent sermonizer, a builder-up of church property, and an ardent advocate of temperance. Older parishioners often speak of his superb voice, his love of debate, his great store of general information, his varied interests, great physical strength and boundless energy.

Though his work was always heavy, he never lost his love of gardening and farming. His belief in a college education, which the Civil War denied him, is attested by one Ph. D., two M. A. and five B. A. degrees which he saw his children win.

Though untravelled, he knew the world intimately, being able to locate readily cities, rivers, capitals, mountain ranges, lakes and boundaries in every country. He was a veritable library of military history. When Freeman's R. E. Lee was read to him, his reading sight having failed several years before his final illness, he anticipated and supplemented to such an extent it was difficult to keep him on the text.

Had his instruction been formal, or his vast knowledge been better organized; or had he been less modest and sensitive, or more of a showman or politician, he should have risen to higher rank. He preferred to believe the office should seek the man and he was willing to leave his appointments to the Lord and the Bishop's Council. Although the latter did little for him he was not dissatisfied with his record, and he thanked God for his goodness.

Suffering a stroke of angina pectoris in the fall of 1927, he retired at the Danville Conference of that year, moving from his last charge, at Burkeville, to Richmond. His health was comparatively good for several years and, occasionally, he occupied Richmond pulpits. He attended the churches of other denominations and enjoyed their services. He visited old familiar places, renewed old friendships and made new ones. Unable in his later years to read, he kept well posted by use of the radio. He was proud of and happy with his family.

In his eightieth year he was stricken by a disease which he could not resist. Though his body was ravaged he never complained. Just before the end a moment of consciousness returned and mother leaned over him to hear him whisper, "That Land Over There—tell me those words." Shortly thereafter, in the evening of Monday, August 23, 1937, three months short of his eighty-second birthday, he went, survived by his wife, six daughters, three sons and seventeen grandchildren. Great had been his vitality and strong his will through the years.

(a) Clara Elverta James¹⁰, first child of Cyrus Rosser James⁹ and Annie Shield James, born December 31, 1883, married Golden May Carruthers of Accomac, December 24, 1926. They have one son, Cyrus Robert¹¹ Carruthers, born January 16, 1928, who married Frances Audrey Cassada.

CHAPTER III

ELIZABETH HUNLEY JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Elizabeth Hunley James⁷, third child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife Betsy James, was born January 2, 1788, in Kingston Parish, Gloucester County, Virginia.⁽¹⁾ She married Christopher Davis, son of Thomas Davis and Lucretia Lewis Davis, also of Kingston Parish. He was born June 1, 1783.⁽¹⁾ They had five children:

- A. Paulina Frances⁸ Davis, born April 24, 1815;
- B. Elizabeth Burgess⁸ Davis, born April 22, 1817;
- C. James Marshall⁸ Davis, born February 14, 1820;
- D. Christopher⁸ Davis, born April 15, 1825;
- E. Martha Ann Jackson⁸ Davis, born October 5, 1827.⁽²⁾

The death date of Elizabeth H. James⁷ Davis is not known, but she was living in 1855 when her husband made his will.⁽³⁾ He died early in 1856. Following is his will:

I, Christopher Davis of the County of York and State of Virginia, being strong in body and sound in mind and memory do ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following, to-wit:

Item 1st, I lend unto my beloved wife Elizabeth, all my property as long as she remains my widow, and if she should marry, then I lend her one third as long as she lives, and at her death the part that was loaned to her, is to return to my children, Marshall and Martha Ann, and my granddaughter, Sarah E. Dawson, to be equally divided, to them and their heirs forever.

Item 2nd,—I give to my son Marshall one third of all my personal property in my estate after the death of my wife Elizabeth, and one half of my plantation to him and his heirs forever, and also, my son is to have the half that the house stands on.

Item 3rd,—I give to my daughter one third of my personal property in my estate after the death of my wife Elizabeth, to her and her heirs forever. I also give her one half of my plantation, to her and her heirs forever. If my wife should marry I wish the two thirds of my property to be equally divided with my children and granddaughter as above stated.

Item 4th,—I lend to my granddaughter Sarah E. Dawson during her life and give to her heirs lawfully begotten of her body forever the half of one third of my personal property, after the death of my wife Elizabeth, and should she, Sarah E. Dawson, die without such heirs for her said part to be equally divided between my two children Marshall and Martha.

Item 5th,—I also appoint my son Marshall guardian for my granddaughter Sarah E. Dawson, to keep in his hands the property that I have given her until she shall arrive at the age of 21, or shall marry; and the other half of one third of my personal property to be equally divided between my children Marshall and Martha Ann.

Item 6th,—My will is, at the division of my estate, that my boay (sic) bill* that I loaned to Marshall shall come into my estate and be equally divided with my personal property as above stated, with the exception of one third of said bill or valuation of said bill, which third I give to my son Marshall.

Item 7th,—Should my son Marshall contend that bill belongs to him, I then give to Martha Ann a negro girl, Mariah.^x

Lastly I desire this to be my last will and testament, as given under my hand and seal this 21st day of Decem. 1855.

A. Paulina Frances⁸ Davis, first child of Christopher Davis and Elizabeth H. James⁷ Davis, was born April 24, 1815. She married Thomas Dawson and had one child:⁽⁴⁾

* Presumably a Negro boy named Bill.

x. Among the slaves belonging to this family was a strongly built Negro named Aaron, who had a feeling of responsibility for his master's family. When James Marshall Davis left his home to enter the Confederate Army, Aaron was loyal to the family, protecting the women and children and working the plantation to provide for them. Even after the emancipation of the slaves, he remained with the Davis family. For his loyalty he was given a small tract of land from the Davis property which has been called "Aaron's Lot" to the present time.

CHAPTER IV

PAULINA JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Paulina James⁷, fourth child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife Betsy James, was born October 27, 1790.⁽¹⁾ She married, first, Bartlett White. He was born October 14, 1788.⁽¹⁾ They had six children:⁽²⁾

- A. William Henry⁸ White, born May 24, 1816;
- B. Thomas Bartlett⁸ White, born July 4, 1818;
- C. Cyrene Wesley⁸ White, born September 24, 1820;
- D. Cary Washington⁸ White, born August 11, 18—;
- E. Cyrus James⁸ White, born August 11, 18—;
- F. Absalom⁸ White.

Bartlett White, father of the above children, died and Mrs. Paulina James⁷ White married, secondly, Robert Gayle. The date is not given but the marriage is recorded in an old Gayle Bible; the record pages have been photostated and placed in the Virginia State Library, Richmond. Five children were born to them:

- G. Edward⁸ Gayle, born in 1827;
- H. Robert Johnson⁸ Gayle, born in 1828;
- I. Elizabeth Frances⁸ Gayle, born in 1830;^(2b)
- J. Rosannah Jackson⁸ Gayle, born January 20, 1832;
- K. Levin⁸ Gayle.

Robert Gayle, father of the above children, was born July 10, 1769. He died about 1838. In 1839 Robert Gayle's name disappears from the tax lists but the name "Pelina Gayle", unmistakably Paulina James White Gayle, appears with the same number of slaves.⁽³⁾

The following letter from Paulina James⁷ Gayle was copied some years ago by her grandson with the notation: "Copy of the letter written by Paulina James Gayle to her daughter and family, Mrs. John Leonard Blades, whom she had just visited at Baltimore. At that time this writer, Robert Blades, was 6 years old. I clearly remember holding skeins of yarn on my outstretched hands as she wound it into balls. Fannie Blades was then 3½, and Mary Blades was an infant. Sister Elizabeth James Blades, Mrs. Louis R. Barker of New York, was then 15 years old.”

York Ct (County) Aug. 4, 1871

My dear children: I take my pen to write you a few lines. I hope it will come safe to hand. I want to hear from you all so bad. O, how I want to see all the little ones. How I long to see sweet little Mary Virginia. O, how I want the time to come when I hope we shall be an undivided family in our Father's house in Heaven.

‘There is my house and portion fair,
My treasure and my heart is there,
And my abiding home.’

Oh my dear friends and children, meet me there. Am very feeble, but generally get around. Frances, give my love to all my old friends. Tell them I hope I shall see them all in my Father's house in Heaven.

Frances, write soon and give me all the news. Remember me to my brother who came to see me from Washington Street Church. All join me in love to all. I enclose a letter for you to envelope and send to Cary. Farewell until we meet on Canaan's happy shore. P.G.

A. William Henry⁸ White, first child of Bartlett White and Paulina James⁷ White, born May 24,, 1816, married his cousin, Harriett Frances⁸ White, daughter of Absalom White and Frances James⁸ White, (Chapter 1) December 28, 1839. They moved to Baltimore, Maryland. They had seven children:

(c) John Borum¹⁰ Diggs, third child of Charles Henry⁹ Diggs and Ella⁹ Enos Diggs, born July 20, 1884, married Daisy Watson Diggs, December 29, 1908. They had one daughter, (1) Mary Evangeline¹¹ Diggs, born June 16, 1910. She married Wendall Howard Sparrer, April 7, 1928; they have two children:

(aa) Hazel Evangeline¹² Sparrer, born November 15, 1932, married Allen Fox, June 23, 1950, and they have three children:

Linda¹³ Fox, born December 11, 1952; Merilee¹³ Fox, born September 11, 1954; and Timothy¹³ Fox, born July 14, 1957.

(bb) Wendall Bernard¹² Sparrer, born November 8, 1944.

John Borum¹⁰ Diggs died March 7, 1959 and was buried in Pear Tree Cemetery, Mathews County.

The next four children of Benjamin Diggs and Cyrene Wesley⁸ White Diggs left no descendants. They were:

5. John Richard⁹ Diggs, born December 11, 1848; died May 9, 1855.

6. Cyreneous Wesley⁹ Diggs, born June 30, 1851; died August 2, 1852.

7. Paulina Jane⁹ Diggs, born March 14, 1854; lived to maturity but never married.

8. Julia Frances⁹ Diggs, born March 4, 1857, died of typhoid fever in childhood.

9. Rosannah Whitfield⁹ Diggs, ninth child of Benjamin Diggs and Cyrene Wesley⁸ White Diggs, born March 21, 1859, married Walter Forrest. They had four daughters:

(a) Marion Estelle¹⁰ Forrest, died when five years old; (b) Clara¹⁰ Forrest, unmarried (1961); (c) Nora¹⁰ Forrest; (d) Mary¹⁰ Forrest.

Mrs. Rosannah Whitfield⁹ Diggs Forrest taught the Ladies' Bible Class in St. Paul's Methodist Church School, Mathews, for fifty years. At a public ceremony a pulpit chair was dedicated in memory of her service. She died November, 1938.

(c) Nora¹⁰ Forrest married, first, Soloman Steed Keeling. She married secondly, John W. Moss. By the first marriage she had one son, Solomon Steed¹¹ Keeling, Jr. There were no children of the second marriage. Solomon Steed¹¹ Keeling, Jr. married, first, Edith Henry. They had no children. He married, secondly, Elizabeth Moss. They have no children.

(d) Mary¹⁰ Forrest married John Thomas Merrill, Jr. They had three children:

(1) Virginia¹¹ Merrill; unmarried;

(2) Frances¹¹ Merrill, married Colonel Frederick E. Graef. They have two adopted children.

(3) John Thomas¹¹ Merrill, III, married Mary Elizabeth Smith of Roanoke and they have two sons:

(aa) John Thomas¹² Merrill, IV; and (bb) Donald¹² Merrill. He married, secondly, Mrs. Mary Gerry, widow, in 1961.

This completes the present line of descendants of Paulina James⁷ White, through her third child, Cyrene Wesley⁸ White Diggs.

D. Cary Washington⁸ White, fourth child of Bartlett White and Paulina James⁷ White, was born August 11, 18—.(¹¹) The year is blurred in the record and could not be deciphered. He married a Miss Carroll. Information on this branch of the family is not available. From a paper prepared by the late Mrs. Carroll Chowning and the late Robert E. Blades, in cooperation with the late Mrs. John W. Hornsby and her sister Mrs. W. W. Crockett, in 1941, it was stated that Miss Carroll was of Washington, D. C. Their children were:

1. Columbus⁹ White;

2. Alice⁹ White; who married William J. Lee of Washington, D. C. and had five children:

(a) Julia¹⁰ Lee; (b) Mamie¹⁰ Lee; (c) Harry¹⁰ Lee; (d) George R.¹⁰ Lee, married and had descendants; (e) William J.¹⁰ Lee, Jr., married Lila ———, and had two children, Dorothy¹¹ Lee and Norman¹¹ Lee.

E. Cyrus James⁸ White, fifth child of Bartlett White and Paulina James⁷ White, was born August 11, 18—.(¹¹) The record gives these two names, Cary Washington White and Cyrus James White on two consecutive lines, and written by the name of Cyrus James White is "son of ditto", with birth date given, but inasmuch as they are thus recorded jointly it is presumed that they were twins.

Cyrus James⁸ White married Anna Elizabeth Boyd, known as "Lizzie". She was born in 1828 and died in 1914.(¹²) They had one daughter, Ella⁹ White, born in 1853 and died 1926,(¹³) unmarried.

Anna Elizabeth Boyd White had a Boyd brother who married and had one daughter, Mamie Boyd. Mamie's mother died and her "Aunt Lizzie" White reared Mamie, along with her own daughter, Ella. Mamie Boyd married Will Snellings and had two children. She died and her aunt also reared the Snellings children.

F. Absalom⁸ White, sixth child of Bartlett White and Paulina James⁷ White, is listed in an old family paper but was not recorded in the Kingston Parish Register with the other five children of Bartlett and Paulina James⁷ White. The same paper stated that Paulina James⁷ White Gayle was the mother of eleven children, five of whom were by her second husband, Robert Gayle. Her eleventh child was named "Levin". Thus Absalom⁸ White was the sixth and youngest child of her marriage to Bartlett White. Her five Gayle children bring the number to eleven. Nothing further is known of Absalom⁸ White. He probably died in infancy.

This brings to a close the present descendants of Paulina James⁷ White through her first six children, the children of her marriage to Bartlett White. The following pages record her descendants through her second marriage.

G. Edward⁸ Gayle, first child of Robert Gayle, but seventh child of his mother, Paulina James⁷ White Gayle, is recorded but no dates are given and there are no additional data.⁽¹⁵⁾ It is presumed that he died in infancy.

H. Robert Johnson⁸ Gayle, second child of Robert Gayle and eighth child of Paulina James⁷ White Gayle, was born in 1828.⁽¹⁶⁾ He married Sarah Hunley Brownley, January 8, 1852. She was born January 19, 1832. They had eight children:

1. Virginius Wilton⁹ Gayle, born November 27, 1852;
2. Charles Randolph⁹ Gayle, born April 2, 1854;
3. Mary Louise⁹ Gayle, born March 2, 1856;
4. Robert Finley⁹ Gayle, born January 22, 1858;
5. Kenneth Hall⁹ Gayle, born June 7, 1860;
6. Lester Templeton⁹ Gayle, born January 22, 1863;
7. Wm. Edward⁹ Brownley Gayle, born September 13, 1865;
8. Rosa Garrison⁹ Gayle, born December 21, 1867.

Sarah Brownley Gayle died June 19, 1907.

Robert Johnson⁸ Gayle, father of the above children, died August 14, 1917.

1. Virginius Wilton⁹ Gayle, first child of Robert J.⁸ Gayle and Sarah Brownley Gayle, born November 27, 1852, married Ella Henderson, October 3, 1875. They had no children.

2. Charles Randolph⁹ Gayle, second child of Robert J.⁸ Gayle and Sarah Brownley Gayle, born April 2, 1854, married Addie B. Foreman, October 23, 1884. They had two children, Nellie¹⁰ Gayle, who lived to maturity but never married, and Addie G.¹⁰ Gayle, who married William West and had two children.

3. Mary Louise⁹ Gayle, third child of Robert J.⁸ Gayle and Sarah Brownley Gayle, born March 2, 1856, married William Y. Lowe, April 25, 1877. They had three children:

- (a) William Randolph¹⁰ Lowe, born December 20, 1877;
- (b) Robert Gayle¹⁰ Lowe, born April 4, 1879;
- (c) Thomas Lester¹⁰ Lowe, born September 8, 1880; died July 1, 1881.

(a) William Randolph¹⁰ Lowe married Mary Evelyn Herbert, June 17, 1902. They had one daughter, Jean¹¹ Lowe, born November 19, 1910; died February 28, 1930.

(b) Robert Gayle¹⁰ Lowe married Edith Scattergood, June 4, 1913; died March 8, 1953. They had three children:

(1) Robert Gayle¹¹ Lowe, Jr., born May 14, 1914, married, first, Doris Jernigan, December 20, 1933. One child, Robert Gayle¹² Lowe, III, born October 1, 1935, married and they have one child, Robert Gayle¹³ Lowe, IV, born June 20, 1955. Robert Gayle¹¹ Lowe, Jr. married, secondly, Lois W. Boylan, October 3, 1940. They had two children:

- (aa) Wendy Carol¹² Lowe, born May 23, 1941;
 - (bb) Jon Bishop¹² Lowe, born January 21, 1945.
- (2) Edith S.¹¹ Lowe, born May 11, 1917, died April 11, 1918;
- (3) Mary Louise¹¹ Lowe, born May 29, 1919.

4. Robert Finley⁹ Gayle, fourth child of Robert J.⁸ Gayle and Sarah Brownley Gayle, born January 22, 1858, married May Jeanette Young, April 6, 1882. She was born August 29, 1862. They had eight children:

- (a) Carrie Young¹⁰ Gayle, born December 9, 1883;
- (b) May Louise¹⁰ Gayle, born November 5, 1885;
- (c) Sally Reed¹⁰ Gayle, born November 4, 1888;
- (d) Robert Finley¹⁰ Gayle, Jr., born December 18, 1891;
- (e) Young Kenneth¹⁰ Gayle, born November 24, 1893;
- (f) William Waggener¹⁰ Gayle, born July 18, 1896;
- (g) Joseph Young¹⁰ Gayle, born September 15, 1898;
- (h) Travis Taylor¹⁰ Gayle, born August 14, 1900.⁽¹⁷⁾

Robert Finley⁹ Gayle, father of the above children, was a Methodist minister in the Virginia Conference. He died Monday, March 4, 1940. His career is briefly revealed by the following obituary:⁽¹⁸⁾

(17) Data from Bible of Reverend Robert Finley Gayle.

(18) Richmond Christian Advocate.

Rev. Robert Finley Gayle, 82-year old superannuate minister of the Virginia Conference, died Monday, March 4, 1940, in a Richmond hospital. Funeral services were held March 6, in Monument Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. J. N. Latham, pastor of Central Church, and Rev. Frank L. Wells, pastor of Monument Church. Burial was in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond.

Mr. Gayle, a son of Robert Johnson Gayle and Mrs. Sarah Brownley Gayle of Mathews County, Virginia, was born January 22, 1858, in Portsmouth. He was educated in the private schools of Portsmouth, entered the ministry in 1879 served continuously until 1931, when he retired from the active pastorate because of poor health.

He served as pastor of churches in Richmond, Danville, Norfolk, Salisbury, Maryland, and as presiding elder in several districts in Virginia and Maryland.

He was past commander of the Knights Templar.

Mr. Gayle married Miss Jeanette Young, who died in 1934 at Urbanna, where the couple had been living. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Carroll C. Chowning of Urbanna and Mrs. Ernest L. Whitehurst of Norfolk; four sons, Dr. R. Finley Gayle, Jr. and Joseph Young Gayle of Richmond, Young Kenneth Gayle of Hilton Village, and William W. Gayle of Long Island, New York, and 13 grandchildren.

(a) Carrie¹⁰ Young Gayle, first child of Reverend Robert Finley⁹ Gayle and May Jeanette Young Gayle, married Dr. William Percy Jones, November 25, 1909. They had three children:

(1) Wm. Percy¹¹ Jones, Jr.; (2) May Jeanette¹¹ Jones; (3) Finley Gayle⁷¹ Jones.

Mrs. Carrie¹⁰ Gayle Jones died in 1922. Her pastor, Reverend George H. McFaden, wrote the following biographical sketch.⁽¹⁹⁾

We chronicle the departure out of this life of no ordinary woman, but one in whom was developed the completeness of perfect womanhood. Carrie Gayle Jones, wife of Dr. W. P. Jones and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. Finley Gayle, was born December 9, 1883, in Portsmouth, Virginia, and died March 13, 1922, at Urbanna, Virginia, leaving to mourn her departure a devoted husband, three children, W. Percy, May Jeanette, and Finley Gayle Jones, a loving father and mother, four brothers and two sisters and a host of friends.

(19) Richmond Christian Advocate.

Carrie was converted in her ninth year and united with the Methodist Church. One of her prevailing religious traits was her fidelity to her Master and His cause. Her delight in the House of the Lord, her love for the church, her patience in suffering, her submission to the Will Divine, her will only that of Him 'whose she was and whom she served', all gave the drawings of piety to a sanctified life.

I knew and loved her as a child. From my early ministry, I was frequently in the home. I was present at her graduation and through subsequent years I saw with interest her development into splendid womanhood. Could it be otherwise? A product of the parsonage! As a daughter, Carrie was an affectionate child, and the home-life of all within that sacred circle was made the more beautiful by her presence and sweet spirit.

As a sister, loving and considerate; wise beyond her years in her counsels. As a wife, in the home, moving with queenly grace, she was ever thoughtful, ready day or night to minister to the comfort and happiness of her husband, a physician with large practice, and, who, like the Man of Galilee, went about doing good.

As a mother, she was wrapped up in her children and never felt herself discharged from caring and doing for them. May her gentle mantle fall upon the dear little ones.

As a friend, she was true and always thoughtful, and sustained a very important relation to the church and community in which she lived. She died as she lived, a Christian. Earth is the poorer for the transition out of it of so beautiful a life, but heaven is the richer. The memory of her consecrated life, adorned with gospel graces, is fragrant with the incense of pious life and gives her name to the future through the influence she exerted while living, for, while 'she rests from her labors, her works do follow her.' To our friend, Dr. Jones, and the three children who mourn the absence of the departed wife and mother, to the father and mother, and other loved ones, we extend our most sincere sympathies. Their grief is greatest of all, but so should be their consolation. Their dear one awaits their coming to join her in that home which is, after all, the only true home of souls. By God's grace, we hope to meet her in the sanctified throng of heavenly beings.

'O how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain,
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands,
To meet one another again.'

The three children of Dr. William Percy Jones and Carrie¹⁰ Gayle Jones, all married, are: (1) William Percy¹¹ Jones, Jr., (2) May Jeanette¹¹ Jones, and (3) Finley Gayle¹¹ Jones, who was killed on Luzon in the Phillipines in World War II, leaving no descendants.

(b) May Louise¹⁰ Gayle, second child of Reverend Robert Finley⁹ Gayle and May Jeannette Young Gayle, married Carroll C. Chowning, July 3, 1920. They had two children:

- (1) Gayle¹¹ Chowning, who married and has two children;
- (2) Carroll C. Chowning, Jr., unmarried (1961).

Mrs. May Louise¹⁰ Gayle Chowning died December, 1951.

(c) Sally Reed¹⁰ Gayle, third child of Reverend Robert Finley⁹ Gayle and May Jeanette Young Gayle, married Ernest L. Whitehurst, October 3, 1912. They have two daughters, (1) Jeanette Gayle¹¹ Whitehurst, and (2) Rosalee¹¹ Whitehurst who married Loring Norvell and has two children:

- (aa) Gayle C.¹² Norvell, born January 7, 1946;
- (bb) Loring Linwood¹² Norvell, born January 20, 1948.

(d) Robert Finley¹⁰ Gayle, Jr., fourth child of Reverend Robert Finley⁹ Gayle and May Jeannette Young Gayle, married, first, Elizabeth Marshall Cole, August 16, 1919. They had three children:

- (1) Elizabeth Marshall¹¹ Gayle, born May 15, 1920;
- (2) Robert Finley¹¹ Gayle, III, born March 11, 1922;
- (3) John Cole¹¹ Gayle, born December 10, 1924.

Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall Cole Gayle died in 1944 and Dr. Robert Finley¹⁰ Gayle, Jr. married, secondly, Mrs. Sarah Rice Geer Dale in 1945. They had no children.

Dr. Gayle¹⁰ died November 4, 1957. The following biographical sketch was published:⁽²⁰⁾

A graveside service was held Wednesday at Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, for Dr. R. Finley Gayle, Jr., 65, who died Monday night in Medical College of Virginia Hospital, Richmond after a short illness.

Dr. Gayle was a former president of the American Psychiatric Association. He had been in private psychiatric practice in Richmond since 1919, and during that time he was associated with Medical College of Virginia in a teaching capacity. He had headed the psychiatric department of the Medical

Mrs. Nora P. Enos died in 1922. The following tribute was published in March 1922.⁽¹⁴⁾

Whereas, in His all-wise Providence our kind Father has seen fit to remove from our midst one of our beloved members in the person of Mrs. Nora P. Enos, we, the members of the Ware Woman's Missionary Society of St. Paul's M. E. Church, South, Mathews County, Virginia, wish to give an expression of our bereavement, also of our appreciation of her life as a member of our society.

Resolved: First, we deeply feel the loss of one who loved her Society, and always responded liberally when called upon for church or society.

Second. In the removal of such a member there is gloom cast over our Society. She was pleasant and genial. She had a host of friends in Mathews, where she resided about fifteen years and in North Carolina, her native home. Besides her friends, she leaves a son, a mother, two sisters and five brothers to mourn their loss. She longed to be spared for the sake of her boy.

Died at her home in York County, Virginia, December 2, 1913, Mrs. Susan James Crockett, aged seventy-nine years. Her husband, Robert W. Crockett, preceded her to the grave just one year.

She joined the Methodist Church in her girlhood and lived a quiet Christian life to the end. She was, before her marriage, a Miss James of Mathews County, a family noted for its piety and integrity.

(18) Susan James⁸ Crockett Family Bible for all her dates and names and dates of her children.

(19) Richmond Christian Advocate.

'Cousin Susan', as she was familiarly known, in her community, had a host of friends. She was a person of unusual good cheer, and her genial laugh had a ring of youthfulness almost to the last. Even under the most trying circumstances she could brush away the tears and smile so kindly. People loved to share the sunshine of her presence.

Eight children survive this good mother, and no one ever had more devoted loved ones.

She was separated from her beloved husband just one year. While she bore this great sorrow as bravely as it was her wont to do, she never really recovered from the blow. No two wedded lives ever blended in more harmony than theirs. 'Loving Sweethearts', till death separated them, could be fittingly said of these dear departed ones. The husband for fifty years was a steward in the Methodist Church. Their seats are vacant in the sanctuary, but to those who loved them best comes the happy thought of the reunion beyond the river.

On December 3, 1913, an immense concourse of friends and relatives assembled at Providence Church in Dare to pay the last tribute to the departed. She was placed beside her husband in the family section of this church cemetery.

CHAPTER VI

CARY JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Cary James⁷, sixth child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife, Betsy James, was born September 27, 1795 in Mathews County, Virginia.⁽¹⁾ He married Ann Custis Ironmonger of York County, Virginia, December 28, 1824. She was the daughter of James Ironmonger and Mary Chandler (Wise) Ironmonger and was born January 13, 1803. In the parish register of births his name is spelled Cary, probably for John Cary, a vestryman, but in later years his family often spelled it Carey.

Cary James⁷ bought a farm in Crab Neck on Claxton's Creek, a branch of Back Creek, the land adjoining the Ironmonger property. He was a farmer and waterman. His brother, Reverend Cyrus Basye James⁷, performed the marriage ceremony.⁽²⁾ Two children were born to them:

A. Mary Elizabeth James⁸, born October 26, 1827;

B. Harriett Ann James⁸, born January 15, 1834.

The death date of Cary James⁷ is not available but it is known that he died prior to 1874. The obituary notice of his wife, Ann C. Ironmonger James, states that "she died February 9, 1874, the widow of Cary James."

A. Mary Elizabeth James⁸, first child of Cary James⁷ and Ann C. Ironmonger James, married Carey W. Crockett, December 31, 1840. He was born October 22, 1817, the son of Whittington Crockett of Crab Neck.

December 28, 1840. To the Clerk of York County Cort (sic).

Sirs,—This is my consent for you to grant license to Capt. Carey W. Crockett to marry my daughter, Mary Elizabeth.

(signed) Cary James.⁽³⁾

To them were born fourteen children. All but one of them lived to maturity and left many descendants. Their children were:⁽⁴⁾

This completes the tracing of descendants of Miriam Marshal James⁷ White through all of her twelve children, thus bringing the chapter to a close.

The old White home was described by two great granddaughters of Joseph Davis White and Miriam James⁷ White, and their statements were echoed by others in the family. They said:

The old White home was on East River, near what was once Traders Post Office, which is now closed; right across the river from Mobjack. A lovely spot! The old house had a basement. One part was on high brick columns. Lovely old outside chimneys all covered with ivy. This home was owned by Joseph Davis White, and probably was owned earlier by Joseph's father and mother, Edward White and Pembroke Singleton White. It was sold a few years ago, torn down, and a modern home was built on the site.

CHAPTER VIII

MARTHA WASHINGTON JAMES⁷ AND DESCENDANTS

Martha Washington James⁷, eighth child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife Betsy James, was born March 8, 1800.⁽¹⁾ She married John A. White, called "Jack", February 9, 1822.⁽²⁾ He was the son of John White, born⁽³⁾ in Gloucester County, March, 1756, died June 12, 1834, and Elizabeth Davenport White. John A. White was born November 17, 1794. John A. White and Martha James⁷ White had seven children.⁽²⁾

- A. Arthur Bennett⁸ White, born January 10, 1823;
- B. Miles H.⁸ White, born August 18, 1830;
- C. John French⁸ White, born May 23, 1834;
- D. William Henry Wise⁸ White, born October 14, 1836;
- E. Mary Elizabeth Cowles⁸ White, born April 25, 1839;
- F. Augusta Davenport⁸ White, born October 27, 1840;
- G. Susan Fannie⁸ White, born February 26, 1843.

John A. White, father of the above children died May 4, 1848. Martha W. James⁷ White, mother of the above children, died August 16, 1849.⁽⁴⁾

A. Arthur Bennett⁸ White, first child of John A. White and Martha James⁷ White, born January 10, 1823; married Mary Davis. They had three children:

- 1. Eudora⁹ White, born January 13, 1853;
- 2. Mary⁹ D. White;
- 3. Arthur⁹ B. White, Jr.

Arthur Bennett⁸ White served in the Civil War, Confederate States Army. The following biographical sketch, written nearly a hundred years ago, was published in the Richmond Christian Advocate:

Few live a more blameless life than was his. From the time he espoused the cause of Christ, which was in young manhood, to the day of his death, his life was marked with earnest piety and true devotion to God. He was eminently beloved and useful in the neighborhood in which he lived, and in the church of which he was a member, filling faithfully and efficiently the offices of steward, class-leader, trustee and Sunday-school superintendent. Sensibly do the church and neighborhood feel the loss of him today.

On the morning of the 21st of March, 1862, at the call of his country, he left his earthly home and bid adieu to his wife and three little children, to take part in the struggles of the late unfortunate war. He never returned home or saw his family again. On September 17, 1862, the day on which so many good and brave men fell on the battle ground of Sharpsburg, a minieball from the Federal ranks entered his temple, instantly terminated his earthly existence.

The writer will never forget that memorable morning. We had been marching nearly all night, and about sunrise, hungry and fatigued, we forded the Potomac and reached the banks of Maryland, where we halted, stacked arms, and gathered up some sticks to make coffee; but before the coffee could be made we were summoned to our places in ranks again, and on our march for the scene of action.

The booming of cannon and the rattle of musketry assured us we were near the field of strife and would soon be engaged in battle. Coming to a place just outside the field, there was another halt, during which Mr. White drew a brother-in-law and the writer a few feet from the column, and questioned us about our feelings on going in the fight. We assured him of our trust in God, and our resignation to His will, whatever that might be. He said such were his feelings and expressed much satisfaction on hearing that our feelings were so much like his. We never spoke to each other again, for soon we were engaged and he and the brother-in-law both fell, and the writer narrowly escaped. The next day we gave them the best burial our circumstances would allow.

After the battle the following appeared in the Richmond Dispatch:

Arthur B. White: Killed while bravely defending his country in that memorable battle of Sharpsburg, Maryland, on the 17th of September, 1862, Orderly Sergeant Arthur B. White of Company K, 32nd Regiment, Va. Volunteers, in the 39th year of his age.

Deceased was born in Portsmouth, Va., but for the past 25 years he has been a resident of York County, Va. He was a tried soldier, brave and true. His Company has lost a valuable member, and a loved comrade; his bereaved wife, a devoted and affectionate companion; his dear little children, a loving father; society and the Church, a useful member. He will be missed in all the relations of life. The body quietly sleeps beneath the sod of Sharpsburg while the wind mourns requiem over his grave, and the pale moon sends its mellow rays over the last resting place of our departed friend. Mrs. Martha C. Davis White, mother of the above children, died October 24, 1917.

John French⁸ White, father of the above children, served in the 32nd Infantry Regiment, Confederate Army, in the Civil War. He was a local preacher in the Methodist Church, having been licensed to preach in 1866. He was ordained by Bishop Wightman in 1870.⁽⁷⁾ It was through his instrumentality that the Methodist Church at Morrison, Newport News, was built and which he served a year or more.

The people among whom he lived loved him very dearly and he was called to visit them in their sickness and sorrow, to marry their young people, baptize their infants and bury their dead. According to a record he kept, he married 208 couples, baptised 216 children and conducted 246 funerals. This is quite a remarkable record for a man not in the regular pastorate, and shows the high esteem in which he was held by those among whom he lived and labored.⁽⁸⁾

He died January 2, 1922, in the eighty-eighth year of his age.

1. Ora Sue⁹ White, first child of John French⁸ White and Martha C. Davis White, died September 9, 1868, aged eight years.

(3) Alma¹¹ Bunting married W. Herbert Moore. They have three children:

(aa) Jean¹² Moore, who is married; (bb) W. Herbert¹² Moore, Jr.; and (cc) A daughter¹² Moore.

(4) Annie¹¹ Bunting married Millard Barnes. They have three children:

(aa) Nelson¹² Barnes, who married, first, Ruth Jayne Morgan, no children; and, secondly, Nancy Hogg and they have one child.

(bb) Beverly¹² Barnes, married and has one child;

(cc) Neil¹² Barnes.

(5) Linnell¹¹ Bunting married Percy Ironmonger. They have three children:

(aa) Percy¹² Ironmonger, Jr.; (bb) Brenda¹² Ironmonger; (cc) Maureen¹² Ironmonger.

(6) Mamie¹¹ Bunting married; had no children; died young.

(7) Julia¹¹ Bunting married Samuel Hopkins. They have four children:

(aa) Judy¹² Hapkins; (bb) Gregory¹² Hopkins; and two others.

(8) Wm. Eldridge¹¹ Bunting, Jr. married Miriam Jane Moore; They have one daughter, Judy¹² Bunting.

(c) Henrietta¹⁰ Wilson, called "Nett", married Hynd Holloway. They had two children:

(1) Pearl¹¹ Holloway; (2) Elam¹¹ Holloway, called "Buster".

(1) Pearl¹¹ Holloway married James Evans and had three children:

(aa) Marilyn¹² Evans, who married _____ Thomas; (bb) Nellie¹² Evans; and (cc) Betty¹² Evans.

(2) Elam¹¹ Holloway is married; has no children, (1956).

(d) Eva¹⁰ Cox, youngest child of Octavia⁹ Moore Wilson Cox, and her second husband, Rosser Cox, married William Forrest. They had two children:

(1) Louise¹¹ Forrest, who married and has children;

(2) William¹¹ Hugh Forrest, who married Coretta Moore and has three children:

(aa) Vandelia¹² Forrest; (bb) William Hugh¹² Forrest, Jr.; and (cc) Mark¹² Forrest.

4. Leroy Franklin⁹ Moore, son of Stephen Moore and Henrietta⁸ Roberts (Dixon) Moore, married Mary Ellen Callis. They had four children:

5. Preston Rooksby⁹ Moore, son of Stephen Moore and Henrietta⁸ Roberts (Dixon) Moore, married Lina Holsten. They had a son, Rooksby¹⁰ Moore, Jr.

6. John William⁹ Moore, youngest son of Stephen Moore and Henrietta⁸ Roberts (Dixon) Moore, married Linda Edens of Charlottesville, Virginia. They had no children.

It will be noted that the oldest daughter of Harriett James⁷ Roberts was Henrietta Frances⁸ Roberts; that she married (first) Adolphus Dixon and had one Dixon child; that she married secondly Stephen Moore, who was a widower with one or more children; that she had five Moore children. The descendants of these six children have been traced as accurately and completely as possible. She died, and Stephen Moore married again, a widow.

B. Martha Elizabeth⁸ Washington Roberts, second child of Rooksby Roberts and Harriett James⁷ Roberts, was born August 12, 1834.⁽⁸⁾ She married John T. Montgomery of York County, son of John Montgomery and Sarah Hopkins Montgomery.⁽⁹⁾ He served in the 115th Virginia Regiment, Confederate States Army, enlisting June 24, 1861.⁽¹⁰⁾ They had eleven children:

- 1. Adolphus Franklin⁹ Montgomery, born April 10, 1855;
- 2. Nicholas C.⁹ Montgomery, born January 21, 1857;

These two children were baptized June 1, 1857 by the Reverend Cyrus B. James.⁽¹¹⁾

5. Joseph S.⁹ Montgomery, son of John T. Montgomery and Martha E.⁸ Roberts Montgomery, married Minnie Burch, and they had three children:⁽¹³⁾

(a) Edith¹⁰ Montgomery, who is married;

(b) Sallie¹⁰ Montgomery, who married James A. Doubles; they have two children;

(c) Joseph S.¹⁰ Montgomery, Jr., who is married and has one daughter.

6. Sarah⁹ Montgomery, "Sallie", daughter of John T. Montgomery and Martha E.⁸ Roberts Montgomery, married William Alexander Brown of Baltimore. They had three children:⁽¹⁴⁾

(a) William Alexander¹⁰ Brown, Jr., died in infancy;

(b) Mamie Lee¹⁰ Brown, died in infancy;

(c) Wilson¹⁰ Montgomery Brown. He married Doris Ambers. They had one son:

(1) Wilson¹¹ Montgomery Brown, Jr., who married Elizabeth Shanklin; and they have four children:

(aa) Wilson¹² Montgomery Brown, III; (bb) Laura Porter¹² Brown; (cc) David Shelby¹² Brown; (dd) Arthur Shelby¹² Brown.

7. William⁹ Montgomery; 8. Roy C.⁹ Montgomery; 9. Ethelbert⁹ Montgomery; 10. Waverly⁹ Montgomery; and 11. Stanley⁹ Montgomery, sons of John T. Montgomery and Martha E. Roberts Montgomery, were unmarried.

This brings to a close the record of descendants of Martha Elizabeth⁸ W. Roberts Montgomery, second child of Rooksby Roberts and Harriett James⁷ Roberts.

C. Leroy Franklin⁸ Roberts, third child of Rooksby Roberts and Harriett James⁷ Roberts, was born August 19, 1836. His parents died before December 1840 and Frank⁸ Roberts lived with his aunt's family, John A. White (Jack) and Martha W. James⁷ White. He died in childhood, but the death date is not available.

D. Diannah⁸ Roberts, fourth and youngest child of Rooksby Roberts and Harriett James⁷ Roberts, was born December 19, 1837 and died October 10, 1838.⁽¹⁵⁾

This brings to a close the record of present descendants of Harriett James⁷ Roberts, tenth child of Thomas James⁶ and Betsy, his wife.

CHAPTER XI

WILLIAM LEVEN JAMES⁷

William Leven James⁷, eleventh and youngest child of Thomas James⁶ and his wife Betsy James, was born⁽¹⁶⁾ January 20, 1808, and died October 28, 1826⁽¹⁷⁾ unmarried. His place of interment is not recorded so far as is known but was presumably in the Thomas James family cemetery in Mathews County.

This brings to a close this record of the descendants past and present of Thomas and Betsy James — eleven children, seventy-four grandchildren, and a host of their descendants.

APPENDIX I

MALE DESCENDANTS SURNAMED JAMES

Of the four sons of Thomas and Betsy James of Kingston Parish in Gloucester, and later (1790) in Mathews counties in Virginia, it is only through Cyrus Basye (Basey) James, the oldest son, that there are descendants (1961) surnamed James.

The line of Thomas Degge Davis James, second son, ended in 1907 with the death of his son John Franklin James who had no sons. Cary James, third son of Thomas and Betsy James, had no sons, and William Leven James, fourth and last son of this couple, never married.

The line through Cyrus Basye James' oldest son, William, ended in 1884 with the death of his son William James, Jr. Edward Thomas James, second son of Cyrus Basye James, died unmarried. Cyrus Wesley James, third and youngest son of Cyrus Basye James, had one son, Cyrus Rosser James, through whom the direct male line survives.

There are three sons of Cyrus Rosser James. They are: Alfred Procter James, Arthur Wilson James and Benjamin Rosser James. Their male descendants are: William James, only son of Alfred Procter James; Eugene Neale James, Benjamin Rosser James, Jr.; and John Cary James, sons of Benjamin Rosser James.

Great grandsons of Cyrus Rosser James, infants and youths, are Richard Michael James, Robert James, Ralph Benjamin James, John Randall James, sons of Eugene James, and Jon Mark James, son of B. R. James, Jr. These are the only male descendants in the direct line having the surname James.

For the benefit of their many cousins of other family names, as well as for the benefit of other James families both mentioned and unmentioned in this genealogy who may be interested, it seems appropriate to append the following brief biographical sketches of these adult Jameses:

Alfred Procter James, AB of Randolph-Macon College, AB and MA of Oxford University (Rhodes scholar from Virginia), Ph.D. of the University of Chicago, professor emeritus of history at the University of Pittsburgh, author of The Writings of General John Forbes, The Ohio Company, Its Inner History and other books and numerous brochures and articles on the eighteenth-century history of Virginia, Kentucky, West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania, is the oldest of the male line. He was born in Elizabeth City County, Virginia on February 7, 1886. He married Mabel Williams of Wisconsin.

Arthur Wilson James, AB of the College of William and Mary, MA University of Chicago, attorney-at-law in Virginia (University of Richmond), formerly Commissioner of Public Welfare in Virginia, author of Virginia's Social Awakening, The State Becomes a Social Worker, quondam editor of State Government (Council of State Governments), consultant in public administration, research and publications, is now retired. He was born October 8, 1889; has never married.

Benjamin Rosser James, BA College of William and Mary, was a high school teacher prior to entering the West Virginia Methodist Conference where he served thirty years or more before retiring in 1960. He was born July 29, 1894. He married Julia Neale of Brewton, Alabama.

William James, MA of Pittsburgh, is consultant in transportation economics with the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia. He married Rosanne Linnert of Pittsburgh.

Eugene Neal James, BA, University of Detroit, was a combat pilot in the Marine Air Force in World War II and in the Korean Conflict. He retired as a Major; married Dorothy Hedrick of Detroit, Michigan. He is in the real estate business in Milton, Florida.

Benjamin Rosser James, Jr., BS in Chemistry, West Virginia Wesleyan College, was with DuPont in Wilmington, Delaware for several years before resigning to enter Drew University, where he received the BD degree. He subsequently entered the West Virginia Methodist Conference. He is now pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Charleston, West Virginia. He married June Dager of Manoa, Pennsylvania.

John Cary James, BS in Chemistry at West Virginia Wesleyan, Ph.D. in Chemistry, University of Delaware, is with the Monsanto Company in Boston, Massachusetts. He married Geraldine Fantine.

TO OUR FOREFATHERS

You who have handed us life's torch, new kindled,
We are your own, in us you live again.
Oh, may we prove your influence has not dwindled,
The earth holds yet a sturdy race of men!

We are your children, citizens or sages,
Sharing your race, your likeness, thought and aim;
Guarding life's spark, to hand it down the ages,
And make earth somehow fairer that we came.

The swift years pass. Yet how should we forget you,
Long gone before us, journeying on ahead?
We mold the eager dreams you left unfinished
Ere, we must follow you whom men call dead.

God make us worthy of the lives that shaped us!
Make our work stand when we have gone our way;
When in the distant years we shall not enter
May our children help to make a better day.

APPENDIX II

MILITARY SERVICE

The author is happily aware of the interest of many of the younger generations of the family in the military services of their ancestors. The requests for information to support applications for membership in the orders and societies of descendants are extensive and persistent. Members of the direct and related ancestral lines of the Thomas James⁶ family, and those of the populous, ten, descendant lines, have served in the Armed Forces of the United States and of the Confederate States of America in gratifying numbers. To discover and record all such service would entail years of research and require space beyond the acceptable limits of this volume. In lieu of a definitive treatment of these services, the author has, nevertheless, chosen to append the records which have been revealed by this study and those which were otherwise readily available. She hopes that the many omissions will be understood and that she will be absolved now and hereafter for them.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

So far as the author knows, no lineal descendant of Thomas James⁶ holds membership in the Sons of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, Society Of The Cincinnati, or other society, membership in which is based on active service of an ancestor surnamed James. Thomas James⁶ was of the proper age for such service, and he may have served but there is no known proof that he did. His father died before the Revolution. There were Northern Neck (Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond, Westmoreland, King George counties) participants surnamed James who may have been collateral kin, including a Thomas James. Members of Elizabeth Basye James' parental family served but not of her lineal family. Descendants of Cary James⁷ are members of the Sons of the Revolution and the DAR through his wife, Ann Custis Ironmonger James, from her grandfather Lieutenant Cornelius Ironmonger of Accomack County. A Cary James⁷ descendant is a member of the Society Of The Cincinnati through his mother's line from Lieutenant John Moore. Among those listed for "just claims for persons furnishing certain commodities for use of the Army" during the Revolution were Elizabeth James, Eliza James and Sarah James, of Lancaster County, all kin of Thomas James.⁶ Michael James, of Lancaster, probably a cousin, was a Lieutenant in the Navy.⁽¹⁾ Such specialized research was not undertaken in this study.

THE WAR OF 1812

The "Muster Roll, Field and Staff, 92nd Virginia Regiment, Colonel John Chowning commander, service of the U. S. 1813-1814, and Pay Roll" lists: Thomas James, Adjutant; William James, Private; John James, Lieutenant; Bartley (Bartlett) James, Sergeant; David H. James, Private – all collateral to Thomas James.⁶ ⁽²⁾

THE CIVIL WAR

York County, lying between Old Point Comfort (Fortress Monroe) and Yorktown, was directly in the line of General McClellan's drive toward Richmond in 1861. It was quickly occupied, his forces being billeted in the homes and encamped in the fields in the communities of the James families – Fish Neck, Crab Neck, Goodwin's Neck, Poquoson, Cockletown, Wormley's Creek, as they were known at that time, and up to Yorktown. Across the York River in Gloucester and Mathews the family communities suffered less but were also affected.

Although far from complete, the following list of Thomas James⁶ descendants who served in the Confederate States Army is indicative of the response of the Tidewater Virginia people to the call of the Confederacy:⁽³⁾

Daniel McKendree Carmines, Corporal, 32nd Virginia Regiment, Militia.

William Baines Cox, Company I, 32nd Regiment, wounded at Sharpsburg, September 15, 1862.

James Marshall Davis, Battalion G, 1st Virginia Regiment.

Benjamin Franklin Diggs, Mathews Artillery, Starkes Battery.

William B. Diggs, Mathews Artillery, Starkes Battery.

Josiah W. Freeman, "Thomas" Company, 115th Regiment, Militia.

J. Sydney Freeman, Company I, 32nd Regiment, Militia; died at Sharpsburg, September 17, 1862.

Albert F. Hudgins, Private, Company F, 5th Regiment, Virginia Cavalry; taken prisoner May 11, 1864, released June 19, 1865.

William C. Hunt, Corporal, "Watkins" Company, 115th Regiment.

Charles B. Franklin Ironmonger, Corporal in Charge of Day Guard; died in service January 23, 1863.

Lemuel M. Ironmonger, Sergeant, Company H, 6th Virginia Infantry; prisoner, released June 7, 1865.

William Wesley Ironmonger, Company I, 32nd Regiment; died in service, October 1, 1861.

Alexander James, Company F, 5th Regiment, Point Lookout, Maryland.

Cyrus Wesley James, "Hogg's" Company, 115th Regiment, Militia.

Edward James, Company H, 12th Regiment.

John Franklin James, Company G, 16th Regiment, and Company F, 11th Regiment; discharged for disability.

Richard James, Company I, 38th Regiment.

Thomas Benton James, Company A, 8th Regiment, and Company D, 26th Regiment.

Thomas Jefferson James, Company F, 4th Regiment.

William Thomas James, Company G, 16th Regiment.

John T. Montgomery, Private, "Thomas" Company, 115th Regiment.

Stephen Moore, Private, 54th Regiment.

Arthur Bennett White, Sergeant, Company K, 115th Regiment; died at Sharpsburg, September 17, 1862.

Cary Washington White, Private, Company E, 1st Battalion, State Reserves.

Cornelius Fletcher White, Master Workman, Navy.

Edward White, Company E, 12th Regiment, Company C, 30th Regiment.

George Washington White, Private, Company G, 53rd Regiment; also Mathews Artillery, Starkes Battery.

James G. White, Mathews Artillery, Starkes Battery.

John French White, Sergeant, "Hogg's" Company, 115th Militia, 32nd Infantry.

Joseph Washington White, Company E, 4th Battalion, L. D. Naval.

Robert L. White, 32nd Regiment, died at Sharpsburg, September 15, 1862.

Thomas James White, Company D, 26th Regiment, died and was buried at Point Lookout, Maryland.

William H. White, Sergeant, "Watkins" Company, 115th Regiment.

William Henry White, Mathews Artillery, Starke's Battery.

Wise White, Private, Company I, 32nd Regiment.

These members of the Thomas James⁶ family, those who survived, many of whom the author knew well, returned to the devastation and dire poverty of their lands and homes and began the long years of rehabilitation of their properties and the general economy.

APPENDIX III

WHO ARE THESE PEOPLE?

The answer to this question, first asked of the author by a twelfth-generation descendant now a college student living beyond the principal locale of the family groups, is naturally of great interest to all descendants. As in the matter of military service records, a complete answer would be far beyond the resources of the study and the limits of a single volume. The easiest and, perhaps, the safest answer would be merely that over the years the occupations and interests of these people have been normally varied and widespread. However, as a sample so to speak, the author is delighted to record briefly the occupations and achievements of a few known to her or which have been called to her attention.

The warp and woof of society is made up largely of plain, every-day people whose identity and contributions are lost in the masses and are less recognizable, but are nevertheless important. Many, many members of this large family have been and are such people. Many, many others have gained public recognition, and often acclaim, in professional and specialized fields. It seems, indeed, that the numbers of these are extraordinary for one family, especially for one beset for so many years with the dire misfortunes of the Civil War and its aftermaths. Among these the following are recalled — with due apologies to the kin of even larger numbers, perhaps, unrecalled.

Clergymen

Thomas James should, himself, head the list of churchmen, having been both a parish clerk and a lay reader of the Episcopal Church of Virginia. Cyrus Basye James, his first son, was a pioneer Methodist minister and a founder of three Methodist churches. Cyrus Rosser James, Benjamin Rosser James, and Benjamin Rosser James, Jr., direct descendants, were or are Methodist ministers. Benjamin F. Woodward and R. Finley Gayle were Methodists and Presiding Elders. Other members of the Virginia Methodist Conference were: John Edward White, Irvin Llewellyn, Walter Jerome Williams, Martin Diggs, Joseph F. White, Traynham Topping, Percy Daniel White, Royal Beverley Watkins, Charles Harmon Walton, Norwood P. Montgomery, and Donald P. Davis. Also: William Alan Thomas, North Carolina Methodist Conference; James Brown and David Steere, Presbyterian ministers; Richard L. James, Jr., Disciples of Christ, and J. T. Garland Moore, Baptist minister. Lorenza P. Topping, John French White and others were local Methodist ministers.

Physicians

James Worth Brantley; Walter Ralph Chastian; William M. Ditto; Robert T. Edwards; Robert Finley Gayle, Jr. and Robert Finley Gayle, III; W. P. Jones; Chas. Elroy Llewellyn, Sr. and Chas. Elroy Llewellyn, Jr.; Vincent P. Pisula; Jas. Asa Shield; Stanley Wise White; Geo. P. Rouse, Jr., Jack Dawson.

In related fields: Donald Everett Jolissaint, physical therapist; William Herbert Morse, Ph.D., laboratory technician; Joseph W. Smither, druggist; Clara Forrest, Lucille King, Winifred White, registered nurses.

Attorneys-at-Law

Donald P. Blakeslee, Young Kenneth Gayle, Louis Harvey Hall, Wm. Edward Hogg, John William Hornsby, Robert Stanley Hornsby, Gordon Hudgins, A. B. Smith, Robert J. Watkins, I. Leake Wornom, Jr., Tazewell Taylor, Jr., Conway H. Sheild, Jr. William Edward Hogg is County Judge of York County and Conway H. Sheild, Jr. is Circuit Judge, Newport News, Va.

In related fields: Sydney Teagle, Justice-of-the-Peace; Albert Sydney White, Sr. and Albert Sydney White, Jr., York County sheriffs; Albert F. Hudgins, clerk of courts.

Teachers

For generations this family has provided teachers and school heads for public and private institutions of all grades. They were among the first public school teachers in Virginia. Cyrus Basye James, Daniel McKendree Carmines, Albert F. Hudgins, S. Scott Hogg and Cyrus Rosser James were early York County tutors and teachers. In colleges and universities the family has often been represented, including President Frank Cowles Woodward, University of South Carolina; Dr. Richard Henry Sharp, Randolph-Macon Woman's College; Dr. Alfred P. James, University of Pittsburgh; Dr. John McKenzie, Harvard University; Dr. John Cary James, University of Delaware; Mary Virginia Woodward, Converse College; Walter Ralph Chastian, Jr., University of South Carolina.

In other areas of education Benton C. Charles, school superintendent; Kenneth S. Tyler, high school administrator; Robert Bingham, founder of the Bingham School for Boys (married Elvira Woodward, secondly). Among the hundreds of teachers are: Clara E. James, Mattie Vaiden Hogg, Annie E. James, Alfred White, Mary C. Ironmonger, Edith Spottswood Asher, Carrie White Moore, Zola Topping, Merrill Dean Moore, Neva V. Burcher, Mary Rebecca Diggs, Thelma E. Ironmonger, Ethel Sparrer, Alice Estelle Ironmonger, Bertha Hurst Sparrer, Nancy Apperson, Ruth Constance James, Alice Diggs, Katharine Walton — and others.

Bankers

Wilson Montgomery Brown, Clarence Edward Crockett, Jacob Cecil Knapp.

Builders

H. Ivey Moore, Archie Milton White, Fay S. Moore, Sr., Raymond White, McDowell Moore, J. Wesley Ironmonger.

National and State Parks

Parke S. Rouse, Jr., Jamestown Festival Park; John Royal Ironmonger, Colonial National Historical Park, Yorktown.

Music

Wm. Henry White, teacher; vocalists — Florence Hudgins, Lillie James, Carroll T. Forrest, Owen Thomas Phillips, Iva Moore, Francis Benjamin Hoadley; pianist — T. Vincent Watkins.

Writers

Dr. Langdon Gilkey, Vanderbilt University; Stephen Adelbert Hewitt, Peoria Journal Transcript; also, see Appendix I.

Business

John T. Montgomery, Richmond; John William Marshall, West Point; Banche Moore Pitts, real estate; Forrest E. Wornom, W. Cowles Hogg, John L. Hogg, George Purgold and Joseph Purgold of Newport News Ship Building Co.; Wm. F. White, Chas. L. White and Joseph Y. Gayle, insurance; Edward F. Schmidt, Jr., real estate; Hornsby Brothers — Wm. Sherwood, Chas. W., Robert S., Norman T., John W., Jr. — J. W. Hornsby Oil Co.; J. Y. S. and E. E. Slaight, seafoods.

Variety

C. Trafton Robertson, radio announcer; Dorothy R. Bottom, Newport News Daily Press editor and manager; George Herman Morse, electronics technician; William Alfred James, transportation economics; Lorene Amory Shields, dietician; Wallace Stephen Johnson, Jr., foreign service study; Gerald Shields, Tulane University counsellor.

Watermen

In the more than three centuries of this family in Tidewater Virginia more of the men have earned their livelihood from the bounteous waters of the Chesapeake Bay and its myriad tributaries, directly and indirectly, than in any other manner in all probability. Walter James, Jr., son of the immigrant, circa 1662-1722, established a boat building business in Lancaster County. Eight generations later practically all of his male descendants of the Thomas James line were boat builders and watermen, down to the days of factories and mass production. The sons of Thomas James and their sons were builders and operators of boats and ships. Cary James, William James, Benjamin T. Riggin, Sr., Cyrus Wesley James, Christopher Columbus Davis and Cyrus B. James built many of the famous "Poquoson canoes", the workhorse boat of sailing days of the seafoods industry. John Franklin James, John Henry Marshall, William Templeman Ironmonger, Frank Hope Ironmonger, Sr., Luther J. Ironmonger and others were licensed masters of ships of sail and steam on both inland and ocean waters — men who went down to the sea. Today, hardly a lower Chesapeake harbor is without one or more of this family engaged in the business of boats and seafoods production. It has been and is yet a way of life as well as a great tradition.

And now, Anne, and all others who may ask the same question, I have done my best to answer you. Though far from complete, I feel sure that this limited information will prove both interesting and impressive to you as it is to me and my colleagues of this family study.

"The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a line,
Nor all your tears wash out a Word of it."
